OPINION OF CORPORATION COUNSEL, RELATIVE TO AWARDING OF CONTRACTS AND THE GRANTING OF EXTRAS, OR IN OTHER WORDS, THE INCURRING OF LIABILITIES PERTAINING TO APPROPRIATION MADE.

BOSTON, April 14, 1930.

LOUIS K. ROURKE, ESQUIRE, Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings.

DEAR SIR,—I have your letter of March 22 in which you inclose the letter of the Finance Commission regarding the unpaid bills of the former Schoolhouse Commission for the year 1929 and in which letter you ask to be advised what your procedure should be as to indorsing these bills for payment.

It is almost elementary that a department head cannot legally expend money for his departmental activities beyond the amount of money made available for his department by the appropriations of the City Council and Mayor or by the School Committee as the case may be, except in cases of emergency as provided for in section 16 of chapter 486 of the acts of 1909 (amended City Charter), or unless special authority is obtained from the Legislature.

See May v. Gloucester, 174 Mass. 583; Costello v. Northeastern Village District, 205 Mass. 54.

Section 16 provides as follows:

"No official of said city, except in case of extreme emergency involving the health or safety of the people or their property, shall expend intentionally in any fiscal year any sum in excess of the appropriations duly made in accordance with law, nor involve the city in any contract for the future payment of money in excess of such appropriation, except as provided in section six of this act. Any official who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or both."

If, therefore, a case of extreme emergency involving the health or safety of the people or their property is present, the department head may expend any sums to remedy the emergency situation whether or not such expenditures require him to exceed the available departmental appropriation. Just what is a case of extreme emergency in any given instance must be determined by the department head confronted with the situation. The burden is upon him to decide this question as he is the one required to order payment to be made for the emergency work. Of course, his decision is not necessarily final. He cannot by merely declaring a situation to be an emergency one make the case come within the emergency provision of section 16. There must be some basis in fact for such a declaration of emergency; otherwise the law limiting expenditures to available appropriations and our entire budgetary system could easily be circumvented and rendered of no effect.

While no hard and fast rule can be laid down to establish just what is an "extreme emergency," as defined in section 16, it seems reasonably clear that the legislative intent was to allow expenditures to be made regardless of appropriation when the situation was such that the work had to be done at once, setting aside all legal limitations, restrictions and formality in order to prevent immediate injury to person or property. In other words, the situation must be such that a reasonable man would decide that the entire matter is fraught with such danger as to require all possible speed in remedying the situation and which, if delayed, would result in his being deemed guilty of improper administration of his duties and responsibilities. See opinion of this department to the School Committee dated November 7, 1927.

If, therefore, any of the bills which you now have before you for indorsement for payment are for work done of an emergency nature under section 16, you may approve them regardless of whether there was or was not sufficient appropriation available at the time the work was ordered done. But you are the one who must determine whether or not an emergency existed. The fact that these bills, as presented to you by the former Schoolhouse Commission, bear a stamp that they were emergency orders is by no means conclusive. It may be that these bills were deliberately stamped as emergencies to avoid the provisions of law relative to appropriations. Since the responsibility is now yours, as successor to the former Schoolhouse Commission, to approve these bills for payment, you must, before approving these bills, determine whether they were ordered at a time when there was an available appropriation and if no appropriation was available whether they were really emergency orders. You have no right to certify for payment these bills stamped as emergency orders unless you are satisfied that they were really of an emergency nature.

As to other bills before you for payment which are not stamped "emergency," you must determine whether at the time the work was ordered there was available in the appropriation of the department for this kind of work sufficient money to meet these bills. No order for work, whether oral or written, should be given by a department head if at the time it is proposed to give the order other contracts or orders have been given which have obligated the city to pay an amount which has used up the available appropriation. It is immaterial that the cash has not been paid from the city treasury for these contracts or orders previously given. If the city has become contractually obligated or involved for an amount which exhausts the available appropriation then no further orders or contracts can legally be given except in cases of emergency. A department head can easily determine how much of the department's appropriation he has involved in contracts and orders and when he must cease to incur further liabilities for lack of sufficient appropriation. It is improper and illegal to give orders for work on the theory that although the previous orders and contracts have used up the entire appropriation, since these previous orders and contracts have not been completed as yet and the money is still unpaid that other orders or contracts may be given and the contractor who is able to do his work the speediest may be paid until the cash available is exhausted. This practice is absurd, illegal and criminally violates section 16 of the charter.

I advise you, therefore, that all contracts or orders awarded by the former Schoolhouse Commission at a time when the city had become obligated to pay such sums which exhausted the available appropriation, cannot be legally paid at this time without special legislation or unless these contracts or orders are determined to be of an emergency nature under the provisions of section 16 of the charter. It is immaterial that the contractor did not know the condition of the appropriation and relied upon the Schoolhouse Commissioners. Under our law the contractor is required to know the limitations of the department head to contract. The burden is placed upon the contractor.

Osgood v. Boston, 165 Mass. 281, McGovern v. Boston, 229 Mass. 394, and it is immaterial that the city has the benefit of the work.

Douglas v. Lowell, 194 Mass. 268, Bartlett v. Lowell, 201 Mass. 151.

Other bills presented for payment which are for work done either by written contract or order and which were entered into or ordered at a time when there was still money in the appropriation, and which money was not involved in any previous contract or order, and was, therefore, still available, may be paid at this time, for they are legal obligations of the city incurred when there was an available appropriation even though that appropriation was expended in subsequent emergency orders and the appropriation has not been replenished. The contractor need only ascertain whether there was money available in the appropriation at the time he received his order or contract and not when he completes his work or submits his bill for payment. He is not required to watch the city treasury nor be concerned if subsequent orders or contracts are given illegally and which may be illegally paid or whether legal emergency orders are given and the appropriation exhausted by the payment of these emergency orders. In such cases the city must furnish a new appropriation to meet his lawful bills or he may recover the same in court and the city be required to satisfy the court order out of any funds in the city treasury.

Very truly yours,

SAMUEL SILVERMAN,
Corporation Counsel.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7, (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the new style calendar in 1752 to September 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

DIMENSIONS, ETC., OF BOSTON.

Boston's greatest length, 13.8 miles, i. e., from northern end of East Boston to southern end of Hyde Park; greatest width, 7.75 miles, i. e., from Marine Park shore to western end of Brighton; median transverse width, 5.75 miles, i. c., from Charles river at Harvard Bridge to Neponset river at Blue Hill avenue; width of business center, 1.2 miles, i. e., from Charles river at Cambridge Bridge to Fort Point channel at Summer street. NEW ORLEANS BUILDING THREE NEW INCINERATORS.

Three new incinerators to cost a total of $700,000 are under construction at New Orleans and will add appreciably to that city's sanitation system. This will make a total of five plants where garbage can be readily disposed of. The plants, according to Commissioner of Public Property John Klorer, will be equipped in the most scientific manner with special provision for the prevention of any smoke nuisance.

The incinerators are conveniently distributed about the city, one of the new ones being almost ready for use. The one now nearing completion can handle 170 tons of garbage every 16 hours with no odor escaping, and its stacks are 125 feet high.

No. 17

CITY HOSPITAL TO HAVE NEW ADMINISTRATION BUILDING AS PART OF GREAT HOSPITALIZATION PLAN—MAYOR CURLEY CALLS FOR BIDS FOR WORK.

OLD ADMINISTRATION BUILDING IN CITY HOSPITAL GROUP WHICH IS TO BE SUPERSEDED BY NEW STRUCTURE.

Bids have been asked for the construction of a new Administration Building for the City Hospital group. When the building is completed the program begun by Mayor Curley in his second administration will have been well on the way to completion, assuring to Boston a municipal hospital equipment second to none in the United States.

The present Administration Building is one of the oldest in the group, four buildings being constructed at the time when the hospital was established. The others were, Pavilion I, Pavilion II and the boiler house on Albany street. All the buildings were of French Renaissance style, the ground for them being broken in 1861. Thus they stood and supplied the needs of the city until 1875, when they were remodeled, and were again reconstructed internally in 1891 and 1892.

Between the years 1867 and 1874 a few additions were made to the plant but the Administration Building remained unchanged, except for improvements and conveniences within. Other buildings grew up about it until now the site of the City Hospital covers more than twenty-eight acres of space.

The new Administration Building when completed will have appointments second to none in the United States. It will be of first-class construction, concrete and steel, with selected water-struck brick and stone trimmings. The walls and partitions will be of gypsum and terra-cotta block. Other features will be compressed asphalt tile floors in corridors, stairhalls, telephone booths, waiting room; terrazzo floors and dados in toilets and cleaners' closets, vestibule; linoleum floors in dressing rooms, offices, record research room, staff conference rooms, women's rest room, chaplains' room; rubber tile floors in lobbies, corridors, public space, admission room, checking room, trustees' room, librarian's room, library, reference room, museum; travertine stone walls in waiting room, lobbies.

The other appointments will be as follows:

Basement.—Checking rooms, women's dressing rooms and toilets, men's dressing rooms and toilets, cleaners' closets, switchboard room, ejector room, engineers' service room, record storage room, connecting corridors, telephone booths, general toilets, lobby and waiting room.

Ground Floor.—Entrance lobby, information, telephones, cleaners' closets, checking room with refrigerators, toilets, vestibule, offices, vaults, cashiers' offices and admission room.

First Floor.—Offices, toilets, record research room, record room, reference room, trustees' room, cleaners' closets, librarian and library.

Second Floor.—Staff conference rooms, cleaners' closets, toilets, chaplains' room, offices, storerooms, women's rest room and museum.

Roof.—Elevator machine room and fan room.

BOSTON MAKING PLANS TO HAVE FINEST AIRPORT IN UNITED STATES—MORE LAND BEING ACQUIRED BY MAYOR CURLEY FOR PURPOSE.

On April 23 the Mayor issued the following statement:

The committee on Harbors and Public Lands reported "ought to pass" upon the petition of the City of Boston for the extension of the lines of the East Boston Airport, under which the state conveys to the city, without charge, such land as may be required from time to time, for the airport extension.

This action by the state should make possible the extension of the lines of the present airport to the state line in the vicinity of Governor's Island. Construction of the East Boston tunnel should provide sufficient fill for the reclamation of this land without undue expense to the city, and, in the event that the federal government transfers to the City of Boston title to Governor's Island, it should be possible, within a period of two years, to complete what unquestionably will be regarded as the finest airport in the entire United States at East Boston. An airport extending into the harbor for a distance of two and one half miles and embracing the territory of 2,600 acres with no obstruction between Governor's Island and Europe.

COSULICH STEAMSHIP LINE CONGRATULATED FOR CHOOSING BOSTON AS PORT OF ENTRY.

Mayor Curley, on April 18, sent the following letter to Harold J. Feistel, General Manager, Cosulich Steamship Line, New York City, upon the announcement of that company making Boston a port of entry of the Cosulich Line:

DEAR MR. FEISTEL.—The announcement that two new motor vessels, the "Saturnia" and "Vulcania," have been assigned for regular sailings from Boston to European ports, starting May 29, is, I beg to assure you, most pleasing to the entire people of Boston.

The record of three thousand first-class passengers carried by the ships of your line during the first three months of 1930, or an amount five times in excess of the number carried in the same period of time in the preceding year, is most welcome news.

I beg you will assure the owners of the Cosulich Steamship Line that the City of Boston will esteem it a pleasure to cooperate and be of service in any way possible at any and all times.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Mayor Curley, on April 23, received the following letter from Mr. H. Feistel, Passenger Traffic Manager of the Cosulich Line, 17 Battery Place, N. Y.:

HONORABLE SIR,—It is indeed gratifying to receive encouragement from the Mayor of the City of Boston—the second important United States port for transatlantic passenger traffic.

In placing the "Saturnia" and "Vulcania" in to the Boston-Mediterranean trade, the Cosulich Line feels that it will not only add stimulation to the port of Boston but will increase traffic from New England, from which territory this company derives the greatest share of its European traffic, to the Mediterranean, especially to Italy.

Our owners undoubtedly will be pleased to know of the assurance they have from the people of Boston and its Mayor and the cooperation in making this undertaking a success.

It is trusted we shall have the honor of a visit from you on board the "Saturnia" on her expected arrival at Boston on the morning of May 30, at which time the writer hopes to meet you personally.

Yours very truly,

H. FEISTEL,
Passenger Traffic Manager.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

The Mayor has approved the following contracts awarded without advertising; requests of heads of departments to do the work with department forces without advertising; additions to and deductions from contracts.

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT.

Upon March 24 the Mayor approved a contract with the Dewell Company for the preparation of the motor excise tax list. A communication from Edward T. Kelly of the Assessing Department was as follows:

BOSTON, March 19, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—We desire your permission to make a contract with the Dewell Company, without advertising, in the preparation of the motor excise tax list for the year 1930.

The existing law necessitates the making of two typewritten copies (tax list and collector's list), containing ward, unit number, name, address, amount of excise tax, year, make of car, name of manufacturer, model, type and assessors' valuation of same, and on duplicate item accounts the plate registration number.

From the tax list must be written the motor excise tax bills, together with coupons, giving name, street and number, ward number, unit number, page, line, and amount of excise tax, and on duplicate item accounts the plate registration number.

In preparation of the above typewritten list, the auto registration cards are to be sorted into alphabetical order by wards.

The Dewell Company is prepared to undertake this character of work, being equipped with the necessary 18-inch wide carriage typewriting machines; their organization can deliver the tax records on the dates designated by the Board of Assessors, and their offices are accessible to City Hall and contain the necessary equipment for fire protection of the records.

In view of the above facts, we request your permission to make this contract with the Dewell Company upon an item basis, as follows:

Sorting alphabetically, $\frac{3}{4}$ of a cent per item; typing, $2\frac{1}{2}$ cents per item, and bills, $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents per item.

The total number of registrations is estimated at 140,000; total amount of payment under this contract not to exceed the sum of $6,300.

The Dewell Company has had the experience of completing the entire motor excise tax records for the year 1929 in a highly satisfactory manner, and it is the opinion of this Board that a contract with the Dewell Company is the most efficient method of recording the motor excise tax list for the current year.

Respectfully,

BOARD OF ASSESSORS,
by EDWARD T. KELLY,
Chairman.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

Upon March 25 the Mayor approved a contract with the George S. Harrington Company for the purchase of special grade curtains for the Administration Building, Boston Airport. A communication from William P. Long of the Park Department was as follows:

BOSTON, March 24, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your authority is respectfully asked to award a contract, without advertising, to the George S. Harrington Company, 77 Washington Street North, Boston, for the sum of $1,454.82, for the purchase of special high grade curtains for the Administration Building at the Boston Airport, East Boston. The Board delegated Mr. William D. Austin, the architect for the Administration Building, to solicit bids for special high grade curtains for the new building, and same are respectfully submitted as follows:

James I. Wingate & Son, $2,530; A. Clayton Parker, $2,297; Paine Furniture Company, $1,712.47; George S. Harrington Company, $1,454.82.

The reason for asking to award this contract without advertising is that the Board believes that, owing to the fact that a high grade of curtains should be provided for the Administration Building and that the above four firms who have submitted bids are among the leaders in this line of business, no better result could be obtained by advertising and therefore recommends that the contract be awarded to the George S. Harrington Company, 77 Washington Street North, Boston, for the sum of $1,454.82, same to be charged to the special appropriation, Airport Improvements.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

The Board delegated Mr. William D. Austin, the architect for the Administration Building, to solicit bids for special furniture for the waiting room, and same are respectfully submitted as follows:

CHICAGO TRAFFIC POLICE IN YEAR-LONG DRIVE.

Chicago traffic experts have promised a 50 per cent decrease in deaths from motor-car accidents, as a result of a week-by-week drive now in operation by Commissioner Russell of the Police Department to enforce the city traffic code. The drive, an outgrowth of the National Safety Congress and Chicago Safety Week recently held in Chicago, is expected to prove a valuable educational feature for drivers, pedestrians and policemen.

COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAXES BY MUNICIPALITIES.

The collection of delinquent taxes is often neglected by city officials, resulting in a considerable financial loss to the municipality.

The sale of property for taxes usually takes place from one to three years after the taxes have become due and after the publication of a tax sale notice for from three to six weeks. The property is sold at auction to the highest bidder provided that the bid covers the amount of taxes, all unpaid assessments, interest, fees, penalties, and other charges against the property. If the bid is not sufficient to cover these items, the city bids in the property. Property sold for taxes may be redeemed after a period varying from one to three years upon payment of sum sold for, together with interest computed at the rate of 12 per cent per annum. If the property is not redeemed within the prescribed time the purchaser is given either a deed, an estate in fee simple, or an absolute estate in fee, subject only to the lien of unpaid state and county taxes.

In two cities, White Plains and Yonkers, the tax lien is sold. This has worked out very satisfactorily. In Yonkers the problem of the collection of delinquent taxes has been cleared up:

1. By keeping the assessed valuation down to the real present market value, thereby preventing the accumulation of a large amount of uncollectible taxes.

2. By foreclosure, in one action, of large numbers of lots in one ownership.

3. By assignment of tax liens, at full value, to any one applying for same.

4. By resale, at reduced amounts, of tax liens held by the city.

5. By compromise with owners, reducing the amounts due to a sum that will make it worth while for such owners to pay up the city thereby saving foreclosure costs, and immediately placing such property on a taxpaying basis, and at the same time allowing the owners to get out with some equity. Foreclosure should never be resorted to where an owner shows any disposition to compromise.

BOSTON AREA TO WARD LINES.

Total, 30,598 acres (i. e., 47.81 square miles), 2,944 acres being filled land, 1,143 acres water area and 1,436 acres flats. Land area only, 28,019 acres (i. e., 43.78 square miles). Included in the latter are 160 acres of filled flats recently added to the land area of South Boston and 175 acres to that of East Boston.

Original Boston contained about 780 acres of land. Of the twelve leading American cities, eight are larger in land area than Boston, viz., Los Angeles (441 square miles), New York (318), Chicago (199.4), Philadelphia (129), Baltimore (91.9), Detroit (80), Cleveland (56.6) and St. Louis (61.25). The only city in Massachusetts with larger land area is Taunton (50 square miles).

If Boston should expand by annexations as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and others have expanded, its total area, in case of including the thirty-nine cities and towns within the 15-mile radius, would be second to the largest, viz., Los Angeles, the present land area of "Greater Boston" being 409.5 square miles.

ALTITUDES IN BOSTON.

(1) Highest, Custom House tower, 510.71 feet, i. e., top of finial above mean low water (same as "city base") or 495 feet from surface of street; (2) Bellevue Hill, West Roxbury, 376.3 feet to top of new reservoir, or about 320 feet of top of hill; (3) Bunker Hill Monument, 307.84 feet, or top of Breed's Hill, Charlestown, at base of monument, 86.44 feet; (4) Slocum Hill, near Allandale street, Jamaica Plain, about 300 feet; (5) High Fort Observatory, Highland Park, Roxbury, 291 feet, on top of hill at base of tower, 158 feet; (6) Revolution Memorial Monument, Telegraph Hill, South Boston, 270 feet, or top of hill at base of monument, 145 feet; (7) State House, top of dome, 261 feet; (8) Hill between Poplar and Dale streets, West Roxbury, near Hyde Park boundary line, about 258 feet; (9) Peters' Hill, Arnold Arboretum, 237 feet; (10) Fairmount Hill, Hyde Park, about 220 feet, Beacon Hill, now 107.89 feet (i. e., at corner of Mt. Vernon and Joy streets), was originally about as high as the base of the State House dome.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7, (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the new style calendar in 1752 to September 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

DIMENSIONS, ETC., OF BOSTON.

Boston's greatest length, 13.8 miles, i. e., from northern end of East Boston to southern end of Hyde Park; greatest width, 7.75 miles, i. e., from Marine Park shore to western end of Brighton; median transverse width, 5.75 miles, i. e., from Charles river at Harvard Bridge to Neponset river at Blue Hill avenue; width of business center, 1.2 miles, i. e., from Charles river at Cambridge Bridge to Fort Point channel at Summer street. Geographical center of city in Roxbury, corner Walnut and Westminster avenues.

NEW ORLEANS BUILDING THREE NEW INCINERATORS.

Three new incinerators to cost a total of $700,000 are under construction at New Orleans and will add appreciably to that city's sanitation system. This will make a total of five plants where garbage can be readily disposed of. The plants, according to Commissioner of Public Property John Klorer, will be equipped in the most scientific manner with special provision for the prevention of any smoke nuisance.

The incinerators are conveniently distributed about the city, one of the new ones being almost ready for use. The one now nearing completion can handle 170 tons of garbage every 16 hours with no odor escaping, and its stacks are 125 feet high.

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Hyde Park and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Summer street, bounded:

Southerly by easement taken by the City of Boston for sewerage purposes in Summer street, July 15, 1929, six feet; westerly by another part of Summer street, three hundred and fifty feet; northerly by the same, six feet; and easterly by the same, three hundred and fifty feet, containing twenty-one hundred square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 350 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above-described premises.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, April 8, 1930.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to return herewith, without my approval, the order adopted by your honorable body under date of March 24, 1930, providing an expenditure in the sum of $25,000 for the erection of concrete bleachers at the Chestnut Hill Playground.

Such improvements as are necessary for the proper conduct of activities at this playground will be made by the Park Commission and such major improvements as may be required will be a subject for study this year and, provided circumstances warrant, may be favorably considered in 1931.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

VETO OF RANDOLPH STREET PLAYGROUND LOAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, April 8, 1930.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to return herewith, without my approval, order adopted by your honorable body under date of March 24, 1930, for the reason that the Park Commission have informed me that the appropriation of money for the filling, grading and improvement of Randolph Street Playground is unnecessary since the same can be provided for out of the department maintenance fund and this work will be started at once.

Placed on file.

VETO OF LOAN FOR BLEACHERS AT RONAN PARK.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, April 8, 1930.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to return herewith, without my approval, the order adopted by your honorable body under date of March 24, 1930, providing for the erection of concrete bleachers at Ronan Park, Ward 15, for the reason that the sum requested is inadequate to properly accommodate the throngs that assemble and the amount set aside for park development for this year cannot be increased.

The recommendation that concrete bleachers be erected at Ronan Park is an excellent one and I have instructed the Park Commission to make a study so that provision may be made in 1931 to care for it.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

The Park Commission are investigating at the present time the requirements of the Smith Playground, and until such time as a report has been submitted and given proper study, it is inadvisable to act favorably upon the order as adopted.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

VETO OF LOAN FOR CHARLESTOWN HEIGHTS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, April 8, 1930.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to return herewith, without my approval, order of your honorable body adopted under date of March 24, 1930, providing an expenditure in the sum of $12,000 for improvements at Charlestown Heights.

I have conferred with the chairman of the Park Commission and am informed by him that the structure in which it is proposed improvements be located at a cost of $12,000 is built of wood and more than twenty-five years in use.

I have ascertained further that an expenditure of $50,000 would provide a brick or stone building, with necessary facilities, and in addition cover the cost of such general improvements as might be necessary at Charlestown Heights.

Under the circumstances, in my opinion, it would be not only advisable but desirable that action be deferred until 1931, and at that time provision be made for a new building and the improvements deemed necessary.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,

Dear Sir,—I have your memorandum of recent date with inclosure, order from the City Council that the Park Commission place the grounds in Elm Hill Park in proper condition.

All parks, playgrounds, etc., in the City of Boston, are always placed in proper condition as soon as the ground is workable and the department forces can get to same. Elm Hill Park will be cared for and planted as soon as the season permits.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Dear Sir,—Replying to order from the City Council that the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide in the 1930 budget a sum sufficient for an addition to the present locker building and the installation of additional shower baths therein, at the Sullivan Square Playground, Ward 2.

I respectfully state that this is not a matter for the budget as it comes under the head of new construction—it would cost $25,000 to comply with the request.

The following was received:

Office of the Mayor, April 14, 1930.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Joseph P. Manning, President of the Board of Trustees, Boston City Hospital, regarding increase in wages for the ward porters. This is in reply to your order of March 31, 1930.

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,

Hospital Department, April 9, 1930.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees, an order of the City Council, reading as follows, was presented:

Ordered, That the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to add to the salaries of the ward porters employed at the hospital the sum of $4.50 per week instead of allowing said porters to have meals at the expense of the city. This will bring their salaries up to $28.50 per week, the amount on which their retirement deduction is based at the present time.

In City Council, March 31, 1930. Passed.

Attest:

W. J. DOYLE,
City Clerk.

You will remember that the question of allowing this $4.50 in lieu of meals was taken up with you and Mr. Fox when the hospital budget was under consideration, and it was deemed inadvisable to allow it, due to the fact that it was shown that men doing the same type of work in other hospitals in Boston received very much smaller salaries. If this is allowed at this time, it will mean that all the men working as porters, house cleaners, brass polishers, etc., will request a revision upward in their salaries also.

Yours respectfully,

JOSEPH P. MANNING,
President, Board of Trustees.

COMPENSATION TO DISABLED VETERANS.

Coun. BUSH offered the following:

Whereas, The very recent astounding disclosures in the Boston press relative to the large sums of money being drawn as compensation by high state and federal officials with minor disabilities have aroused a widespread furor of indignation and shocked the conscience of the entire country; and

Whereas, Many unemployed disabled veterans who served, bled and suffered for our country in the ranks, in her hour of need and who came out of the war with maimed, racked, tortured, disfigured and dismembered bodies, are struggling to keep body and soul together, unable to obtain a fair measure of justice; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Boston City Council go on record as condemning the discriminatory injustice done to the rank and file of our really disabled War Veterans and calls upon our United States Congress to investigate and remedy the shocking and flagrant condition now existing, as disclosed by the press.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, I was very much amazed, shocked and grieved at the astounding disclosures made by the Boston Post yesterday morning and this morning relative to the situation that has arisen under the Emergency Retirement Act, whereby army officers who served in the late World War were able to retain three-quarters of their regular pay for disability received in the service. It develops from these disclosures that some of these officers are receiving as high as $281 and some odd cents a month for very minor disabilities—in fact, so minor that they are not visible and are apparently of no consequence, that, in addition, they are holding federal and state positions in which they receive salaries of anywhere from $4,000 to $8,000 a year. I have no quarrel with a retired army officer who was actually disabled in the war receiving compensation which will properly compare with the sums paid to the rank and file of the veterans who suffered actual disability. I recall, gentlemen, that before the Sweet bill was passed in Congress, and before my own discharge from the service, a man who lost a leg above the knee received 66 per cent disability, the pay then being $30 a month for total permanent disability, and that for the loss of a leg below the knee he received 40 per cent disability. Later, when the Sweet bill was passed, the pay was made $100 a month for total and permanent disability. And what is total and permanent disability? The loss of a leg, an eye and a hand is considered total permanent disability, and the loss of any two of those is a major disability. The loss of both hands, both feet or both eyes, is considered 100 per cent total and permanent disability, for which a man receives $100 per month. Under the original act, if a man lost a leg, disarticulated at the hip, and an arm, disarticulated at the shoulder, and the sight of an eye, he could receive $30 a month. That was the maximum disability. Later, the Sweet bill changed that to $100 a month, which is now in force and effect. There is a further provision in the Sweet bill that a man who has lost both legs and both hands, or both legs and both eyes, or both hands and both eyes, gets what they call a double total disability, paying $200 a month, and allowing him up to $50 a month for a nurse to attend him. So if a man has lost both legs and both eyes, or both hands and both feet, he can receive a maximum of $250 a month. Yet one of our state officials at the present time, without impairment or loss of any of his members, is receiving $281.25 a month from the government as a disabled officer, and is receiving a salary of some $8,000 a year besides from the state. There are many other cases similar to that, where men who are officers are receiving lesser sums from the government, while the men who actually served in the front lines and in the trenches, who really suffered and who came back maimed, disfigured and dismembered, can receive a maximum of but $100 a month with no further allowance for dependents. That is the total amount he can receive. I want you to contrast these cases, gentlemen, because these disclosures, as they appeared in the Boston Post of yesterday and today will arouse such a widespread furor of indignation that the entire country will be aroused over it. The purpose of this compensation originally was to supplement an injured man's earning capacity and not to provide a gratuity. It was not the intention of the government to give a gratuity to the men who served. It was the intention to give them something, because of the injury they had received in the service, to supplement what they lost by virtue of their injury, and because their earning capacity was handicapped. Yet we find some of these officers with no physical or apparent disability of any consequence receiving far in excess of the amount received by our worst disabled veterans, although they are holding positions also which are paying them very large and comfortable salaries. I ask you, gentlemen, is there any justice or fairness in that? It further develops that President Coolidge was aware of the provisions of the act and vetoed it, and that it was passed over his veto. The truth of the matter is that the members of Congress were not aware how the provisions of the act would work out and the abuses that would arise under it. If these officers were disabled in the same manner that some of our rank and file veterans were disabled, I should have no complaint to make, nor would anybody else have any just cause of complaint; but when a man who has no real disability receives an amount far in excess of some of our badly disabled veterans, it is time for the country to know why. These officers are receiving anywhere from $2,000 to $4,000 from the government and are also enabled to obtain salaries in the employ of the state and federal government totaling an additional $4,000 to $8,000, while some of our veterans, whose sense of pride prevented their making an immediate claim on the government for minor disabilities, but whose minor disabilities later developed into very major disabilities, are now forced to crawl on their knees and pray for a chance to claim the compensation they should have, and are being rejected by some of these very officers who are receiving such enormous gratuities from the government, although having no disabilities at all or very minor disabilities. Also, a great many other veterans who may have no apparent disability, but who were tremendously shell-shocked, are now beginning to feel the strain and to break down under it mentally and physically. Those men have to bring in all sorts of affidavits and unquestionable proof that their disabilities originated in the service, while these officers find no difficulty whatever in obtaining the passage of a bill which makes it possible for them, with only minimum disabilities, to obtain a monthly sum which is magnificent in comparison with that received by the worst disabled veterans in the service. I spoke about the purpose of it originally being to supplement the earning capacity. I happen to recall that upon the occasion of my own discharge from the service I appeared before one of those officers at the Walter Reed Hospital, in Washington, for a disability rating. The rating that he wanted to give me was 60 per cent. I knew of a case similar to mine—where, in fact, the man had suffered the loss of a leg but no injuries in addition, and where he received a disability of 80 per cent. I asked this colonel—he happened to be a colonel—why was that. He said, "Why, you are a man of intelligence and you can go out and earn a living, and this other man is ignorant, illiterate, and will not be able to earn a living. That is why we gave him the greater disability." I asked that colonel what he thought a man who had lost a leg and the sight of an eye, and had an injured hand, could do. Well, gentlemen, he said he could operate a street car, as a motorman! I said to him, "Why, colonel, do you know of any street railway company in the country that would employ a man operating a car in that condition?" "Well, sir," he said, "You may be right—they probably would not. But there must be some other thing that you could do." I said to him, "Colonel, you are an eminent surgeon, or a surgeon of some repute. If you had lost one or two fingers from your right hand,—which I assume to be the hand you use for operating,—would you be content if some one in your position would tell you, 'Why, you may be disabled as a surgeon, but can't you take a position in a butcher shop, cutting meat, as long as you have had some experience in that line?'" He said, "I see your point." But it took a concrete illustration to show that man, who held the rank of colonel in the army, that he was mistaken in his estimate of disability. There are men who were disabled in the service who had disabilities that prevented them or handicapped them in every line and form of human endeavor, and yet who are unable to receive anywhere near the scale of compensation that is received by these officers. It seems to me, gentlemen, that there is no question but what the City Council and every citizen in Boston and in the whole country is interested in a matter of this kind. They are interested in seeing that justice and equity are accorded to the men who served in the World War, or in any war of the country, and who not only gave their time and service but came out practical wrecks.

Coun. CURTIS—Mr. President, this is a very appealing project, upon which the councilor of Ward 12 (Coun. Bush) has expressed himself exceedingly well. But it seems to me we are getting a little far afield here. I don't see how this Council can, within the line of its duties, express itself on every injustice or wrong that crops up in the country, upon matters about which it has nothing whatever to do. The act to which the councilor from Ward 12 refers is an act that was passed by the Congress of the United States, making certain provisions for retirement pay for officers. Even assuming that that act is wrong, it seems to me we are getting on dangerous ground when we start expressing ourselves on all these outside matters. Last week a matter pending before the State Legislature was brought in here and we were asked to express ourselves on that. We are here asked to express ourselves on a matter that concerns the Congress, and next week the question may be a matter on the tariff. So, while this is an appealing subject, I don't see why we should go on record on matters of this type.

Coun. DONOVAN—Mr. President, I heartily agree with everything Councilor Bush has said on the floor here today as to this outrage. I was unaware myself that there was such a bonus granted to the officers until I saw it referred to in the papers. The only way in which we can arouse the sentiment of the people in a matter of this kind is to memorialize Congress, and if it is done from every section of the country it will undoubtedly have some effect. I know of a case myself, in East Boston, of a young man who was in the service who received a severe gassing and was wounded, and suffers a mental affliction. He now receives $25 a month. He received nothing up to a month ago, when out of the largeness of their heart they gave him $15 a month. Upon further consideration the Board allowed him $25 a month. Here is a man who gave all to his country and received no compensation until about a month ago. The only way to have proper attention given to these questions of compensation under the act is to arouse the country, and that can be done by just such bodies as ours going on record and memorializing Congress, asking that the act be changed. After all, it is a question of proper adjudication of these matters.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, anything that affects the treasury of the City of Boston is a germane matter for the Council to act upon. In answer to my brother councilor from Ward 5 (Coun. Curtis) I would like to call attention to the fact that in this year's budget there is an appropriation of $377,685.43 for soldiers' relief. These men who served in the war are compelled, because they are unable to get employment because of their injuries, to come as paupers and beggars to the City of Boston for relief, and we pay almost $400,000 for that relief, when the burden should properly be borne by the United States Government as a whole, in the form of pensions, rather than making those men feel like paupers, coming here to beg for something to which they are not entitled. I repeat, gentlemen, that the City Council is perfectly justified in acting upon this resolve and that it is something germane in the affairs of the City of Boston. I move a suspension of the rule and from the resolution.

The preambles and resolution were passed under the suspension of the rule.

WARD 1 IMPROVEMENTS.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to lay out and accept Waldemar avenue, Ward 1, as a public highway.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave with smooth paving Marginal street, from Clyde street to Jeffries street, Ward 1.

Severally passed under suspension of the rule.

WIDTH OF VEHICULAR EAST BOSTON TUNNEL.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council favors the construction of the roadway in the proposed East Boston vehicular tunnel to a width of twenty-two feet and ten inches, thereby affording sufficient space for three traffic lanes.

Coun. DONOVAN—Mr. President, I am going to ask a suspension of the rule on this resolution. The contemplated vehicular tunnel between Boston and East Boston, under the proposed plan of the Traffic Commission of the city, is to be about 5,000 feet long and 30 feet wide. If the members of the Council will bear with me I will briefly read this section of chapter 297 of the Acts of 1929, which has a bearing on the width of the East Boston tunnel:

"The city of Boston, hereinafter called the city, acting by the Transit Department of the city of Boston, hereinafter called the department, shall proceed in the laying out and construction of a tunnel which shall consist of two or more roadways or lanes for vehicular traffic contained in one or two tubes."

Now, it is optional with the Transit Commission of our city, in constructing the tunnel, to build it to a width of 22 feet and 10 inches, if they wish to do so, and that is a very practical width for a tunnel of this sort. It is the width of the tunnel at present running between Alameda and San Francisco, in California,—a tunnel 22 feet 10 inches in width, which will allow of three lanes of traffic. And so in this resolution I ask that a vehicular tunnel of 22 feet 8 inches be constructed, allowing for the passage of three lanes of traffic, which is successfully done in the tunnel between Alameda and San Francisco.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I had a similar order drawn requesting the construction of a vehicular tunnel of 22 feet in width, with the same idea, that it would allow for the passage of three lanes of traffic, and consequently I would favor the order introduced by the gentleman from East Boston, from whom such an order most properly comes. Most of our members are familiar with the proceedings of last June in great detail, but, that they may be a matter of public record, I would like to make a few points clear so as to bring our proceedings down to date in this matter. On June 5, 1929, there was a public hearing in this room on the question of the acceptance by the City Council of chapter 297 of the Acts of 1929—which act authorized the Transit Department of the City of Boston to construct a tunnel consisting of two or more roadways or lanes for vehicular traffic, including plazas and street approaches extending not more than 1,000 feet from the tunnel entrances and exits, the entire cost of the tunnel and approaches not to exceed $16,000,000, to be raised by a loan issue to mature in not more than fifty years. A time limit for acceptance of the act was fixed as July 1, 1929. The members of the Legislature who flocked down here to the hearing on the fifth of June urged absolutely immediate acceptance of the act, because they said it would probably relieve the unemployment situation. That perhaps has nothing to do with the subject now before us, except that I might say as an aside that there has not been a public improvement proposed—whether the East Boston tunnel, a million dollars for streets, money for an annex to the City Hospital or for a broken sidewalk, that somebody has not claimed should be immediately rushed through in order to put men at work. We could look out the window and see thousands of men out of work in the City of Boston, and therefore every order must be rushed through, and, of course, they have been rushed through this body. That act was rushed through last June, and, as far as I am aware, except on the Registry of Deeds, there has been no labor activity as a result up to this time. The City Council accepted the act, however, in reliance on certain definite representations made to the Council on June 5, 1929, and I make special reference to statements concerning the width of the tunnel and as to the cost of it. I do not believe that the public of Boston nor a majority of the members of the body until recently really had a detailed knowledge of what this bill means. The impression purposely given was that the entire cost would not exceed $16,000,000 in any event, all of which would be easily taken care of by tunnel tolls, and that while we were about it an adequate tunnel would be built, at least 22 feet in width. First, on the question of cost, Colonel Sullivan quite frankly estimated the cost of a 22-foot tunnel by 5,100 feet long as $10,000,000. He said, "We feel we can build the entire project for $16,000,000 or less." Mr. Harriman estimated the cost of a 5,100-foot tunnel 26 feet wide as only $6,000,000. Mr. Harriman said, "$6,000,000 will be ample for a single tube tunnel." And, again, "I feel that the approximation (of $16,000,000) is ample for a single tube tunnel with adequate approaches of 1,000 feet in every direction on either side." So much for the cost. Mr. Harriman's estimate was $4,000,000 lower than Colonel Sullivan's figure—and for a tunnel at least 4 feet wider. But, at least, both agreed that the entire job could be done for $16,000,000, or less, and each agreed that the tunnel width should be not less than 22 feet; and the figures of each were based on a width of at least 22 feet. So far as the tolls paying for the cost and the operation of the tunnel is concerned, it would appear that the experts are, again, a long ways apart. They told us in June, 1929, that the tunnel, if the original outlay was $16,000,000, would mean an annual requirement of $955,000 in tolls. It could be done on 3,000,000 vehicles at thirty cents a trip, or 4,000,000 vehicles a year at twenty-five cents a trip. Four million vehicles a year would necessitate 333,000 vehicles a month, or over 11,000 vehicles each day all the year round. The Planning Board tells us that the volume almost at the start will be 6,000,000 vehicles a year, which is the estimated total capacity of the tunnel; Mr. Harriman estimated 4,000,000 vehicles, and Colonel Sullivan 1,000,000 at the start. Colonel Sullivan looks for a deficit for the first eight years at least. The Planning Board claim that the tunnel will carry itself from the very start. Apparently the Legislature was not so optimistic, because they provided in Section 9 of the act that if there was a deficit in any year the Public Works Department, with the approval of the Department of Public Utilities, could increase the tolls the following year, or establish such a schedule of tolls as would produce the maximum revenue,—in other words, experiment with lower tolls. How many of the people of Boston realize that under Section 11 of the act, if the receipts any year are insufficient to meet operating cost, including sinking fund requirements, the treasurer of the City of Boston is to draw a check for the deficit, and the amount is to be raised in the next annual tax levy? In other words, the expense will not be met by tolls, and the taxpayers of Boston in the last analysis will have to come through for the deficit, perhaps, of the first eight years. Now, what about the tunnel width? We are concerned with that in this way. On November 18, 1929, this body had a public hearing on receipt of formal notice from the State Commissioner of Public Works with reference to application by the Transit Department for the approval of plans for the proposed tunnel. At that time the information was disclosed first, that it was planned to put a curve in the tunnel at an increased cost of over $450,000 for 225 additional feet in length; and, second, that the proposed roadway was to be only 20 feet in width—despite the figures given us, in reliance upon which in June last we passed the tunnel bill or accepted the act of the Legislature. I say that narrowing the width to 20 feet was a breach of faith with the City Council and with the taxpayers of Boston. What did the eager proponents of the tunnel assure the City Council on June 5, 1929, just prior to the acceptance of the act? Mr. Vorenberg, the eminent merchant of Boston, appearing in the matter, said, "I trust we will not make the mistake of not having the width of the tunnel absolutely adequate." Mr. Harriman, the expert, whose qualifications have been somewhat disqualified by the chairman of the Finance Commission recently, said, "I think it would be a very grave mistake to build a tunnel of less than 25 to 26 feet between curbs, so that there might be any question of blockage on one line of vehicles passing around a blockaded vehicle without holding up the whole tunnel." The Alameda tunnel, he said, had been in operation over a year without blocks of any kind, because the width is sufficient so that in case of a tire blow-out or any accident other vehicles can still pass by. Colonel Sullivan pointed out that the Alameda tunnel was 22 feet 10 inches between the curbs. In response to a question whether he had given up any idea of three lanes, Colonel Sullivan said, "Well, it would be wide enough for three lanes." In other words, he figures on a 22-foot width there, which is substantially the width between curbs on this end of Beacon street. That would be clearly wide enough for three lanes. When Colonel Sullivan was asked "Is 22 feet wide enough?" he exclaimed, "If anything happens you simply set your signal system and everything stops. A wrecking crew goes in and takes out any vehicle that may be causing obstruction. With your 22 feet, you would have your two lines, and in case of emergency, there would be room for a third." Since June 5, 1929, there has been a lot of talk about the location of the tunnel entrances, whether the tunnel shall be curved or straight, and whose land shall be taken, and whether we should spend $4,000,000 more for a new traffic artery. But no one has worried much about the area of the tunnel itself, except to whittle it down 2 feet. The proceedings of the last six or eight months—this beating around the bush, chasing plans, which the Corporation Counsel here said could not be changed after once signed—all that sort of thing reminds me very much of what might happen in a boys' organization. The boys are planning to get up something, we will say, and invite the public, and the whole thing is done under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce or some other civic body and is to be in some available hall. The boys get together and decide how many tickets they should sell, what the transportation facilities should be, all that sort of thing, and decide, we will say, that they will sell 3,000 tickets. The evening of the event comes around, the boys get there, decorated with boutonnières, the big committee on arrangements is on hand, everything is prepared, and then one of the men in charge of the hall says, "Well, how many tickets have you sold?" "Well," says the boy in charge of that part of the program, "we have sold 3,000 tickets." "But," is the reply, "there are only 500 seats in the hall." And so that is about the situation here. Months have been spent on this matter, the plans been changed, wide approaches and plazas have been projected, circular stairways, all that sort of thing, with, except perhaps folding doors, and all the time they have been whittling down the tunnel, so that is now only to be 20 feet wide. And if there is a jam, as there is sure to be, how are they going to take care of it? I say that the main object of spending $16,000,000 or more for a tunnel is to provide an adequate outlet for traffic to East Boston and the North Shore,—not to help real estate speculators unload their holdings. Apparently believing from the public press that the plans as proposed were to be carried through successfully, the real estate speculators got busy, following the hearings before the City Council. Two chiques of real estate operators in this city have been fighting to have the tunnel opening—for the one outfit on Hanover street, for the other outfit on Cross street. It looks now as though we are to reduce the tunnel width to an inadequate 20 feet in order to insure a second tunnel in the next five or ten years, so that the losing clique can unload their bag. And so I urge the passage of Councilor Donovan's order at this time for these two reasons,—first, the way to attract traffic to the new tunnel, in sufficient volume so that the tolls shall anywhere near pay for the tunnel is to make the tube wide enough so that one trip through won't be a lesson never to try it again. The widest approaches in the world will not help much if the tunnel itself is choked. Second, and most important, I say again that the people of Boston are advancing this money for the building of an adequate tunnel, not to help speculators unload real estate. And we don't want to have the tunnel narrowed that all important extra foot or two, merely because it may force the early building of a second tunnel, with more land-takings, five or ten years from now. And so I have drawn my order for the tunnel 22 feet wide, and I now strongly favor the order of Councilor Donovan, making the width of the proposed tunnel that of the tunnel between Alameda and San Francisco, 22 feet and 10 inches wide, that being the proper width as cited by both Mr. Harriman and Colonel Sullivan—in reliance upon which the Council last year accepted the legislative act.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

PAYMENT TO GOLD STAR MOTHERS.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:
Resolved, That the City Council of Boston favors such action by the United States Government as may be necessary to provide that gold star mothers who are unable to make the trip to the European battlefields be paid a sum of $850 in lieu of their being unable to make said trip.
Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, this summer the United States Government is to send to Europe mothers of the soldiers who gave their lives in the World War. There are many such mothers in this country, and quite a few in this city, who will be unable to go, due to the fact that they have families to take care of, that they have not the proper clothes to wear to make the trip to Europe and one reason and another. Therefore, I think the right thing to do would be to give to those mothers who are unable to take the trip the $850 in cash which will be necessary to send one of these mothers to the European battlefields. Because a mother is unable to leave her home, where she is perhaps taking care of young children, or because she does not have the proper clothing to make the trip, should be no reason why something should not be done for her in lieu of the otherwise great trip of her life. I agree with Councilor Curtis when he says we should stick to our own business, but I have a question in my mind as to just how much business we will have to work on after we pass the budget here. Last week we passed an order, commending the Attorney-General upon his effort to clean up Boston from a ring. True, we had nothing to do with that, but, at the same time, as a part of the official family of the City of Boston, I think we could well say to the Attorney-General that "as far as this Council is concerned, we favor your effort to clear this city of a band of people who have been terrorizing the citizens of the community under the guise of police officials." And, equally true, we have nothing to do with the details of this tunnel matter, after accepting the act, chapter 297 of 1929, which Councilor Wilson and Councilor Donovan have just referred to. The Mayor of Boston and the Transit Commission of this city now have all the power, and the Council has no power after approving the act last year. Nevertheless, this Council has the prerogative and right to say to the Boston Transit Commission and to the Mayor of Boston, "Before you erect that tunnel, consider carefully the question whether it should not be wide enough to take care of the business." We have that right, although we have no power in the matter, but the force of public opinion emanating from this Council certainly has some weight. Therefore, Mr. President, I ask that this resolution, calling upon Uncle Sam to give the unfortunate mothers of this country whose boys are in France, and who themselves are unable to take this trip, $850 in lieu of the European trip which they are obliged to give up.

The order was declared referred to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, I ask a suspension of the rule that the resolution may be put.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I move that it go to the Executive Committee.
The rule was suspended and the resolution was passed.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install a boulevard type electric arc lamp at Marlowe and Vinson streets, Ward 16.

Ordered, That the City Messenger be, and he hereby is, authorized to rope off Eliot square, Roxbury, during the time of the patriotic exercises on Patriots' Day, April 19, the expense to be charged to the appropriation for City Council, Flags, Ropes and Stakes.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

24. Prior to your first appointment as a constable of the City of Boston what was your experience, if any, especially qualifying you for an appointment to such position?

25. What are your qualifications, if any, for your requested appointment as a constable of the City of Boston?

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I wish to say just a word in regard to this order, which I do not wish to have read in full at this time. It is an order presented on behalf of the Special Committee on Constables, that certain leading questions may be asked of the various applicants for appointment this year to the position of constables in the City of Boston; so that the Committee on Constables may not be put in the position this year that they were put in last year, when the Committee of the Legislature made the statement that the place for a real check-up on the qualifications of the constables was right here in the Boston City Council. Therefore, what the present committee has in mind is to go down through the present list with questions of this sort.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

Coun. LYNCH offered the following:

FEDERAL AID TO BUILD HIGHWAYS REVIEWED.

From the beginning of highway construction under the system of Federal aid, in 1916, to February 28, 1929, an aggregate of 76,986.2 miles of roads have been completed with Federal assistance, according to statistics compiled and made public, April 8, by the Bureau of Public Roads, Department of Agriculture. The three states having the highest completed mileage to February 28 are Texas, 6,102.6 miles; Minnesota, 4,089.8 miles, and North Dakota, 3,670.7 miles.

A total mileage was under construction on February 28 of 8,739.4 miles at a total estimated cost of $215,634,347.32 and with a Federal aid allotment of $86,918,253.10. Of the total mileage, 7,679 miles were initial construction, and on 1,060.4 miles stage construction or work done on projects previously improved with Federal aid.

Mileage approved for construction, as of February 28, amounted to 1,572.8 miles at a total estimated cost of $30,738,175.49, and a Federal aid allotment of $12,438,337.10. Of the total approved 1,162.8 miles were initial and 410 miles were stage construction.

There remains a balance of $94,799,396.05 of Federal aid funds available to the states and the Territory of Hawaii for new projects as of February 28.

RECREATION, ADEQUATE AS TO KIND AND AVAILABILITY.

Although the ratio of park acreage to population has been used as the simplest measure of the extent to which cities provide areas for the recreation of their people, it is by no means an accurate basis for determining this. If most of the total acreage is in one large park, if the parks are poorly distributed, or if they do not provide various types of recreation facilities, the park system may be inefficient even though the acreage is large. The efficiently planned park and recreation system will involve balanced relationship and well-distributed location of several types of properties, namely, children's playgrounds, neighborhood playfield parks, neighborhood parks, reservations, boulevards, and parkways.

ANNEXATIONS OF BOSTON.

East Boston in 1637; South Boston in 1804, being set off from Dorchester; Roxbury in 1868, a city of Norfolk County since March, 1846; Dorchester in 1870, a town since September, 1630; Charlestown in 1874, a city of Middlesex County since February, 1847; Brighton in 1874, set off from Cambridge and incorporated as a town of Middlesex County in February, 1807; West Roxbury in 1874, set off from Roxbury and incorporated as a town of Norfolk County in May, 1851; Hyde Park in 1912, a town of Norfolk County since April, 1868.

These annexations, which added 24,312 acres of land to the original land of Boston, were by area as follows: East Boston, 1,435 acres; South Boston, 795; Roxbury, 2,450; Dorchester, 5,600; West Roxbury, 8,075; Brighton, 2,664; Charlestown, 424; Hyde Park, 2,869. Filled land increased the area later by 1,396 acres. In 1875 the annexed territory had a population of 201,250, or 58.86 per cent of city's total; in 1910 its population had increased to 477,311, or 71.18 per cent. Hyde Park not included. By 1915 the total was 549,139, or 73.67 per cent of city. By 1925 the total was 607,519, or 77.92 per cent.

METHODS OF ELIMINATING GRADE-CROSSING ACCIDENTS.

Five suggestions aimed at the elimination of grade-crossing accidents are offered in the monthly report of the Street Traffic Committee of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

It is estimated that curing the grade-crossing evil would reduce traffic accidents by 10 per cent in a very short time, and the Committee presents the following five points for discussion:

1. Do away with those grade crossings which have the heaviest traffic.
2. Place warning signs not less than 500 feet back from the railroad tracks.
3. Take down all signs from obsolete trackage.
4. Use traffic-light signals (operated by trains) instead of signs, if there are fewer than five trains per day.
5. Consider scrapping all railroad signs in favor of signals for use only when train is approaching.

"The last two points merit consideration first, because, though they are new doctrines, they seem the least expensive and most practical of application."

Under the rules, the election will be by a viva voce vote, each member as his name is called stating his choice.

The Committee then proceeded to the election of a Superintendent of Schools for the term of six years, beginning Sept. 1, 1930.

The members as their names were called respectively voted as follows:

For JEREMIAH E. BURKE—Dr. Lyons, Mrs. Pigeon, and Mr. Reilly—3.

LAND AND BUILDING APPROPRIATIONS

The following communications were received:

City of Boston—Department of School Buildings

March 7, 1930

School Committee of the City of Boston,

15 Beacon St.,
Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:

In answer to your letters of January 29th and February 19th, 1930, in which you submitted to the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings a proposed budget and appropriation order, under Section 7, Chapter 351, of the Acts of 1929, in accordance with said section the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings herewith forwards report thereon.

The proposed order contemplates an expenditure of $979,750 for the current financial year out of the amount available under existing legislation, namely, 68c on each $1000 of the valuation on which appropriations are based, and our report involves a reduction of the contemplated expenditure by $64,000, as is explained in detail in the annexed addenda.

Item 1 of said proposed order, for Administration Expenses of the Department of School Buildings (land, plans and construction of school buildings), $115,000.

It is to be noted, in relation to this item, that this is not for the full administration expenses, but is that proportion of them that, following custom, has been charged to the money available for the construction of school buildings. The amount allocated at this time for this item seems to this Board to be reasonable.

Item 2 of the order, Rent of Hired Accommodations, $40,000.

The amount allocated for this item seems to this Board to be reasonable.

ITEM 3, of the order,

Bennett District, Brighton (Brighton High School): Construction of thirty-six-classroom high school for boys and girls (Item 35, 1923; Item 22, 1924; Item 12, 1925; Item 17, 1928) $55,000.00

The amount allocated for this item seems to this Board to be reasonable.

ITEM 4,

Bennett District, Brighton (Brighton High School): Equipment of thirty-six-classroom high school for boys and girls $75,000.00

This item we understand includes the equipment for classrooms, shops, laboratories, assembly hall and gymnasium, and is therefore for full equipment of this building. The amount allocated for this item seems to this Board to be reasonable.

ITEM 5,

Bennett District, Brighton (Brighton High School): Finished grading $95,000.00

The amount allocated for this item seems to this Board to be reasonable.

This item of $95,000 is for finished grading, although from our examinations we believe that the sum of $90,000 will be sufficient for finished grading and for building steps to the entrances of said building. We believe, however, that an additional $5,000 should be included in this order, to enable this Department to build a way from Warren Street for the purpose of bringing fuel into the building. It may be that this road will be built by the City, but if the City does not build it, it will be necessary for this Department to make provision for this purpose.

The above three items are on account of the cost of the Brighton High School.

ITEM 6,

Bennett District, Brighton: Construction of six-classroom addition to Harriet A. Baldwin School $175,000.00

Mr. Rourke, Superintendent of Construction, has restudied the cost of this addition, and believes that the above amount, $175,000, can be reduced considerably. This Board therefore believes that a more reasonable amount for this item should be $131,000.

ITEM 7,

Bennett District, Brighton: Equipment of addition to Harriet A. Baldwin School $5,000.00

This Board believes the amount allocated for this item to be reasonable.

ITEM 8,

Bennett District, Brighton: Construction of eight-classroom addition to Alexander Hamilton School $200,000.00

Mr. Rourke, Superintendent of Construction, has restudied the cost of this eight-classroom addition, and believes that a reduction of $20,000 can be made. This Board therefore believes that a more reasonable amount for this item should be $180,000.

ITEM 9,

Bennett District, Brighton: Equipment of addition to Alexander Hamilton School $5,000.00

The amount allocated for this item seems to this Board to be reasonable.

ITEM 10,

Charles Sumner District, Roslindale: Land for thirteen-classroom elementary building (Item 35, 1929) $4,375.00

We understand that this order is on account of the cost of land for this building. This Board, therefore, believes that the amount allocated for this item is reasonable.

ITEM 11,

Elihu Greenwood District: Land and plans for elementary school building (Items 6 and 7, 1927; Item 25, 1928; Items 12 and 15, 1929) $1,000.00

We understand this appropriation is for the purpose of meeting a deficit in appropriation orders for land and plans for this building. This Board, therefore, believes that the amount allocated for this item is reasonable.

ITEM 12,

Michelangelo Intermediate District, North End: Equipment of annex $15,000.00

The amount allocated for this item this Board believes to be reasonable.

ITEM 13,

Robert Gould Shaw District, West Roxbury: Land for thirteen-classroom elementary building (Item 50, 1929) $1,875.00

We understand this item is to complete the cost of land for this building. This Board therefore believes that the amount allocated for this item is reasonable.

ITEM 14,

Rogert Wolcott District, Dorchester: Construction of six-classroom addition to William Bradford School $104,000.00

This Board believes that the amount allocated for this item is reasonable.

ITEM 15,

Roger Wolcott District, Dorchester: Equipment of addition to William Bradford School.....$5,000.00
This Board believes that the amount allocated for this item is reasonable.

ITEM 16,

Ulysses S. Grant District, East Boston: Enlargement of school yard (Item 32, 1929).....$7,000.00
We understand that this item is to complete the appropriation for enlarging the Ulysses S. Grant School yard. This Board therefore believes that the amount allocated for this item is reasonable.

ITEM 17,

William Lloyd Garrison District, Roxbury: Equipment of addition to William Lloyd Garrison School (Item 5, 1929).....$1,500.00
We understand that this item is included, because the original appropriation to equip this school was insufficient. This Board therefore believes that the amount allocated for this item is reasonable.

ITEM 18,

Edmund P. Tileston District, Dorchester: Equipment of Solomon Lewenberg Intermediate School$75,000.00
This Board believes that the amount allocated for this item is reasonable.

Our conclusion therefore is that the total of the foregoing appropriation order should be the sum of $915,750, instead of $979,750. This points to a saving of $64,000 over the original estimates.

Respectfully submitted,
Board of Commissioners of School Buildings.
By (Signed) RICHARD J. LANE,
Chairman.

Referring to the action of this evening making appropriation for new land and building items totalling $915,750 as above set forth, the chairman made the following statement:

Under existing law the Boston School Committee is authorized to appropriate this year for school-house construction approximately $1,300,000.

At the earnest solicitation of the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings, the School Committee has determined to appropriate this evening approximately $900,000 of the amount authorized.

The School Committee appreciates that further delay would embarrass the Department of School Buildings which has for some time been prepared to begin its 1930 building program, and might lead to legal and financial difficulties for the city. But the Committee is most seriously concerned with the inconvenience and probable hardships that would result to many school children for whom new accommodations have been planned for next September. Among such accommodations are the following:

The completion of a high school now under construction and a proposed intermediate school in the present high school building; additions to two elementary schools; and the equipment and opening of a new forty-room intermediate school.

It goes without saying that the above-mentioned buildings will replace many portables, will eliminate the necessity of providing additional portables, and will ensure to a large number of school children the type of housing to which they are rightly entitled.

The Committee adjourned.

Attest:

ELLEN M. CRONIN,
Secretary.

SEWER IN SWALLOW STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 21, 1930.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Joseph A. Rourke, Commissioner of Public Works, relative to the construction of a sewer in Swallow street. This is in reply to your order of February 24, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, April 15, 1930.
To His Honor the Mayor.
In reply to attached order in Council, dated February 24, by Councilor Cox, that a sewer be laid in Swallow street, Ward 20, from La Grange street to Cottage avenue: We can build a sewer in Swallow street, from La Grange street as far as the existing summit between Cowing and Sparrow streets, which will give relief to more than half of the street.

The continuation of the sewer in the remainder of this street, from the summit to Cottage avenue, involves the expenditure of a large amount of money for a proper outlet, which we do not feel able to consider at present.

Yours respectfully,
J. A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SEWER IN VERSHIRE STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 21, 1930.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Joseph A. Rourke, Commissioner of Public Works, relative to the construction of a sewer in Vershire street. This is in reply to your order of March 3, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Public Works Department, April 15, 1930.
To His Honor the Mayor.
In reply to the attached order in Council, dated March 3, by Councilor Cox, that a sewer be built in Vershire street, Ward 20: Although the sewer in this street will cost only $8,000, we would have to provide for its connection to the existing sewer system. The cost of the construction and the outlet will be $59,000, which at this writing we do not consider advisable on account of the very large comparative expense.

Yours respectfully,
J. A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

NEW FIRE STATION, CITY POINT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 21, 1930.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Edward F. McLaughlin, Fire Commissioner, relative to the construction of a new fire station in the City Point Section. This is in reply to your order of March 24, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Fire Department, April 16, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.
Dear Sir,—I return herewith the following order passed by the City Council on March 24, 1930: "Ordered: That the Fire Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide for the construction of a new fire station in the City Point section to house Ladder 19 and Engine 2."

In City Council, March 24, 1930. Passed.
Attest:
W. J. DOYLE,
City Clerk."

A survey of the situation has been made and I submit the following:

The quarters of Engine 2, located at the corner of Fourth and O streets, and the quarters of Ladder 19, located on Fourth street, between K and L streets, are both inadequate for the present needs of these companies.

The building of Engine 2 was originally designed for horse-drawn apparatus and is at present too small to house a two-unit engine company. The quarters for the officers and men are also too small and it will require an expenditure of approximately $30,000 to put the building in proper condition. Even with this expenditure the building would not be satisfactory for the needs of the district.

Ladder 19 is a very old building, designed for horse-drawn apparatus and is in need of extensive repairs to place it in serviceable condition. Like Engine 2 the quarters are cramped and sufficient accommodations are not provided for the officers and men. The building itself is poorly located, being on a very narrow street, which results in considerable delay to the apparatus in responding to an alarm or fire. The growth of this section requires that an 85-foot aerial truck be placed in this house. I would not recommend the expenditure of any considerable amount of money for repairs to either of these buildings.

I am of the opinion that consideration should be given to the erection of a new station to accommodate both companies in the vicinity of Broadway and K street. This house should be of the two-door type, large enough to accommodate a double-unit engine company and an 85-foot aerial ladder truck. The building should be so situated that it would front on a wide street which would permit prompt response of apparatus from quarters unhampered by traffic conditions.

I understand that some time ago there was some thought of combining the fire and police stations in this district. If such a plan is to be considered the Fire Department station should be entirely separated from the Police Department station in every detail, including separate lighting, heating and plumbing.

The territory which the apparatus in this new station would cover in the vicinity of Summer and L streets is rapidly being built up with new commercial buildings which requires the use of an 85-foot aerial ladder truck and the additional protection of a double-unit engine company. Exclusive of the land the building would cost approximately $150,000.

Yours very truly,
EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN,
Fire Commissioner.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—In answer to order from the City Council that the Park Commission be requested to plant trees on Pond View avenue, I regret exceedingly to inform you that the enormous amount of work laid out for the Park Department this spring will not allow the department forces to do this work.

I have at the present time one hundred eighty applications for the planting of street trees besides the large amount of planting that is to be done in the various parts of the park system.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

SEWERAGE SYSTEM, SOUTH BAY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 21, 1930.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Joseph A. Rourke, Commissioner of Public Works, relative to securing a report on the present sewerage system at Fort Point Channel and Roxbury Canal. This is in reply to your order of March 10, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, April 15, 1930.
To His Honor the Mayor.
In reply to attached order in Council, dated March 10, by Councilor Cox, concerning the present system of sewers and drains emptying into the Roxbury Canal, Fort Point Channel and South Bay:

1. They are adequate for the needs of the adjacent limited area which they now serve.
2. We do not consider that they are a menace to public health at present, although it has been considered advisable to restrict bathing, through official channels, in these waters.

3. This may be answered by the final report of a special commission appointed by the Legislature in 1929 to consider the proposed filling of the Roxbury Canal and Fort Point Channel, the commission having requested from this year's legislature a year's extension for its final report. There is also another commission which is considering the general pollution of Boston Harbor and its correction, and the Commissioner of Public Works is a member of both commissions.

Yours respectfully,
J. A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

ITEM.	Amount.	Tax Rate.
Shrinkage in "Free Cash," etc.....	$1,884,742 51	$0 98
Increase in Personal Service Requirements	1,085,073 52	57
Increase in Welfare and Relief Appropriations.....	405,000 00	21
Increase in Debt Requirements	256,171 04	14
Miscellaneous.....	102,773 28	05
	$3,733,760 35	$1 95

Although on January 1, 1929, there was present in the treasury "Free Cash" available for appropriation purposes in the sum of $2,786,378.39, at the beginning of this year "Free Cash" in the treasury totaled only $884,635.88. This shrinkage alone places an additional tax burden, expressed in terms of the tax rate, of approximately 98 cents on the property owners of the city.

Approximately 75 per cent. of the increase in personal service requirements in this year's budget may be attributed to overlay resulting from salary increases granted and new positions established during 1929. The balance of the pay roll increase is caused by salary increases granted under sliding scales to city and county employees, new positions allowed in city and county departments where increased business and activities warrant the same, and increase in appropriations for temporary employees for the purpose of helping to alleviate unemployment conditions in the community. The same conditions are responsible for the increase in Welfare and Relief appropriations distributed by the Public Welfare and Soldiers' Relief Departments.

The increase in debt requirements is caused largely by the continued insistence of the Legislature that loans authorized outside the debt limit in recent years be issued for shorter terms than previously prevailed, thereby unfairly placing a disproportionate burden on present tax payers and those of the more immediate future.

More in detail the committee would point out that by far the greater part of the 1930 increase in the expense of operating the city business is composed of $672,741.28 in salary increases granted and new positions created by the previous administration in 1929; the sum of $246,072.47 for new positions in Hospital, Institutions and other departments due to expansion resulting from new building, etc.; $204,724.89 provided for temporary employees largely to relieve unemployment conditions, as well as for the extra election this year; an increased budget of $387,198.27 for the Public Welfare Department and $37,724.88 for Soldiers' Relief Department thereby locally reflecting the continued, nation-wide industrial depression; $136,797.16 in salary increases for 2,369 of the lowest paid city employees; $45,000 representing additional pension requirements in Police and Fire Departments for the retirement of the older members of the uniformed forces; $233,000 additional for food and medical supplies in the hospitals and institutions of the city because of the increase in the number of patients following the construction of new buildings; approximately $120,000 for necessary trucks in the Paving and the Sanitary Divisions of the Public Works Department, chiefly for replacement of heavy duty trucks purchased four years ago; $75,000 incident to proper observance of the Tercentenary; $20,000 additional for increased purchases of books for the Public Library; $7,000 for correction and codification of birth records in the Registry Department; a similar item of $6,000 for the modernizing of assessment maps and plans in the Assessing Department; and finally an increase of $9,500 for the proposed substitution of Edison current at City Hall in place of our own inefficient and worn-out plant, which increased expense, however, should be reflected in a substantial fuel saving.

There were prepared for the committee membership by the Budget Commissioner, detail sheets for each department disclosing in segregated form and covering each of the 3,600 or more items, the APPROPRIATION AND TAX ORDERS.

Coun. WILSON, for the Committee on Appropriations, submitted the following:

The budget for the current fiscal year in full segregated form and in substitution for the lump sum recommendations submitted on January 27, 1930, was finally submitted to the City Council by his Honor the Mayor on March 31, 1930, being once more delayed because of that inexplicable paternalism in the government of this Commonwealth which each year at the outset permits the Legislature to delay and hinder the City of Boston in the orderly and proper conduct of its local official business.

The allowances recommended by the Mayor total $49,501,799.53, representing a reduction of $3,431,243.71 from original departmental estimates for 1930, and an increase of $1,918,210.17 above total budget recommendations made in 1929.

From a taxation standpoint the proposed budget for 1930 represents an increase in the tax burden of $3,733,760.35, or approximately $1.95 increase in the tax rate. The factors in this increased burden are shown in the following table:

actual expenditure for each item in 1927, in 1928, and in 1929, together with the department estimate in each case submitted for 1930, and finally each allowance as made by the present Mayor. Your committee has fully realized its responsibility, and that of the City Council, in checking back allowances of the Mayor made in the light of present department estimates as well as by comparison with expenditures during each of the past three years. It is the opinion of the members of the committee that while the final check of the annual Budget by the City Council is a wise and proper provision in the Charter, in order that the city may be protected against unexplained or improvident increases in any item or items by any department head in any year by any Mayor, yet the Mayor, and especially a Mayor with eight years of previous experience at the head of our City Government, may himself be assumed at the outset to possess a certain degree of intelligence and business efficiency in the operation of the vast business of which he is the Chief Executive. Likewise department heads, especially with the seal of Civil Service approval, and with some degree of business training, may be assumed on the average to possess honesty, and administrative ability, fairly comparable even with those critics of our city government who most frequently criticize the City Council for any failure on its part to slash and tear the Mayor's budget.

The Massachusetts Legislature this year in its fixing of a $16 tax limit has displayed a welcome tendency to place some measure of reliance on our present municipal government, and that confidence to date would appear to have been not wholly misplaced in the light of the use of a tax limit of $1.50 a thousand below the maximum granted. Your committee hopes that the Legislature in its wisdom will go one step further by granting the requested ten million dollars for street improvements and repairs with a realization that such an appropriation would for once permit the capital city of New England to do more than merely scratch the surface annually in street construction, and incidentally supply employment when work is needed most. In hopeful anticipation that the Legislature will this year permit the requested loan outside the debt limit for this reconstruction and repair of streets, and for sidewalks, only nominal sums have been allotted to those items in the Budget.

At its hearings held on April 9, 10, 11, 15, 16 and 17 there appeared before your committee the head or acting head of every department, both city and county, included in the Budget. While individual opinion may well differ as to the possible advisability of certain increased expenditures, as well as the inadvisability of certain cuts over which we, of course, have no control, your committee, after hearing at length the detailed explanation of each department head, and with the above and expert assistance of the Budget Commissioner, feels that the Budget submitted by the Mayor, particularly in the light of similar expenditures, in most instances, by experienced department heads for each of the past three years, and especially as the initial Budget of a new administration, should pass without further reduction.

In passing, the committee calls attention to the efficient reduction in jury expenses by the present District Attorney of Suffolk County from $165,000 in 1926 to $106,640 in 1929; the 1929 profit in the Water Department amounting to $451,000; the Printing Department net profit of $23,000 on a business volume of $364,245; a continued annual ferry deficit in excess of $675,000; and a net loss of $8,058.91 in the Statistics Department chiefly due to the perhaps preferable procedure of the Collecting Department inaugurated three years ago whereby tax sales are advertised by that department in the City Record only once at the close of the year.

Other items perhaps worthy of comment by the committee are as follows: The Special Survey on Lighting made last year, at a cost of $5,650, in the opinion of the present Public Works Commissioner has proved wholly valueless. The total number of nurses now at the Boston City Hospital is 100 in excess of the number one year ago, and present budget provisions assure 30 more graduate nurses during 1930 besides 25 additional nurses at the Sanatorium. An increase this year from $200 to $2,000 for witness fees at the Chelsea Court is another reminder of this continued injustice to the tax payers of Boston. In every district court in Suffolk County, except Chelsea, the recent legislative increase of witness fees from 50 cents to $1.50 has resulted in no increase in the Budget, because fees in those courts are paid out of revenue received from fines, etc. In the Chelsea Court, however, under existing statute, all the revenues which should properly be utilized to absorb this increase must be paid into the treasury of the City of Chelsea. With reference to a continued annual expense averaging $25,000 for repairs on the boat "Michael J. Perkins" the committee agrees with the Budget Commissioner that early consideration might well be given to replacement of the boat, since this annual cost of repairs alone would almost cover all interest requirements of a loan for a new boat.

The present Institutions Commissioner reports that the pulverizing units and new boilers recently installed at the Long Island Hospital, at a total cost in excess of $185,000, are highly dangerous and should never have been installed. A later request for funds this year to rectify the situation may mean an additional appropriation for that department as high as $100,000.

The Traffic Commission, created only last year, has already grown to a budget amounting to $271,838.70, with 61 employees. There may well be grave doubt as to the practical advisability or efficiency of creating any such commission of five members, four of whom are each at the head of some other important and busy department, viz., Police, Public Works, Park Department, and Board of Street Commissioners.

The report of the chairman of the Finance Commission made incident to his urgent request for an additional item of $10,000 for an investigation of the School Department discloses a surprising ten-year increase in school expenditures from $7,495,052 in 1918 to $20,307,391 in 1928, which would appear to justify the request made.

The committee has appreciated the courteous and helpful cooperation of the Budget Commissioner as well as the assistance of those members of the Council who have been able to attend any or all of the committee meetings.

In closing the committee would point out that out of a total City Budget amounting to $35,189,249.12 the sum of $21,179,674.62 represents personal service, viz., salary and wages; out of the total $3,596,837.22 comprising the County Budget, $2,183,132.95 represents personal service. In short, 60 per cent of the appropriations subject to Council review cover compensation paid for services rendered by City and County employees.

Mr. Pratt, representing the Good Government Association, sat in at all hearings before your committee, and at the close of the final session made the following comment, "In the first place I would like to say out of fairness that I think this is one of the best budgets that has been submitted to the City Council. On the whole I think it is fairly water tight, and I think the committee has gone into it very intelligently,—if the committee has no objections I would like to speak first of four fairly general things which might not show any general reflection in the Budget for 1930 but which might offer an opportunity for economies at some future date." Mr. Pratt first called attention to the apparent economic waste of space taken up by stairways and elevators at City Hall in a district with floor space worth not less than $3 per square foot. Second, he commented on the undoubted extra expense incurred through contract painting, carpentry and general repair work in City Hall and at the Suffolk County Court House where savings might be well effected through the use of permanent employees for the purpose in departments similarly situated. Third, he commented on the rapidly mounting personal service item in the Police Department from $3,720,000 in 1925 to $5,285,000 in 1930, largely due, of course, to the addition of 425 more men during the past four years as well as by sliding scale salary increases, but extension of which in the future, he pointed out, might be somewhat minimized by further motorization in the Police Department. Fourth, in commenting on the $90,000 annual expense for the fast depreciating vessels "Hibbard," "Minot," and "Perkins," Mr. Pratt suggested the advisability of an early purchase of two fast, adequate boats in substitution for the three expensive antiquities now in use. Among general items he finally pointed out the recurrent annual "slack" in the personal service items of the Fire Department and Hospital Department with a suggestion that the average annual "slack" consistently in excess of $20,000 in each department over the past five years might properly warrant a reduction in these items of next year's Budget.

Particularly with reference to the initial annual Budget of a new administration, the committee is inclined to concur with the not wholly expected but nevertheless fair and welcome comment of the representative of the Good Government Association, and without change or deduction reports back to the Council that the 1930 estimates submitted by his Honor the Mayor "ought to pass."

* As authorized by chapter 244, Acts of 1930.

Coun. McGrath—Mr. President, I don't think there is a great deal to add to what the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations has already said. I think the committee report speaks for itself. I think that the chairman of this committee is entitled to the praise of the members of the Council, not only for his very constructive and intelligent report, but because of the way in which he handled the hearings this year. When we consider that there are 3,600 items to be considered by the committee and when we realize that every department item was explained either by the head of the department or some member of the department, we can appreciate how well this matter was covered. The various department heads in submitting their budgets were told that they would have to prune it, and yet after they pruned it and submitted it to his Honor the Mayor he cut it a further three and one-half millions; so that when it was received by the City Council Committee on Appropriations there was very little left for us to do. However, I feel that there is one item there that may call for a little explanation on the part of certain members of the committee, and that is the one in reference to an additional appropriation for the Finance Commission. As one member of the committee, I feel that we have had enough for the present of investigations that tend towards charges of corruption and graft, in this tercentenary year, when we are attempting to put our best foot forward and show the citizens of the rest of the country that Boston has something to offer, other than investigations that ruin the names of good citizens, with nothing else resulting. So I was sufficiently interested to question the head of the Finance Commission and ask him what the nature of this investigation was going to be. As the report of the chairman has well pointed out, the increase in the curriculum of the schools, together with the other appropriations, has caused an increase of 175 per cent in the last ten years. The head of the Finance Commission assured us that the investigation was not for the purpose of smirching some men's reputations but was for the sole purpose of attempting to curb the fads and fancies that have sprung up in our school system, and which, as result, have added such a tremendous expenditure to the entire city budget. He referred to the fact that it aimed at waste and extravagance, rather than corruption, and he thought it could be very well looked into from the standpoint of curtailing the various appropriations. Now, the reasons why I appreciate so thoroughly the thought and work behind this report as submitted to you by the chairman of the committee today is because I believe that the chief work of the Council every year is the consideration of the budget, and no matter how much consideration the heads of departments and the Mayor will give to a budget, there are always elements in the community who feel that a budget is surrounded with secrecy and suspicion. And so, when we hold meetings such as we have held here for a period of five days, where all the representatives of the press are invited and at which the chief critic, the Good Government Association, has a representative, and when every item is gone over closely and we get constructive criticism, I believe that when the budget is finally adopted no citizen of Boston who is interested enough to come here can doubt or challenge the various items. And so I think the policy adopted by the City Council committee in making the hearing an open one and listening to the suggestions of those interested in the budget has a tendency to arouse confidence on the part of the public generally in the work of the City Council and of the members of the committee on the matter.

Coun. Norton—Mr. President, I would move a vote of confidence in Chairman Wilson.

President Lynch—The motion is out of order at the present time.

Coun. Hein—Mr. President, if I remember rightly, when the Public Library Department was here before the committee, one of the items in the budget of that department was $10,000 that they wanted to use for repairs, and the chairman of the Trustees was asked if they intended to let out the work by bids. The answer was no, that they did not, that it was going to the original builder—as if they knew now who the original builder was! The architects happened to be McKim, Mead and White of New York. But the work on that library dates back to August, 1888. So it looks at present as if it were possible that no builders in this city will get five cents worth of work. I certainly think that before we grant that item of $10,000 we should have some assurance as to whether they are going to let that work out on bids.

The report was accepted, and the budget orders were passed, yeas 21, nays 0.

NEW STEAMBOAT FOR PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

Coun. Mahoney offered the following:

Ordered, That the sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Penal Institutions Commissioner for the purchase of a new steamboat to replace the steamer "Michael J. Perkins," and that to meet such expense the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, at the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

RECESS.

A recess was taken, on motion of Coun. Englert, subject to the call of the Chair, at 2.45 p. m.

The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by President Lynch at 3.18 p. m.

COMMITTEE ON SOLDIERS' RELIEF.

Coun. Mahoney, for the Committee on Soldiers' Relief, submitted report recommending passage of order for payment of aid to soldiers and sailors and their families in the City of Boston for month of April, 1930.

Report accepted; said order passed.

SALE OF LAND, DEXTER STREET.

Coun. McGrath, for the Committee on Public Lands, submitted report on message of Mayor and order (referred August 12, 1929) in regard to sale of land on Dexter street, recommending passage of same, in accompanying new draft, viz.:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be, and he hereby is, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to sell at public auction at an upset price of three thousand one hundred fifty dollars all the right, title and interest of the City of Boston in and to a parcel of land situate in Charlestown on the northeasterly side of Dexter street at the corner of said Dexter street and Alford street, containing four thousand eight hundred thirty square feet of land, more or less, and execute and deliver a deed of the said parcel of land to the purchaser of said land in form satisfactory to the Law Department of the City of Boston.

Report accepted, said order passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

STANDEES IN BUSES.

Coun. Wilson—Mr. President, I rise to a point of information. Do I understand that action on the proposed ordinance with reference to standees in buses has been postponed at the request of the Elevated?

President Lynch—The Chair has no information about that. Perhaps the chairman of the Executive Committee can tell us.

Coun. Mahoney—Mr. President, I would say in answer to the councilor from Dorchester that last week, through action taken by the Executive Committee, Mr. Dana, the general manager of the Elevated, was notified to be here today at one o'clock. I understand, however, from the Clerk of Committees that he sent word that he would be in conference with the chairman of the Carmen's Union. So, upon the petition you are now referring to, we hope to have him here next week.

Coun. Wilson—Mr. President, I have no quarrel with the Elevated Trustees nor with the men of the Union. I have very high regard for both factions. My only point, however, is to give passengers a chance to sit down. I would, however, request a report on this matter at our next meeting, whether the local civil war is settled or not. So I would ask the committee to report back at that time. I don't think the only thing to be considered here is the war between contending factions, regardless of the respect we have for either side. I think the people who ride in buses are the ones who are mostly interested.

REPAVING OF FORT AVENUE.

Coun. Englert offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave Fort avenue, Ward 11, with smooth paving.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK ON ROSEDALE STREET.

Coun. Wilson offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along 50 Rosedale street, Ward 17, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 106 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

COPIES OF PROPOSED REPORT OF CITY PLANNING BOARD.

Coun. Wilson offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Planning Board through his Honor the Mayor be, and said Board hereby is, respectfully requested to furnish the City Council with copies of the proposed Report of the City Planning Board with reference to a comprehensive plan of street improvements.

Coun. Wilson—Mr. President, with reference to that particular order, it was brought out in the hearings before the Budget Committee that the City Planning Board, after laborious efforts for the last two and one half or three years, and after rather substantial expense, has now finished a rather unique survey of the streets throughout the City of Boston. I would suggest that some of the persons most interested in procuring street improvements are people elected as city councilors to represent the different wards of this city, and that they could very well use copies of this report.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

ADDITIONAL PORTABLE BAND STANDS.

Coun. Wilson offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner through his Honor the Mayor be, and he hereby is, respectfully requested to purchase or have constructed an adequate number of portable band stands adequately to take care of city requirements.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, information was brought out at the committee meetings of the Appropriations Committee that at present there are seven of these portable hand stands under the jurisdiction of the Park Department. This may seem a simple matter, but to those of us who are looking for concert facilities on the Fourth of July and other holidays, and who have considerable trouble and have to indulge in a good deal of telephoning throughout the city and to various departments, in connection with each man getting concerts for his ward, it is important. We understand from the Park Commissioner that this is a matter that might more properly be handled by the Commissioner of Public Works. These portable stands cost, I understand, but $1,200 to $1,400 apiece, being such a small matter that it would seem that the city can well afford to use a few more of the stands. The Public Works Department is suggested because its yards are distributed throughout the city, and each ward will thereby be enabled to get fair treatment on each holiday.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

TAXICABS IN BOSTON.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council be hereby recorded as favoring the location and control of taxicabs on the streets of this city by the Traffic Commission of the City of Boston.

Resolved, That the City Council be hereby recorded as opposed to Senate Bill No. 240, with reference to the location and control of taxicab stands in the City of Boston.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, the purpose of introducing these two resolutions at this time is in view of the situation which from the newspapers I understand exists in the Massachusetts Legislature, in reference to the taxicab situation in the City of Boston. As I understand it, there are now two bills before the Legislature—one the bill of Representative Finnegan, in the House, and the second the Senate Bill, which I have referred to, in the second order which has been read, following the report of the majority of the Special Commission that went into the question last summer, and carrying out the recommendations of the senator from Waltham and the representatives from Chelsea and New Bedford, as to the manner and means by which traffic will be regulated in the streets of the City of Boston in so far as taxicabs are concerned. I have every regard for gentlemen who represent out-of-town constituencies in the Legislature, but, unfortunately, perhaps, I am one of those who still feel that the City of Boston should have something to say in reference to the way in which its own affairs are handled. Even though perhaps in state politics I belong to the majority party which is largely responsible for taking home rule from Boston, yet it strikes me as most peculiar that this city should be the one city in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, if I am correctly informed, which is not given a large measure of home rule. I believe it is the one city which has its building ordinance and building regulations controlled by state statute, that it is the only city in the state of Massachusetts that has its police department run for it by the state, with doubtful success; and now, they are proposing to take charge of the taxicab situation here, allowing outsiders—with all due respect to representatives who reside in Waltham, New Bedford or elsewhere, to tell us whether we can have public or private stands on the streets in the City of Boston, and how many of them. I understand that the Senate Bill, which has gone to a second reading, provides that taxicabs in the City of Boston shall be automatically restricted to 3,000 in number. It seems to me that the Senate Bill carries the entire situation to a ridiculous extent, not only telling us whether we shall have private or public stands, but telling us how many taxicabs we can have at stands in the City of Boston. For that reason, I would like to see a unanimous vote of the City Council, first in opposition to the Senate Bill, which has at last reached a second reading, and second, I believe, and in this I am supported by Representative Finnegan and also by former Councilor and present Senator Parkman, that the matter should be placed in the hands of the Traffic Commissioner of the City of Boston, not the Police Commissioner. I believe it should be placed in the hands of a City of Boston official and not in the hands of one appointed by the Legislature, the Governor or anybody else. I feel that the City of Boston should properly handle its own police, and it seems to me high time that the Massachusetts Legislature should realize that the City of Boston is no longer wearing short pants.

The resolutions were adopted under suspension of the rule.

SECTIONS OF ADDITIONAL WIDTH, EAST BOSTON TUNNEL.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Transit Commission through his Honor the Mayor—in the actual construction of the proposed East Boston Tunnel,—be, and said Commission hereby is, requested to provide for sections of additional tunnel width substantially every 500 feet to allow an approximately regular flow of traffic through the proposed tunnel even in cases of tie-up or accident.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, this may seem like rushing the mourners, or participating in a funeral ceremony, to again pass an order in regard to the now famous but long delayed East Boston Tunnel. Whatever disposition may have been made of the matter last week, however, it seems to me that at least the proper width of the tunnel is a matter that can very well come up and be provided for at this time, as a matter of proper care of traffic conditions in connection with the tunnel. Therefore, I am making this one last effort. I do not feel that it is too late, because last June, when we were called upon to accept the tunnel act, and last fall, when we were told by the former Corporation Counsel that once signed the plans could not be changed again, nevertheless, there followed in last November a hearing upon it by the Public Works Department at the State House, who sent down to us notice of the hearing on November 29. If that could be done after the plans had been signed, it occurs to me that it still is not too late to urge that the new plans shall contain a provision for proper width of the tunnel between curbs. We all remember what Colonel Sullivan said last year in regard to the proper width of such a tunnel to carry traffic, and we all know Colonel Sullivan's reputation as an expert and an engineer; and we also know that what he said at that time was substantiated by Mr. Harriman, whose opinion at that time as an expert must have amounted to something. They both said, and they stood only three feet away from him when they said it, that the tunnel should be 22 feet in width. So I still urge that 22 feet in width. But if we cannot have that provision in the tunnel—which I understand was to be 5,200 feet in length, a little under a mile, and is now to be 5,400 feet in length, something over a mile,—we should at least make a provision that in every 500 feet or so an arrangement may be so that if there is a blockage, a breakdown of a vehicle, there will be some way to take it out, and that the driver of the vehicle which may break down within a quarter of a mile of East Boston, may not have to wait until he grows old for the traffic jam to be cleared.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

PRINTING LIST OF STREETS.

Coun. POWER offered the following:

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Printing be, and he hereby is, authorized to print an edition of 3,000 copies, bound in cloth, of "Boston's Streets, also its Avenues, Courts, Places, etc.," and that the expense of the same be charged to the appropriation for city documents.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK ON RIVER STREET.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along River street, both sides, from Duxbury road about 105 feet westerly, Ward 18, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

Adjourned, at 3.34 p. m., on motion of Coun. COX, to meet on Monday, April 28, 1930, at 2 p. m.

SAFE DRIVING.

Most cities and towns have a long list of "don't's" but do little to educate the drivers of cars. If one half the time that is used trying to make people do something or not to do something was spent in educating the drivers much better results would be obtained. We need drivers' schools and the city or town that first starts such a school will be doing a real service.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

PROPOSALS FOR SHEET ASPHALT OR BITULITHIC PAVEMENT IN CLAYTON STREET, WARD 16, FROM DICKENS STREET TO PARK STREET; GOODALE ROAD, WARD 14, FROM WELLINGTON HILL STREET 428 FEET SOUTHEAST.

GOOD-WILL ENVOYS OF JAPAN ENTERTAINED AT COPLEY-PLAZA LUNCHEON BY MAYOR CURLEY — THREE YOUNG WOMEN, GUESTS OF CITY, THEN PLANT CHERRY TREE IN JAMAICA POND AS EVIDENCE OF GRATITUDE FOR AID AFTER EARTHQUAKE IN 1923.

On Monday, April 28, Mayor Curley entertained at luncheon three Japanese maidens as guests of the city, at the Copley-Plaza Hotel. The young women were in Boston as a stop-over in their itinerary undertaken as envoys of gratitude in order to express the thanks of their country for assistance the people of the United States rendered their country at the time of the earthquake and fire in 1923.

The young women are Miss Kimi Ashino, Miss Sumili Tokuda and Miss Keiko Nakamura. Following the luncheon they were taken to Jamaica Pond where Japanese cherry trees, presented by the young women, were planted. During the luncheon the Mayor delivered an address as follows:

It is an exceeding pleasure to welcome the "good-will" envoys from the Empire of Japan and it is most pleasing that the welcome be extended within the particular hostelry where we assemble. One of the most noted moments during the World War was that represented by the declaration within this same hostelry of the position that the Empire of Japan proposed taking during the period of the World War. At that time Ambassador Ishii and Consul General Sawada representing the Imperial Government of Japan, and in charge of the Japanese Commission to America, were tendered a banquet in the larger hall in this building. At the banquet were assembled representatives of the Federal Government, of the state and of the municipal government, of the army, of the navy and of the courts, and representatives of every strata of society within our Commonwealth. 1917 was perhaps the most critical year during the period of the war. It was at the time when the head of the British forces gave utterance to the statement that the British forces would continue fighting, fighting with their backs to the wall, but the wall was an extremely thin line. For a period of three years without the cheer of a real victory and at that particular period it was important to the fate of popular government in the world the position that Japan might take, and it was in this particular building, at that particular hour and time, that the declaration that Japan proposed to take sides with the Allied Governments in the same manner that America had taken sides, unselfishly, zealously and for the perpetuation of the established government in the world. It was one of the most pleasing declarations in a period of three years.

I suppose that one of the most gratifying declarations that came to the people of Japan was the declaration that adversity or misfortune or trial or tribulation bring all people just a little closer together. Our appreciation of the sufferings of one another are never enhanced or heightened during the periods of prosperity; during these periods we are rather blind to the sufferings of our fellow-men and some time I wonder if, after all "out of evil does not always cometh good," the evil represented by the frightful catastrophe that visited Japan in 1923. It cannot be classed as an altogether unmixed evil. Military and naval circles both in Japan and in America had regarded one another for a great many years with a feeling of apprehension, a feeling engendered by the yellow press of both countries, that some time in the immediate future, one, the Yankees of the East and the other the Yankees of the West, would lock horns in mortal combat to determine the superiority or inferiority of the governments and races which they represented, and then at the height of the propaganda of hatred and mistrust, sewn by the yellow press, the world awakened one morning to find that a frightful and disastrous earthquake had occurred in Japan, that the cities of Tokyo and Yokohama had been shaken to the very core with earthquakes and substantially 70 per cent of the great buildings destroyed, that the large reservoirs of oil had been let loose which turned peaceful rivers into rivers of fire, and when the frightful summing up occurred it was found that the lives of 200,000 persons had been snuffed out in the earthquakes and conflagration.

American war vessels stationed in nearby waters, and in the vicinity of the Philippine Islands, acting under orders from Washington, these ships necessary for defense as well as for destruction, the commanders, many of whom had looked forward at some time or another to the training of their guns on Japan, in the hour of trial, hastily loaded the ships with food and with every conceivable character of material within the control of the American Government and rushed to Tokyo and Yokohama.

The hearts of the world opened to the misery of the Japanese and overnight enmities that had been engendered for years were forgotten and love and sympathy replaced enmity and hatred in the hearts of the men and women throughout the world.

Japan found a new place in the brotherhood and sisterhood of nations and Japan measured up to the most beloved traditions of the Japanese people. Instead of being downhearted they undertook the task of rebuilding the cities that had been destroyed and today there shines forth to the world a Tokyo and Yokohama more splendid, more virile, more beautiful than ever before known in the history of Japan, made possible by the courage, by the vision and by the determination that we so admire in the people of Japan.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

GOOD-WILL LUNCHEON.

It is a gratifying pleasure to again welcome these envoys of "good-will" who come here and say "Thank you" to America for the ten millions of dollars that America spent to aid Japan in her hour of trial. It is both fitting and appropriate that during their stay in America the world should be cheered and comforted in some part by the consummation of that for which 70,000 American boys died, millions lost their lives, and forty billions of dollars of treasure was destroyed; the prospect of the laying of a foundation for permanent world peace through a limitation of armament, agreed upon by nations that had long regarded each other as prospective, or almost certain enemies at some time.

And so today America itself gives expression to its good will in the signing of the agreement for the limitation of naval armaments, entered into by three of the progressive peoples of the world, the people of America and of Great Britain and of Japan, and so from that good-will spirit has come a more profound respect, and a greater admiration, and a firmer and stronger and more lasting desire for friendship, and that is, between the nation of America and the Empire of Japan.

It is a very great pleasure, as Mayor of the City of Boston, to greet these representatives of the beautiful and wonderful womanhood of Japan and to regret that their sisters who accompanied them on this journey were unable to be with us today, and to say to them that the heart of Boston goes out to them in an expression of our appreciation of their good-will mission to the United States of America.

With a desire that they continue in our vision, with a desire that they be "watched" by us, thanks to the courtesy of the head of the Waltham Watch Company, it is possible for us to present each of these young ladies with a beautiful example of the workmanship, and the skill, and the artistic temperament of the workers of Massachusetts, in the shape of the most highly specialized product that is manufactured in this line, a Waltham watch.

ORDERS OF ADDITION.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

The Mayor has approved the issuance of an order of addition, in the sum of $1,784.50, to the contract of D. M. Biggs Company for grading, etc., at the Robert Treat Paine School.

This amount is necessary to cover the cost of excavating 274.55 cubic yards of rock excavation, the cost being based on the unit prices contained in this contract.

MAYOR INVITES ZIONISTS TO CONVENE IN BOSTON.

In behalf of citizens of Boston I extend your organization cordial invitation to hold your convention in this city during the last week in June and beg to assure you of my hearty cooperation for its success.

COMPLETE REORGANIZATION OF LONG ISLAND HOSPITAL MANAGEMENT EFFECTED FOLLOWING ACCUSATIONS CHARGING SCANDALS UNDER PREVIOUS ADMINISTRATION—MAYOR CURLEY TAKES DRASTIC ACTION AFTER FINANCE COMMISSION'S REPORT—INVESTIGATION NOT YET COMPLETED.

As the result of the report of the Finance Commission relative to disclosures concerning scandals at the Institutions Department on Long Island a complete reorganization of the management has been approved by Mayor Curley. Henry A. Higgins of East Boston has been appointed Superintendent of the Long Island Hospital; Walter A. Stout, a Boston pharmacist, has replaced H. Benson Fenwick; Dr. R. H. Behrns has been appointed residing physician and Dr. John J. Dunphy assistant. The new second assistant will be Dr. Hilda Behrns, a specialist on children.

The new superintendent is an authority on parole and administrative morale. He replaces John J. Ryan, who was removed. Stout, also, is an expert in his profession, having had much to do with the reorganization of the pharmacy of the Boston Dispensary. The newly appointed physicians supersede Drs. Saunders Murray and Ralph S. Miller, named in accusations made by the report of the Finance Commission.

The new appointees all were nominated by the visiting staff, and approved by Commissioner Maguire, after which they were appointed by the Mayor. With reference to the investigation conducted by the Finance Commission, the Mayor addressed the following letter to Institutions Commissioner Maguire:

MY DEAR COMMISSIONER,—I beg to forward herewith seven-page report submitted by the Finance Commission with reference to the conduct of the institution at Long Island covering the administration of your predecessor, William S. Kinney. The report in question is of such character as to call for drastic action, at once, by you with reference to the officials at present in charge of the institution.

After you have checked up the report as submitted and completed the investigation which you have been conducting since your appointment as commissioner, I shall expect a report with recommendations from you as to the future administration and conduct of activities at the Long Island institution.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

The report of the Finance Commission follows.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In accordance with a policy recently adopted by the Finance Commission to make regular periodic survey of the institutions of the city, and at the request of Institutions Commissioner James E. Maguire, the Finance Commission on April 10 undertook an examination of the methods of administration at the Long Island Hospital.

Although the study is not yet completed, the commission's investigators have already uncovered a scandalous condition of affairs that amounts to both malfeasance and nonfeasance on the part of the administrative heads of the Institutions Department at Long Island Hospital in the past four years. The present Institutions Commissioner, Mr. Maguire, is not involved in these charges and, in the opinion of the Finance Commission, is entitled to meritorious recognition for his cooperation with the Finance Commission in revealing abuses and in his own efforts to correct them.

Public Airing of Conditions Might Harm.

The commission realizes that public airing of such conditions would do great harm to the institutions. Therefore the commission is submitting this report at the present time, leaving it to your own judgment and discretion what public use to make of it.

The uncovering of certain facts by the investigators of the Finance Commission has already prompted the superintendent of the institution to apply for a pension on the ground of a nervous breakdown. It also has been responsible for the offer of resignations of the two principal resident medical officers of the institution. All of these and other employees are involved in serious infractions of the law, both Federal and state, and the commission believes that the guilt of each should be carefully considered before any one of them is allowed to sever his connection with the institution with honor and favor.

The commission is reporting at the present time only on the phase of the situation which, in the opinion of the commission, merits criminal prosecution or discharge of officials involved, or both. Later the commission will report on conditions which show gross inefficiency on the part of the administrative heads and will offer recommendations for changes in methods which should provide at least an efficient system of operation.

The institution has authority to purchase spirituous liquor in any quantity it desires by virtue of its being a hospital. It is specified by the government that the liquor thus obtained will be used only for medicinal purposes.

LONG ISLAND HOSPITAL INVESTIGATION.

PHARMACIST PART TIME JOB.

The liquor purchased by the institution consists of whiskey, brandy, rum and alcohol. It is kept in a small storeroom near the institution pharmacy, nominally in the custody of a chief pharmacist, H. Benson Fenwick. This employee is paid $1,600 a year and is the responsible head of a pharmacy in a hospital which had an average daily population of 1,345 in 1929; yet, by the terms of an arrangement made with former Institutions Commissioner Kinney, he was expected to be at the institution only two days per week. As a matter of fact the Finance Commission's investigators have learned that he makes a practice of going to the institution on the 11.30 p. m. boat on Friday and leaving on the noon boat on Saturday. Even during this short time on the island he teaches chemistry to the nurses.

There is also an employee rated as assistant pharmacist at $1,200 per year, Ralph A. Nutter. By arrangement with former Institutions Commissioner Kinney, he also gives only part time to the institution, his schedule being Monday, Wednesday and Thursday all day, Saturday until noon, and Tuesday and Friday nights. During the remainder of the week he attends the Massachusetts School of Pharmacy as a student. He is not yet a licensed pharmacist. Nutter fills all the prescriptions that are written at the hospital. When he is away the pharmacy is locked and prescriptions must await his return. Yet here is a hospital, situated on an island, about one hour's ride from the mainland and housing hundreds of men, women and children, actually on their death beds, and hundreds of others so weakened by age, infirmity and poverty that they are in almost constant need of medical attention.

Fenwick, as chief pharmacist, is nominally in charge of the liquor. Actually, however, Nutter has complete custody. By the Federal regulations the liquor can only be issued on the prescription of a licensed physician. Among the four resident physicians and five internes at the institution, there are only two licensed to issue liquor prescriptions, Dr. Saunders Murray and Dr. Ralph T. Miller. These two, by Federal regulation are required to countersign all liquor prescriptions written by other medical officers and they are required later to sign for all the liquor dispensed on a liquor record register. This register serves as the institution inventory of the liquor stock; it is used by a Federal inspector in his periodic check-up for the Internal Revenue Bureau, and is the record from which the superintendent sends a sworn monthly report of liquor disbursement to the Federal Prohibition authorities.

NO ACCURATE RECORDS KEPT.

The Finance Commission investigators could find absolutely no records at the institution to check with this book. The prescriptions, after entry in the book, were and are destroyed. Prescriptions are written by any of eight medical officers, but when written by a non-licensee must be countersigned by one of the two licensed physicians. Such prescriptions, however, are not intended to cover the disbursement of alcohol, because it is the practice to issue alcohol indiscriminately to hospital employees. The Federal inspection merely consists of checking the quantity shown on the book as dispensed, with the amount on hand and the original supply. No check-up of liquor, alcohol, or other pharmaceutical stock, is made by any officer of the Institutions Department. No regulations or instructions of any sort are given by any higher official to the assistant pharmacist, and he is left to run the pharmacy as he sees fit. A twenty-three-year old assistant pharmacist is, therefore, in complete control of this large liquor and drug supply.

LIQUOR PARTIES RUMORED MANY.

Because the air at the island was filled with stories of liquor parties at the institution and the commissioner's investigators found many employees of responsibility who were outspoken in their denunciation of conditions resulting from the use of liquor for other than medicinal purposes, the first step in the survey was to examine the liquor records. It was apparent to the investigators from the start that the record was not reliable. Disbursements purporting to have taken place over many days had been freshly written, page after page plainly appearing to have been written at the same time. Check of the records with the nurses and supervisors disclosed many discrepancies. There were records that an eight-year old boy, who is an idiot and has tuberculosis, had received three pints of liquor in one week; that liquor was issued to men weeks and even months after they had died; that liquor was issued to men in wards where there are no men, and that liquor was issued to patients of whom the supervisors had never heard. When faced with these discrepancies, the assistant pharmacist admitted the records were false and had been deliberately written by him to account for liquor given out without prescription to Superintendent Ryan and to medical officers. The assistant pharmacist stated that he found the medical officers ready and willing at all times to sign knowingly false statements on the book. As a consideration, they were able to obtain liquor for themselves or their friends when they wanted it.

That this illegal dispensing of liquor and falsification of records has been going on for a long time is admitted by the assistant pharmacist and by Superintendent Ryan himself. In the record book period of November 20, 1929, to April 10, 1930, there were shown 175 instances of pints of whiskey, rum or brandy charged to patients which nurses and supervisors of nurses in charge of these patients claim they never received. The assistant pharmacist admits that these patients did not receive it and Superintendent Ryan admits that a large part of it was placed in his desk. Here the admissions of Superintendent Ryan and the assistant pharmacist conflict. Ryan says he did not ask the assistant pharmacist to put the liquor in his desk and did not ask why it was put there. He does admit, however, that he knew former Institutions Commissioner Kinney took all that was placed there. Yet Superintendent Ryan has made sworn returns for many months to the Federal Department of Prohibition records that he knew were false, to cover his institution liquor disbursements.

MANY ORDERS FOR LIQUOR RECEIVED.

Mr. Nutter, the assistant pharmacist, admitted that he had received so many orders for liquor for former Commissioner Kinney that he is unable to give an approximate estimate of the total or number of them. These, he claims, come to him through Ryan and the liquor was delivered to Superintendent Ryan's office. Some time after these deliveries Nutter made records on the liquor entry book, purporting to show that this liquor went to patients, and requested Doctor Miller or Doctor Murray, the senior resident physicians, to sign them. They signed without any attempt to verify the issuance. Both admitted to the commissioner's investigators that they had a pretty good idea of where it had really gone.

On the matter of the handling of grain alcohol, no attempt whatever is made to keep a record of disbursement. It is intended for a wider use than the liquor, because there is need for it for rubbing purposes, sterilization of instruments, etc. Any nurse or student nurse may order it and no physician's counter signature is necessary to obtain it. There being no record of its use, it was not possible, in the short time the commission's investigators were at the hospital, to find out the extent of the illegal use of alcohol; but with such looseness in its general handling, great abuse is possible.

The assistant pharmacist stated that without any instructions from any source, he made a practice to put mercurochrome in some of it to prevent improper use. A large part of it, however, was parceled out by him without written orders of any responsible official and without taking any means of preventing improper use. Yet this alcohol handled by the pharmacy was the purest grade technically known as cologne spirits. The absence of any system whatever in the issuance of alcohol, the use of which is highly restricted by the Federal Government, constitutes in itself a serious reflection on the administration of the institution, involving alike the former commissioner, the superintendent and the medical staff.

As stated above, we submit this preliminary report in order that you may take the necessary action immediately.

Respectfully submitted,

THE FINANCE COMMISSION,
by FRANK A. GOODWIN,
Chairman.

MAYOR CURLEY CONTRIBUTES TO FUND FOR MURDERED PATROLMAN'S FAMILY.

Mayor Curley, on May 2, forwarded the following communication to Charles D. M. Bishop, President of the Dorchester Board of Trade:

MY DEAR MR. BISHOP,—I have been privileged this day to meet Mrs. Franklin B. Dwyer and after learning her story, a frail mother with three helpless infants to care for, have been pleased to contribute $100 to the fund that is being raised under the auspices of the Dorchester Board of Trade to aid her.

In the death of her husband this sorrowing mother, really a child in appearance, is deserving of the sympathy and the aid of the community in whose defense the life of her courageous and honorable husband was sacrificed.

If the citizenship of Boston were permitted the opportunity to peer within the home and visualize the enormity of the task confronting this worthy little woman the raising of a sufficient fund to protect her and her helpless children would be a simple task. The case is a most meritorious one and the responsibility for the extending of aid should be regarded both as a duty and a privilege.

Sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

To the Employees of the Sanitary Division.

Subject: General Order — Commercial Waste and Collection of Tickets.

In accordance with instructions from the Commissioner of Public Works, your attention is called to the following:

All employees of the Sanitary Division are hereby notified that the collection of money in place of tickets for commercial waste taken from any premise in the city is contrary not only to the rules of the department but to the law.

Any employee of the Sanitary Division, whether it be inspector, teamster or laborer, found guilty of violating this rule will be punished by immediate discharge.

It has been found necessary to invoke this drastic disciplinary measure to end a system of petty graft that has been permitted to develop in the disposition of commercial waste during the past few years.

All foremen and inspectors will read a copy of this notification to the men in the sanitary yards throughout the city and have a copy posted in a prominent place in each yard.

Political intercession or excuses because of family conditions will be of no avail in the case of any employee found violating this order.

ADOLPH J. POST,

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Paving Service).

Upon April 30 the Mayor approved a contract with Matthew Cummings Company for the construction of Duke street footway. A communication from J. A. Rourke of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, April 29, 1930.

To His Honor the Mayor.

Your approval is requested for the award of a contract, without advertising, to Matthew Cummings Company, 43 Tremont street, Boston, to construct Duke street footway, from Duke street to the rear of the Tileston School, Dorchester, at a cost of $2,600.

This firm is now building an addition to the Tileston School, and there would be little, if anything, gained through advertising for proposals for this work; and although it has been ordered by the Street Commissioners and paid for out of their appropriation, it may be considered as a necessary feature of the school construction.

Yours respectfully,

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Upon various dates the Mayor approved contracts with contractors as indicated for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks. Communications from Joseph A. Rourke of the Public Works Department were as follows:

BOSTON, April 24, 1930.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award contracts for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to Joseph Puleo, 121 Dana avenue, Hyde Park, and Coleman Brothers, Incorporated, 245 State street, Boston, is hereby requested on the ground that these contractors are not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve $1,000.

Respectfully yours,

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, April 28, 1930.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Permission to award a contract for the construction of artificial stone sidewalks in the public streets, without advertising, to the Hurley-Driscoll Building Company, 252 Codman street, Dorchester, is hereby requested on the ground that this contractor is not selected by the city in the first instance but by the abutters; secondly, the expense of construction is to be divided by the city and abutters; also because such contracts vary greatly in amounts and seldom involve $1,000.

Respectfully yours,

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (Water Service).

Upon April 29 the Mayor approved a contract with Coleman Brothers, Incorporated, for laying water pipes. A communication from Joseph A. Rourke of the Public Works Department was as follows:

BOSTON, May 2, 1930.

To the Mayor of Boston.

Your approval is respectfully requested for the award of a contract, without advertising, to Coleman Brothers, Incorporated, for approximately $8,000, in accordance with unit prices submitted, for furnishing and laying steel water pipes and laying cast-iron water pipes furnished by the city on the structure which is furnished by them as part of the contract for Congress Street Bridge.

This job has been advertised, but we feel that it would be unfair to Coleman Brothers to have another contractor on this work while they are engaged in the construction of the bridge.

Our engineers have checked up on the prices and find them to be fair.

Yours respectfully,

JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

MAYOR CURLEY STOPS PAYMENT OF GARRETT PENSION.

Immediately upon receipt of a decision of the Corporation Counsel Mayor Curley issued an order that the pension being paid to Oliver B. Garrett be stopped. The decision to stop payment of the pension resulted from the findings of the Attorney-General to the effect that Garrett had obtained his pension award by fraud. The letter of the Corporation Counsel to the Mayor is as follows:

BOSTON, May 2, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I have read the report of findings of the Attorney-General in the investigation of the circumstances surrounding the pension awarded to Oliver B. Garrett. The Attorney-General has found as a matter of fact that the pension of Oliver B. Garrett was fraudulently obtained. In view of this finding by the Attorney-General I advise your Honor that the City Treasurer be notified to refrain from making any further payments to Patrolman Garrett on account of his pension.

There is no provision in our statutes for the annulment of a policeman's pension other than that provided in chapter 3 of the Acts of 1929, which refers to the re-examination and restoration to service if the officer is found physically and mentally fit, and which further provides that if the officer fails to submit to examination or return to duty, as required, his pension shall cease.

If, however, the pension was obtained by fraud no specific statutory authority is necessary to cancel the pension as the law recognizes that fraud vitiates the pension.

If your Honor recommends the annulment of the pension to Officer Garrett, he may, if he so desires, test the right of the city to so annul his pension by proper legal proceedings in court.

Very truly yours,

SAMUEL SILVERMAN,
Corporation Counsel.

MAYOR CURLEY REJOICES THAT BOSTON UNIVERSITY WILL HONOR ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL.

Mayor Curley, on May 5, forwarded the following communications to Rev. Daniel L. Marsh, President of Boston University:

DEAR DR. MARSH,—Thank you for your booklet on "Bell, Benefactor of Mankind," which I have found of extreme interest. The little book is surely gripping, and I do hope that it may have a wide circulation. I think the service of Alexander Graham Bell should be better known, and I believe that your book will work to this end.

Sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

DEAR DR. MARSH,—I cannot tell you how glad I am to learn that, in the plans for the group of new buildings to arise on the banks of the Charles, it is your purpose to give the crowning position to a tower to be dedicated to the memory of Alexander Graham Bell, whom, in your booklet, you call the "Benefactor of Mankind."

I am simply astounded to read the story of the trials through which this great servant passed, in his attempt to bring, through the human voice, all mankind together. I know I express the gratitude of the entire world to Boston University when I say that, though others were helpful in bringing the labors of Bell to a success, the world today without the assistance of Boston University, might well be without the telephone, and all the progress issuing from the invention thereof. Furthermore, the wonders in which the world has rejoiced for the last twenty-five years, which look to the telephone for their beginning, might not now be in more than the realms of fancy. It is a trite saying, and I hesitate to use it, that one touch of nature makes the whole world kin, but it is equally true that no invention—not even the electric spark of Morse and the Atlantic cable—has done, by any means, as much as the telephone has done to advance the interests of business, to make the lot of man upon earth more tolerable, to substitute negotiation for the arbitrament of arms, to annihilate space and time and make all men one, and to promote the cause of universal peace.

What could be more fitting than that this monument should arise here on the scene of Bell's activities and in the birthplace of the telephone.

The response for funds to erect this great memorial will, I believe, be prompt and generous, and I should not think it too much to expect the great telephone companies, out of sheer gratitude, to form a combination for the erection of such a memorial, without further draft upon the public. The service of Alexander Graham Bell to humanity is nothing short of staggering. The mind can scarcely measure it, and I believe that you will find the public to be generous givers to the institution that, through its service to the great master of sound, has worked the marvel of the late nineteenth and the early twentieth centuries.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

LAND-TAKING IN WEST ROXBURY.

The Mayor has approved the following vote of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly West Roxbury and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Dwinell street, bounded:

Northeasterly by easement taken by the City of Boston, for sewerage purposes, April 22, 1927, ten and 22-100 feet; southeasterly by another part of Dwinell street, by two measurements, two hundred thirty and 82-100 feet and three hundred seventy-nine and 39-100 feet; southwesterly by the same, ten feet; and northwesterly by the same, by two measurements, three hundred and eighty feet and two hundred thirty-three and 55-100 feet, containing sixty-one hundred and nineteen square feet, more or less.

Included in the above taking are the respective parts of the following lots registered in the Land Court which lie between the middle line of said Dwinell street and the side lines of said taking:

Arthur M. Wyman, Cert. No. 26016, Book 126, page 16.

Edward B. Reynolds, Cert. No. 27109, Book 131, page 199.

Henry C. Bostrom, Cert. No. 27076, Book 131, page 76.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 615 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the abutting lots of land on both sides of Dwinell street, southwesterly from Bonair street for a distance of approximately 615 feet, will receive benefit or advantage beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered; each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 947, Sewerage Works, Dwinell Street, West Roxbury, April 2, 1930, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

METHODS OF ELIMINATING GRADE- CROSSING ACCIDENTS.

Five suggestions aimed at the elimination of grade-crossing accidents are offered in the monthly report of the Street Traffic Committee of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

It is estimated that curing the grade-crossing evil would reduce traffic accidents by 10 per cent in a very short time, and the Committee presents the following five points for discussion:

1. Do away with those grade crossings which have the heaviest traffic.
2. Place warning signs not less than 500 feet back from the railroad tracks.
3. Take down all signs from obsolete trackage.
4. Use traffic-light signals (operated by trains) instead of signs, if there are fewer than five trains per day.
5. Consider scrapping all railroad signs in favor of signals for use only when train is approaching.

"The last two points merit consideration first, because, though they are new doctrines, they seem the least expensive and most practical of application."

MAYOR CURLEY HONORED BY ITALY—DECORATION IS BESTOWED.

Italy, on May 7, conferred upon Mayor Curley the highest honor which one not of Italian birth is permitted to receive.

Upon him was bestowed by King Victor Emmanuel the honor of Grade Commendatore of the Order of the Crown of Italy. The only other New Englander who has been given similar recognition is James T. Williams, Jr., a former Boston newspaperman.

The decoration was conferred in recognition of the long and active interest of Mayor Curley in Italy and its people and the transmission of the order of the king was done by the Boston consul, Pio Margotti.

In the Mayor's office he placed upon the Mayor the handsome gold and white enamel decoration in the form of a Maltese cross, fastened to a white ribbon, which is emblematic of the honor conferred by Italy.

Mayor Curley has similar honors. He is a member of the third degree of the Order of the Rising Sun of Japan, holds the emblem of the Medaille de la Reconnaissance of France and is a Knight of St. Saviour of Servia.

Consul Margotti had the Mayor make the prescribed notations upon an official order from which the magistral diploma will shortly be issued.

He also gave the Mayor a translation of an official communication from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, which read:

"I take pleasure in informing you that his Majesty the King on the proposal of his Excellency the Minister Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has this day bestowed upon you the distinction of commendatore of His Order of the Crown of Italy. In announcing the insignia of the decoration, I will send you as soon as possible the King's decree, and for such reason I will kindly ask you to return to me, duly filled and signed, the enclosed form. In congratulating you for the decoration I take the occasion to express the sentiments of my high consideration to his Honor the Mayor."

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 40.

I. LICENSES.

The following information, which has been received in a bulletin from the State Fire Marshal, is hereby published for the information of the department:

"Inquiries are frequently received at this office concerning the law relative to the licensing of buildings or other structures for the keeping, storage, manufacture, and sale of crude petroleum and its products, and explosive or inflammable fluids or compounds, and in relation to the annual registration of such licenses.

"For the information of all persons interested in these matters, the State Fire Marshal issues the following:

"Licenses for the use of buildings or other structures for the above-named purposes are to be secured from the licensing authority of the city or town where such license is to be exercised.

"All permits required by the regulations of the Department of Public Safety are to be secured from the official designated in such regulations, usually the head of the fire department.

"By virtue of the provisions of chapter 260 and 325 of the Acts of 1928, all licenses and permits shall be limited to expire on April 30 of the year following their issue. The purpose of this act is to insure the uniform recording or registration annually of such licenses and permits. The provisions of these statutes are given effect in the Metropolitan District in the new delegations of power to the Board of Aldermen, Selectmen or other licensing authorities."

II. COMMENDATIONS.

Lieut. Michael J. McLaughlin of Engine Company 50 is hereby commended for his good judgment in averting a possible panic at the Hollywood Theater, Charlestown, at 9.05 p. m., April 27, 1930. Lieutenant McLaughlin was making an inspection of the theater at the above hour and noticed what he believed to be the smell of burning oil, and some boy raised the cry of "fire." The patrons made a rush to leave the theater, and Lieutenant McLaughlin made his presence known by walking down the aisle to the back of the stage. He discovered an overheated motor in the motor room of the organ. He then instructed the manager to go upon the stage and announce that there was no fire and what the cause of the odor was. He also had the theater ventilated and ordered the motor shut down until it could be checked up. For his prompt action and good judgment on this occasion Lieutenant McLaughlin is given three days to be added to his annual vacation.

Capt. Joseph M. Flynn of Engine Company 25 is hereby commended for assisting in extinguishing a fire at Pier 4 of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, April 29, 1930, while off duty. Captain Flynn discovered the fire and held it in check by the use of extinguishers until the arrival of the fire apparatus.

Hoseman William T. Wesson of Engine Company 8 is hereby commended for assisting in extinguishing a fire, Box 3566, May 3, 1930, while off duty. When the apparatus arrived Hoseman Wesson was attempting to hold the fire in check by use of pails of water. He assisted Engine Company 19 in extinguishing the fire.

Mayor Curley, on May 3, sent the following letter to his Excellency, Honorable Nobile Giacomo de Martino, Ambassador of Italy, at Washington, D. C.:

DEAR EXCELLENCY,—I desire to extend Your Excellency a most sincere and heartfelt invitation to be the guest of the City of Boston upon Columbus Day, October 12, 1930, and incident to your visit, deliver an oration upon the life and character of Christopher Columbus.

As your Excellency is well aware, the real foundation of the American Republic began in the City of Boston, and our immortal leaders at Bunker Hill, Lexington and Concord made the first supreme sacrifice that this nation might be perpetuated.

In the event that I may be honored by your Excellency's acceptance, kindly rest assured you will be my personal guest, and a program subject to your approval will be presented, that you may visit the historic places of Boston and its environs.

USE OF EAST BOSTON AIRPORT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 28, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from William P. Long, chairman of the Park Commission, regarding the privilege of the Naval Air Station at Squantum to use the East Boston Airport. This is in reply to your order of April 14, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, April 23, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of an order from the City Council, requesting information whether the United States Navy planes and the planes of the Naval Air Station at Squantum are allowed the use of the East Boston Airport, etc.

The navy has the use of the airport as far as is consistent with safety. The use of the airport is increasing and conditions arise when it would be unwise for student aviators to practice landings. I desire to say that this department is the best judge of when it is safe for the naval authorities to use the field.

Arrangements have been made through Philip Andrews, Rear-Admiral, United States Navy, whereby the commanding officer at Squantum, when he desires to use the airport, communicates with the superintendent, and landings can only be practiced when same are authorized by this department.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

Placed on file.

Police Department, April 18, 1930.
To the Superintendent.

Sir,—In connection with attached communication from W. J. Doyle, City Clerk, concerning the installing of a spotlight for the traffic officer at Commonwealth avenue and Gorham street as recommended by Councilor Hein of Ward 21, I respectfully report that we formerly had a spotlight at this location which was installed for the purpose of protecting the traffic officer and for the guidance of operators of motor vehicles and for the pedestrians, but this spotlight was so little used, in accordance with the meter readings, that the Traffic Commission took out this spotlight and, on our recommendation, installed the same at Washington street and Commonwealth avenue where such a light was badly needed.

At the present time Division 14 covers the location at Gorham street from 7.30 to 8.15 p. m. and from 10.15 to 11 p. m. each night for the protection of the public going to and coming from the Capitol Theater.

It is a dangerous spot for both the officer and the public and I so stated when this spotlight was originally installed at this location, and I respectfully recommend that this matter be forwarded to the Traffic Commissioner for his consideration and I approve of the installation.

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS F. GOODE,
Deputy Superintendent.

City of Boston,
Police Department, April 19, 1930.
To the Superintendent.

Sir,—In reference to the communication received from the office of the Mayor of Boston, that the Commissioner of Police be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install a spotlight for the traffic officer at Commonwealth avenue and Gorham street, Ward 21.

I find that the traffic post at Commonwealth avenue and Gorham street, Ward 21, is covered by a patrolman attached to Division 14, before and after the performance at the Olympia Theater.

In my opinion for the safety of the officer and the public, a spotlight should be installed at Commonwealth avenue and Gorham street, Ward 21.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES LAFFEY,
Captain, Division 21.

OPINION OF CORPORATION COUNSEL IN RE TAXICAB STANDS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 25, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to forward herewith opinion handed down by the Corporation Counsel in response to order adopted by your honorable body under date of March 3, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, March 25, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—In compliance with the order as made by the City Council of the city, which was passed March 3, 1930, a copy of which order I hereto annex, I herewith submit my advice to the Special City Council Committee on taxi stands with reference to the questions propounded in the order:

(1.) Taxicab locations now granted are granted by the Police Commissioner under Rule 58 of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department of the City of Boston for the year 1927, which is made by virtue of the authority contained in chapter 244 of the Acts of the year 1878, in chapter 323 of the Acts of the year 1885, and in chapter 291 of the Acts of the year 1906, and section 4 of said Rule 58, which is particularly applicable, is as follows:

"The police commissioner may assign to any person or corporation licensed to set up and use a hackney carriage, a place as a special stand for such licensed hackney carriage, and the owner of more than one licensed hackney carriage may keep any of his licensed hackney carriages on a stand assigned to him, but not exceeding at any time the number specified for each place. No such special stand shall be assigned or granted to any person who is not the owner of such licensed hackney carriage. Permits for special stands will be issued as distinct from licenses of owners or drivers and may be revoked, suspended or transferred without affecting the validity of such licenses."

There is no provision for the charging of a rental or fee for such stand.

(2.) The legal authority for the granting of a taxi-cab stand on a public street in the City of Boston is vested at the present time in the Police Commissioner and not in the Board of Street Commissioners.

(3.) The Police Commissioner has the authority to grant a license for a taxicab stand on any public street in the City of Boston by virtue of the provisions of chapter 244 of the Acts of the year 1878, and as further provided by chapter 323 of the Acts of the year 1885 and by chapter 291 of the Acts of the year 1906. These acts give the Police Commissioner power to make rules and regulations as regards licenses and stands for taxicabs, and Rule 58 above quoted has been legally passed by the Police Commissioner.

(4.) The Board of Street Commissioners has no authority to grant a license for a taxicab stand in any public street in the City of Boston.

(5.) The owners or lessees of hotel buildings in the City of Boston have no authority by such ordinance or act of the Legislature to charge rentals or fees for the use of adjacent city streets in the City of Boston.

(6.) See answer to the first question propounded in the order.

(7.) The authority to grant licenses for taxicab stands is vested in the Police Commissioner and if he acts in good faith he has a right to grant exclusive stands at such locations to particular individuals or corporations.

(8.) (a.) So far as Question 8 is concerned, if it relates to taxicab stands being licensed by the Police Commissioner, he has a right to restrict the parking of automobiles in any part of any public street. If it relates to motor vehicles other than for taxicab stands, that authority is vested in the Traffic Commission.

(b.) If your question relates to the exclusive use of any public way for a taxicab stand, the Police Commissioner has the right to grant a license for such stand, but there is no authority in law for the owner of property immediately adjacent to charge a fee or rental for such purpose.

(9.) The answer to (a), (b) and (c) is that the procedure to which you refer it is possible to prevent by the passage of appropriate legislation.

(10) and (11.) In connection with Questions (10) and (11) I refer you to my answer to Question (1), which is my answer to (10) and (11).

The powers of the Police Commissioner of Boston as to the suspension and revocation of licenses granted to drive hackney carriages was treated by our Supreme Court in the case of Raftery v. Police Commissioner of Boston in 259 Mass., page 145. The question of the licensing of taxicab stands in public highways was treated in the case of Morley v. Police Commissioner of Boston by our Supreme Court in 261 Mass., page 269, and at page 276 it was said:

"The right to engage in the business of carrying people for hire upon public ways is subject to reasonable control. The police commissioner had authority to make rules and regulations concerning this business. The power to regulate the business gives the power to require those engaged in it to be licensed. . . . The holder takes it subject to the right of suspension and revocation authorized by statute, and subject to the rules and regulations and to the express conditions made a part of the license. . . . The designation of stands for carriages licensed to transport passengers for hire would be a useless ceremony unless the drivers were required to operate from the stands designated. . . . The designation of stands and the requirement that licensees maintain service at them are justified for reasons based on the public welfare and convenience."

Very truly yours,
SAMUEL SILVERMAN,
Corporation Counsel.

LEASE OF OLD STATE HOUSE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 28, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith a communication from the Corporation Counsel and an order for the leasing of the Old State House to the Bostonian Society for a period of twenty years. The building has been in the care of this society, subject to the control of the city by the Mayor and the Superintendent of Public Buildings, for a long period, and the state contributes to the society annually a sum for the maintenance of the building. I know of no better way of preserving this historical building as a memorial of the founders of our state and city than by continuing it in the custody of this organization.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, April 28, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—I am inclosing herewith an order to be presented to the City Council, authorizing the Mayor of Boston to sign a lease of the Old State House, at the corner of Washington street and State street, running to the Bostonian Society for a period of twenty years. This society is now occupying the Old State House under a lease which expires on the 17th day of May, 1930, and which was for a period of twenty years. The society is now desirous of renewing this lease for a similar period. If your Honor has no objection to this lease being renewed, will you kindly send this order to the Council today, as the present lease will expire before the Council will have been able to pass the necessary votes and readings.

Very truly yours,
SAMUEL SILVERMAN,
Corporation Counsel.

City of Boston.
In City Council.

Whereas, By chapter 385 of the Acts of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the year 1907, the Legislature of the said Commonwealth ordered that the Old State House at the corner of Washington street and State street in said Boston should be preserved as a historical memorial, and that no part thereof should be used for commercial or business purposes; and

Whereas, By an instrument in writing dated May 17, 1910, the said premises were leased to the Bostonian Society, a corporation organized under the Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for the purposes set forth in the Charter of said Bostonian Society for a period of twenty years, and at an annual rental of one hundred (100) dollars, under the terms and conditions set forth in said lease; and

Whereas, The said Bostonian Society is desirous of leasing the said premises for a further period of twenty years at the same rental;

Now, Therefore, it is Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be, and he hereby is, authorized to execute and deliver to the Bostonian Society, in the name and behalf of the City of Boston and in form satisfactory to the Law Department of the said City of Boston, a lease wherein the said City of Boston leases to the said Bostonian Society the Old State House situated at the corner of said Washington street and said State street, for a term of twenty years at an annual rental of one hundred (100) dollars, the said lease to be upon such terms and conditions and with such reservations as his Honor the Mayor may deem expedient.

ASSISTANT CLERK, DORCHESTER COURT.

Coun. RUBY offered the following:
Ordered, That chapter 152 of the Acts of 1930 entitled "An Act Establishing the Office of Second Assistant Clerk in the Municipal Court of the Dorchester District" be, and the same hereby is, accepted.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

REWARD IN RE KILLING OF FRANKLIN B. DWYER.

Coun. KELLY offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be authorized to offer a reward of $500 for the detection of the person who shot and killed Franklin B. Dwyer, a member of the Police Department of the City of Boston.

Coun. KELLY—Mr. President, a few nights ago an officer in my district left his home as 1 a. m. to do police duty. Three hours later he was fatally wounded by a burglar whom he was attempting to apprehend. A day and a half later he died at the City Hospital, leaving a wife and three children, the youngest but six weeks old. The captain and the police of my district, Station 11, have done everything within their power to apprehend the murderer. They have run down every clue, but to date without result. So, Mr. President, I introduce this order. I have worded it so as to include the amount of $500, the maximum, I understand, that we are allowed to spend in such a case, and provide that it shall be given to the person who simply detects the murderer. No conviction is necessary. I am sure that when his Honor the Mayor gets the order before him he will sign it. Therefore, as time is of the essence, I move that this order be passed immediately under suspension of the rule.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

ARC LIGHT ON PREBLE STREET.

Coun. MAHONEY for Coun. Lynch offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide for the installation of an arc light on Preble street, at the corner of Ward street, Ward 7.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:
Ordered, That an annuity of one thousand dollars be allowed and paid to the widow of Edward J. Lennon, late member of the Boston Police Department, who died as a result of injuries received while in the performance of his duty, such annuity to continue so long as said widow remains unmarried, and to be charged to the Appropriations for Police Department, Pensions and Annuities.

Referred to Executive Committee.

REPAVING OF BROOKLEDGE STREET.

Coun. BUSH offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave with smooth paving Brookledge street, Ward 12.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

LAYING OUT OF FERNDAL ROAD.

Coun. MURRAY offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out Ferndale road, Ward 19, as a public highway.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PROPOSED NAMING OF "CLARENCE DEMAR STREET."

Coun. NORTON offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to consider the advisability of changing the name of Blagden street, or Exeter street, from Huntington avenue to Boylston street, to "Clarence DeMar Street."

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, the name of Clarence DeMar is one that will go down in the athletic history of this country. He has finished as the winner of six Marathons in this vicinity. I think, therefore, it would be very appropriate and fitting to name Exeter street, from Huntington avenue to Boylston street, for this athletic hero—or, if the Street Commissioners deem it expedient to take Blagden street in preference, that that street be so named. Marathon runners have always been highly honored since the original famous Marathon runner in the days of Ancient Greece. Beyond question, such men as DeMar are high exponents of the physical and moral life and Clarence DeMar's career in that respect is a symbol and an inspiration for our American youth. His name will be one to conjure with to generations yet unborn as typifying the advantages that come to all through a properly directed interest in athletics.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, while I might agree with everything that has been said by the councilor from Ward 18 with reference to the particular person in question, I cannot for the life of me see how any of us, even including the councilor from Ward 18, can in the City Council of Boston vote to name a street in a certain section of this city after one who is a nonresident. We have men in our city who are just as mighty in their particular lines and whose memory would be just as deserving of being kept alive, men of high character and accomplishment who are citizens of Boston. While we all honor this wonderful athlete who has been fortunate enough to win a number of Marathon races conducted by an association in Boston, and while we feel proud of his accomplishments, there are thousands and thousands of young boys throughout the entire country today who cherish the name of Babe Ruth or the name of Honus Wagner and other athletes of the present and previous days. But to name streets in different sections of Boston after these men, because of their wonderful athletic ability, would, in my opinion, establish the sort of precedent for which we might be sorry at some future time. I hope the order introduced by the councilor from Ward 18 will not prevail.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, I also want to take issue on this matter, although from a different angle entirely. The councilor from Dorchester makes the statement that this man is a nonresident, and that is the reason he gives why we should not vote to name a street after him. But we have Washington street and Franklin street, and Washington and Franklin were not residents of this city, either. So that is not entirely the angle from which we should look at this question. But I am opposed to the naming of any street or public building after a man who is still living. The custom in the past has been to name public buildings and streets after notable men who have some great accomplishment to their credit for the benefit of the public or of humanity, but it has been as a tribute to their memories after they have passed away. To name a street, as is here proposed, after a man who is still living, I think is a very bad precedent for the Council to establish, and in my opinion, therefore, this measure ought to be defeated.

Coun. ARNOLD—Mr. President, sitting in this Council as the representative of the district in which Exeter street and Blagden street are located, I was somewhat surprised when the order which has just been introduced by the councilor from Ward 18 was read: I want to inform him, through you, sir, that we have plenty of traditions worthy of commemoration in the names Exeter and Blagden; and if there are any memorials desired for this or other athletes, I would suggest to the councilor from Ward 18, having in mind the 286 unaccepted streets in his ward, that he pick on his own ward.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, answering my colleague from Dorchester as to the naming of a street after a person who is living, I might simply say that we have the great Father Cummins Highway that goes through the West Roxbury section to Mattapan, named after one of the greatest living men in Boston today, the Reverend John Cummins. I might also say that Dewey square was named before Admiral Dewey died, and that other streets in this city have been named after living heroes of the World War. We have also in my district a court named Arbuckle court, after a living family. Now, Mr. President, here is a splendid type of man, a fine, clean athlete, a man deserving of high honor in any community. He lives near this city and has been associated with it in his career. Certainly we have in Clarence DeMar an exponent and exemplar of high virtues and abilities, whom we may well honor in this way. It is simply a matter of naming a short section of the street, about 200 feet in length, as a memorial to his achievements; as a monument to a man who has done something that no other man has ever done. Let me say to the gentleman from the Back Bay, who represents the district in which this street lies, that to my mind we are not only honoring the man but honoring the district by paying to Clarence DeMar this tribute. And so I feel that we may well recognize Clarence DeMar's athletic prowess in this way. His fame knows no ward lines; it virtually envisages America.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I do not want to lengthen this debate, but, in order that the records may be right, I wish to say just a word. I claim some of the credit for the naming of a road in honor of Monsignor Supple while he was still alive, and I offer no apology for that. Had the councilor from Ward 18 been listening to the participants in the present debate he would have noticed that it was not the councilor from Ward 14 (Councilor Ruby) who stated that he was not in favor of naming streets in honor of living persons. The councilor from Ward 14 made no such statement during the progress of this debate.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, I never stated that it was the councilor from Ward 14. I believe the stenographic record will show that I referred to the councilor from Dorchester, not designating any particular councilor.

Coun. RUBY—The councilor who made that statement is from Roxbury.

Coun. MURRAY—Mr. President, might I answer the councilor from Ward 18 (Councilor Norton) by saying that we of our district, including myself, feel that we owe no apology to him or anybody else for naming the highway running from Roslindale to Mattapan after the greatest living man in our district, Father Cummins.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

TRAFFIC SIGNAL LIGHTS, MORTON STREET.

Coun. RUBY offered the following:
Ordered, That the Boston Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install traffic signal lights at Morton street and Blue Hill avenue, Ward 14.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

The Council voted, on motion of Coun. FISH, at 2.38 p. m., to take a recess subject to the call of the President.

The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by President LYNCH at 4.49 p. m.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTABLES.

Coun. WILSON, for the Committee on Constables, submitted the following report:

The Special Committee on Constables appointed to report for appropriate action the proposed confirmation of a list of fifty-three constables appointed by the Mayor as connected with official positions and to serve without bonds,—hereinafter referred to as List 1,—as well as 219 constables of the City of Boston appointed by the Mayor as authorized to serve civil process upon filing of bonds for the year commencing May 1, 1930, hereinafter referred to as List 2, reports as follows:

In accordance with vote of the City Council on April 14, 1930, each of the 219 constables included in List 2 was forwarded a copy of twenty-five inquiries with reference to the qualifications of each, the answers to such inquiries to be subscribed and sworn to by each applicant. Each of the 219 were in addition requested to attend the meeting of the Special Committee called for Thursday, April 24, at 1 p. m. and your committee sat on that day until 5.40 p. m., interviewing, without exception, every applicant who appeared.

The committee might state that the names comprising List 1 in the year 1927 numbered thirty-one, in 1928 numbered thirty, in 1929 numbered thirty-five, and this year numbers fifty-three. Out of twenty-five new men added to List 1 since 1929 only two appear to have served in any capacity as a constable in the City of Boston during the past four years, and it may therefore be advisable that your committee interview the twenty-three new and presumably inexperienced appointees.

The committee would further point out that in 1927, when the first Special Committee on Constables in the new City Council of twenty-two members first held hearings, prior to actual confirmation of such appointments there were 205 applicants on the list. The Special Committee then as now found a large majority of our constables courteous, well qualified and experienced,—men rightly depended upon to serve civil process as officers of the law with all due regard for the individual rights of citizens of our city under the law but the committee then and now has felt that the list of constables should not be passed annually in any purely perfunctory manner. The real interest of the public suggests the advisability of some real examination into the personal qualifications of these public officials and at least a well-defined opportunity for the citizens of the city annually to lay before this body any merited complaints against such constables as may appear clearly to have abused the power of their office.

It appears that the public at large is not cognizant of its right to complain at any time to the office of the Mayor with reference to an unfit constable and therefore the annual confirmation of the Mayor's reappointments is a most convenient and appropriate time periodically to take stock.

It is the earnest belief of certain members of your committee that a more general restriction in the number of constables for the City of Boston and more stringent requirements of appointment would enure not only to the welfare of the general public but also prove of distinct benefit to the scores of experienced and competent constables who are admittedly a credit to the office.

One apparent effect of an annual check-up may be gathered from the fact that the names on List 2 in 1927 numbered 205, but in 1928 only 166, and in 1929 only 174, although this year the number has increased to 219. Although sixty-four of the present number have served continuously in the capacity of constable for five years or more,—twenty-nine of the men having served for ten years or more, and one man sixty years,—and although six more hold regular city positions,—a very large proportion of the list is composed of comparatively new men with little if any experience, and many of them obviously hoping for city employment only.

In view of the fact that out of the entire 219 a total of sixty-eight failed to appear in person or file sworn answers to the Council written inquiry as to their qualifications, if any, we are inclined to believe that the requirement of a detailed sworn statement has automatically weeded out a substantial number of undesirables.

The committee was also impressed by the fact that serious complaints in general were this year far less numerous than usual and it is therefore reasonable to believe that the adopted custom of an annual check-up during each of the past four years has resulted first in a general reduction of the number of persistent offenders, and second has resulted in more consistently careful conduct on the part of those remaining constables who expect to continue an uninterrupted career.

In view of the earnest endeavor on the part of your committee to prove of some real value, the committee fully relies on the support of the Council membership. Names on either list not reported today for confirmation include the names of those not yet interviewed by the committee, the names of those from whom no reply has been received, the names of men of no experience or of doubtful qualifications, and finally the names of such men as should be heard further with reference to complaints made.

The committee noted numerous instances where the address given on sworn answers to the City Council questionnaire failed to agree with the address available in the office of the City Clerk as late as April 13. The correct address of every constable of the City of Boston should, of course, be constantly on file in the office of the City Clerk and any failure on the part of a duly appointed bonded constable to promptly advise the City Clerk of any change of address should be ground for severe criticism and appropriate action.

Your committee recommends that it be not discharged at this time but that it may be permitted further in behalf of the Council to consider names not reported for confirmation at this time as well as such other and further constable appointments as may be made during the balance of the year subject to confirmation by the Council.

The committee respectfully recommends confirmation of the thirty names on List 1 and the 119 names on List 2 underlined in the copy of City Document 47 of 1930 attached hereto. In short, confirmation is recommended at this time for thirty out of fifty-three appointees to serve without bond and for 119 out of 219 appointees for service of civil process upon filing bonds.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT GARDINER WILSON, JR.,
Chairman.

MICHAEL J. MAHONEY,
CLEMENT A. NORTON,
JOHN I. FITZGERALD,
TIMOTHY F. DONOVAN, Committee.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President and members of the Council, I would like to state in addition, in reference to this report, that it is the desire of this committee to continue its work in this matter, and in doing so to be of some help to the City of Boston. We have tried, and shall continue to try, to weed out the undesirable constables in this city, of which there are many. Neither the chairman nor any other member of the committee holds any brief for or against any of the individuals in the list of constables, personally. A number of these men serve writs and are identified in various ways with our own wards, that applying also to the ward I represent. We have played no favorites. The reason why a man's name is not included in the list of today simply means that it is not reported this week. It may be reported among the names of next week. We have not finished our work. We had an extended hearing last week and went as far as we could, but were not able to go into all the detail that we expect to go into or pick out all the names that we think should be favorably acted upon, because we have not had sufficient time; and the reason why many names were not selected for favorable action at this time is because in many cases the men, who were invited to appear before us, did not come or did not send a response to the notice that they received. Our examination is to be continued, however, and the men are to be given every proper opportunity. So the fact that a particular name does not appear here today does not mean at all that it is to be ultimately held up. Perhaps it might be well for me to read the names on the list which we at the present meeting report favorably upon. First, on pages 2 and 3, we have constables connected with official positions and who serve without bonds, as follows: John A. Anderson, Philip J. Brennan, William W. K. Campbell, John D. Carmody, John M. Casey, John B. Cassidy, Martin J. Cavanagh, John F. Coffey, Frederick A. Cronin, Andrew B. DeCourcy, James J. Dolan, Joseph W. Ferris, Joseph Fucillo, John Graumann, Joseph W. Hobbs, William A. Kelley, Lawrence J. Kelly, Edward J. Leary, Patrick J. Monahan, Emory D. Morgan, Timothy F. Regan, Edward M. Richardson, Frank B. Skelton, Thomas H. Staples, John J. Sullivan, Rudolph F. Watson, Julian Codman, Frederick O. Houghton, Archibald C. McDonald, Frank J. Sullivan and Harry L. Allen. Then, on the longer list, constables authorized to serve civil process upon filing bonds—John J. Bavis, David Belson, Aleck Berg, Carl Birger, Berg, Jacob Bergson, George W. Bloomberg, George A. Borofski, John H. Brady, Thomas F. Brett, Charles B. Broad, George W. Brooker, Warren A. Brown, Louis Budd, Henry P. Burns, Sherman H. Calderwood, James A. Canton, Daniel B. Carmody, Thomas C. Carr, Matthew W. Chait, William K. Coun. DONOVAN—Mr. President, may I ask the chairman of the committee just one question? Did I understand him to read the name of Thomas C. Carr, near the bottom of page 4, and of Edmund C. Grady, at the top of page 6?

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I am very glad to answer that question. As I stated before, we have not reported at this time on the names of those who did not present themselves or who did not report back to us at our meeting. There are some such against whom there is no legitimate ground of criticism, and whose names will be considered later, as well as some against whom there are complaints, and rather serious complaints. But this list is not at all conclusive. We intend to act and to report further. However, I shall be glad to answer the councilor as to some particular name, except it be a case where it might not be pleasant to the applicant to do so. What are the names you refer to?

Coun. DONOVAN—These are constables attached to the East Boston Court—Mr. Carr and Mr. Grady, and they were not able to be present at the meeting because of the fact that the court was in session.

Coun. WILSON—We have reported Thomas C. Carr, on page 4. I would say, however, that there are two Gradys, and that there was some question of a complaint against one or the other of the Gradys. It probably was not the court officer, but the initials were not furnished to the committee.

The report was accepted, and the question came on confirmation of the constables whose names were read above by Coun. Wilson.

Committee, Coun. Hein and Gleason. Whole number of ballots, 17; yeas 17, and the appointments were confirmed.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. MAHONEY, for the Executive Committee, submitted reports, as follows:

1. Report on order (referred today) for acceptance of chapter 152 concerning assistant clerk in Dorchester Court—that same ought to pass.
Report accepted; said order passed.

2. Report on petitions (referred today) for children under fifteen years of age to appear at places of public amusement, viz.:
John I. Fitzgerald, Blackstone School Hall, April 28, 29, 1930.

Ramona Hawkins, Brown Hall, May 26, 1930, that leave be granted, under usual conditions.
Report accepted, leave granted under usual conditions.

STANDEES IN BUSES.

Coun. MAHONEY, for the Executive Committee, submitted a report on the ordinance (referred March 31) relative to passengers on jitneys—recommending reference to the Committee on Ordinances.

The report of the committee was accepted, and the ordinance was recommitted to the Committee on Ordinances.

Coun. MAHONEY—Mr. President, I might say, as chairman of the Executive Committee, that I would like to ask a recess of five minutes so that we may have the report of the Committee on Ordinances on this matter and be able to take some action on it today.

The Council voted at 5.07 p. m., on motion of Coun. MAHONEY, to take a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order at 5.21 p. m.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORDINANCES.

Coun. GREEN, for the Committee on Ordinances, submitted the following:

1. Report on message of Mayor and order concerning passengers on jitneys (recommitted today)—that the order ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and the question came on the passage of the ordinance.

Coun. KELLY—Mr. President, three weeks ago the representatives of the Carmen's Union were extended the privilege of talking before our honorable body on this particular question. At that time they told us that they were firmly against and that the employees of the Elevated were firmly against standees in the Boston Elevated buses. Today they came before our committee and changed their story, telling us that they are in favor of standees. I wonder why this rapid change of mind? They further stated, under examination by myself, that at the meeting at which they changed their minds, the meeting after the first meeting, there were 350 employees present out of a total of 6,600 employees, and that 312 of the 350 voted in favor of standees—in other words, 312 for and 38 against. But 350 members out of 6,600 were present at that meeting. I have sounded out the opinion of many car riders in my ward, and I find it three to one against allowing standees. Further, I have sounded out the feeling among employees of the Elevated in my district, and I find it ten to one against standees. Now, gentlemen, the Elevated has agreed, according to the representatives of the Carmen's Union, not to lay off any of the men if standees are allowed. We all know that if standees are allowed in the Boston Elevated buses men are going to be laid off. I asked, in the committee room, the legal adviser of the trustees, Mr. Mulcahy, if he did not think it was illegal to make an agreement of that kind, that they would not lay off men employed on the Boston Elevated if this ordinance was passed. He dodged the issue. Now, I am informed, that any agreement to employ a man is illegal and cannot be enforced by law; and yet these men, representing 350 out of 6,600, are coming here today and changing their minds, for reasons best known to themselves, and voting that people of my district and other districts be compelled to stand, instead of being given a seat for 10 cents. I am firmly against it, and I want the body, when it is recorded, to have these facts in mind.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, there has been a good deal said about what the attitude of the Boston Elevated Carmen's Union is, one way or the other. With all due respect to the organization, I am not primarily interested in what their vote may have been three weeks ago and what it is today, or what it will be next week, if they have another chance to vote. The thing that determines my position in the matter is the attitude of the car riders of the district I represent. On March 10 the Committee on Ordinances reported back "Ought to pass" on this ordinance. I appreciate very much the attitude of the chairman of the Committee on Ordinances in allowing the matter to go to the Executive Committee to give me an opportunity to follow the custom I have usually followed in matters of this kind of endeavoring to find out the attitude of the people in my ward who are affected by this particular measure. The sentiment of the people I represent is what governs me. Taking advantage of the time given me, I sent out 3,000 postcards, one to each voting family in the district that would be affected by the bus lines, taken from the voting list, reading as follows:

"Three years ago, as your city councillor, I voted against the passage of an ordinance proposed by the Boston Elevated Railway, to permit jitney buses to carry standees. I felt that it was unsafe to allow passengers to stand with heads a few inches from the roof, on rough surface streets, and that majority sentiment in Dorchester favored even delay in preference to a trip standing up.

"The Elevated has now reintroduced the ordinance, claiming first that the newer and larger buses will safely permit 20 per cent of the passengers to stand; and second that the great majority of car riders in rush hours prefer standing in a bus to standing in the rain waiting for a bus. A Council Committee reported 'ought to pass,' but at my request the question was tabled until I could find out, for myself, the sentiment of Ward 17 car riders.

"There is no possibility of additional buses, or much improved service, for some time to come. Therefore the present issue is whether, with the present service, you favor allowing buses to stop and take on additional passengers after all seats are occupied.

"Do YOU favor allowing a limited number of standee bus passengers?"

"If you want me to know YOUR preference, write 'yes' or 'no' on an ordinary postcard, sign your name and address, and mail the card at once to:

CITY COUNCILLOR ROBERT GARDINER WILSON, JR.
44 Kenwood Street, Dorchester, Mass."

I regret to state that, although 3,000 of those cards were sent out at my expense,—for the cards, the printing and addressing, the people of the district—like the people of every district, were so disinterested that 94 per cent made no reply whatsoever. I did receive replies from approximately 6 per cent, and, for the benefit of other members of the Council who may have similar situations in their own wards, I would say that, taking the responses, 108 families were against the proposed change in the ordinance, and 47 in favor. Many of the cards had more than one name, so that the votes read, 141 opposed and 65 in favor. In other words, although I received only 6 per cent of replies, I did get a cross section of the sentiment of the ward which apparently was somewhere near two to one against the change in the ordinance. I will admit, in order to be fair, that in many instances I received cards from adjoining houses, some voting for and some against on the same question, and in one case I received a card from one member of the family voting one way and two members voting against. But at least I received a cross section of the sentiment of the community, which, of course, will govern me in my vote on this particular matter. The responses I received were two to one against the proposed change, although the bus lines in my district do not have a long run. I am not at all governed in my vote today by any desire of the Elevated Trustees or by the wishes of the Elevated Union factions for or against. As I have said, the thing that will influence my attitude on the question is simply the feeling of the people of my district who ride in the cars and pay the price.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, from the very first my position on this matter has been, as it will be today, that, due to the effect such an ordinance would have on elimination of labor, I am against it. When the Boston Elevated Road in 1918 asked for permission to run the first single man operated car, with one motorman and no conductor from Spring and Centre streets, West Roxbury, to Grove street, it was said that that car was merely an experiment. In the decade that has transpired we have found that it was not merely an experiment, but represented an important change in the methods of operation of the road, with the result that today 90 per cent or more of the Elevated cars in Boston are run by one man. The labor situation today is an acute one. There are some who have studied the situation who believe that we will within the next few months work out of the present unemployment condition. But I want, for purposes of the record, to make this prediction, that for a long time we will have a period of depression in the matter of unemployment. For the last fifteen years we have advanced farther in the matter of machine operation, in manufacturing and otherwise, along technical lines, than in all the world's previous history; with the result that anywhere today, where you will show me 100 men working, I will show you efforts being made along the lines of invention to eliminate that labor. We have 45,000,000 people in America who are wage earners, people who must earn a living. Because of new problems that have arisen since the War, because of the injection of women into industries to an extent never before known in the world's history, taking the place of men, a new situation has arisen. We have also the moving picture theaters going all over America every night, almost entirely run by machinery, with the result that we have 40,000 musicians thrown out of work. That is only one instance of many. It is a machine age, with a continually increasing tendency toward eliminating the individual. On our western prairies and on farms all over this country machinery has been introduced to such an extent that, while larger crops are produced, many less men are employed in producing them than were employed ten years ago. It is so all along the line, and there is our fundamental difficulty today. The result is that you have 45,000,000 people who must obtain jobs in order to make a living, and yet the machinery that is being employed has greatly cut down their opportunities to obtain positions. So, from the labor standpoint, that is our problem, that we have machines largely performing work that in the past history of the world has been done by human man. The result of the activities of this machine age, of course, have resulted in more and more luxury for the people, luxury such as has never been known before, so that comforts are within the reach of the poor, the ordinary man, that were not in reach of the rich formerly. But with that increased comfort and luxury has come this other result of great decrease in opportunities for employment. And so with these great advantages that have come to everyday people from the machine age there has also come this great economic problem,—how are people going to find work? The professors and economists tell us that with the new vistas opened up through the development of new machinery, new methods of employment will also be offered. But in the great transition now going on we do not find that to be the case. Go over here and see the progress under the Tomasello contract on the Strandway. You will find a great steam shovel doing the work of 100 men. In every conceivable mechanical line that is the story. Mr. President, the way things are going, how are men who are out of employment going to get work? I am deeply interested, my friends, in this great unemployment problem. It is the great problem before people today. Senator Wagner of New York has introduced measures in the United States Senate which attempt to deal with this situation. He wants Uncle Sam to set aside sums for public works which may be spent in times of stress crises of unemployment, along similar lines to those that have been adopted in some of the European countries, and is attempting to deal with this menace in a scientific way. We have never known in America, Mr. President, how many men were out of work at any time. We find out how many sheep and cows there are, and how many quarts of milk are produced each day, how many eggs are laid, all that sort of thing, but we have never found out how many people were out of work. Our census figures are now being taken, but they do not include that question. At the time when the figures were being started here in Boston, through the Police Department, I asked and succeeded in having that question included, so far as Boston was concerned, for the first time in history. And so, on April 1, for the first time, in the City of Boston, we found out how many, male and female, in all the families of Boston were out of work. The results showed that over 40,000 people here admitted that they were out of work. Based on those figures, I feel sure that there are 100,000 out of work in Boston, because, in the case of the average man, when a policeman comes along and finds that John Jones is in a house and says, "John Jones,—working?" John Jones has a certain sense of pride. He does not like to tell the policeman he is out of work. And so, as I say, instead of there being 40,000 out of work in the City of Boston, I am personally satisfied that there are 100,000 out of work. Mr. President, there are many millions out of work all over this country today, and the situation is going to grow increasingly serious, instead of better, as time goes on. My colleagues in this body know it. You don't need to be told that there is an unemployment crisis. You see the situation in all of your wards, and it is a situation that is countrywide. And it is brought about by the very machinery which, as I say, has brought many blessings, but which has also rendered the employment of a large part of our population unnecessary. I venture to say that we must soon have the five-day week, as well as old-age pensions. Those things have got to come, in order that we may find a way out for our people. And this question that we have here before us today, Mr. President, has a very vital bearing on this same matter. By allowing standees in the buses it means, and must mean, eventually taking off a certain number of men. It can only mean the elimination of labor. That, Mr. President, is the great fundamental question before all our labor organizations and before all our people, today.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, I would like to ask the councillor from Hyde Park a question. Before the Executive Committee, wasn't that same question asked of the representatives of the Boston Elevated, the representatives of the trustees, where the passing of this ordinance would curtail expense and mean the discharge of employees, and didn't the two representatives of the trustees who were present say "No" in answer to the question? I believe Councillor Mahoney put the question to the representatives of the trustees.

President LYNCH—The councillor is out of order. Councillor Norton has the floor.

Coun. NORTON—Well, in answer to my colleague from Charlestown, Mr. President, I find by referring to the records ten years ago, when the question of operating single-man cars out in West Roxbury was up, running to Grove street, that the officials of the Boston Elevated road in that particular case stated that it would not eliminate labor. But we all know that that has not been the result. The same statement was made by the representatives of the telephone company when the question of automatic switching was up, that it would not eliminate the telephone girls. But we all know that these statements, and other such statements, have been proven untrue. There has been more labor eliminated in the past ten years in these and other such ways than in any other decade in the world's history. And so we too have this unemployment problem confronting us, all along the line, and this is simply one manifestation of it. Of course, I suppose we would hardly expect representatives of the Elevated road to admit that this sort of thing will eliminate help. But it does, the same as all these devices which have that result. And so I am against this ordinance, because it means eventually laying off men at a time when we are confronted by this acute unemployment situation, which the best minds in this and other communities all over the United States will be called upon to help solve.

Coun. COX—Mr. President, my experience in the matter of testing out the wishes of the people of my district has been somewhat similar to that of Councillor Wilson with his constituents; only in my case I furnished the actual bus riders with an addressed postal card upon which they had to simply vote "yes" or "no," and put it in the mail. As a result, I obtained a response about 4 per cent higher than that of Councillor Wilson, or 10 per cent. I stood in Monument square, Jamaica Plain, and as the buses unloaded I passed out these postal cards, and then as passengers got on the buses I passed out the cards. The return on those postals was about ninety-four. About fifty-five were in favor of it and the balance against. But where people are already standing in the buses, what are you voting on? The real question is not, whether or not we will continue to stand in them, but the question is, whether or not men will be laid off. I was interested when the councilor from Hyde Park brought up the Spring street-Grove street line single-man car question. I have lived in that section for twenty years and am more or less familiar with the transportation service that we have in West Roxbury. I recall very definitely that when they were running a line of cars over Spring and Grove streets to Washington street we had two cars where today we have one bus, and that bus runs every half hour. When you put it up to them and say there should be more buses, they reply, "We can't put on another bus, because it will not pay." Well, it doesn't pay because if people have to wait half an hour to ride in one, they will walk that mile in less than the half hour. There is also another element that has not been brought into this question at all, and that is that it does not alone concern the people served by the buses, but the people driving automobiles and who are forced to drive behind these buses. There is also the type of buses to be considered. In my section they are unfit to carry standees. Therefore, I shall vote against this ordinance, but would make an amendment that they may carry standees only in the buses that are used for metropolitan service.

On motion of Coun. Mahoney the main question was ordered, and the ordinance was declared rejected. Coun. Arnold doubted the vote and asked for a standing vote.

The Council divided, and the ordinance was declared passed, 10 to 8.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, in view of the fact that Councilor Dowd is not present today, and that Councilor Murray is not now in attendance at the meeting, I would move a reconsideration of the vote on the ordinance.

Reconsideration was declared carried.

Coun. ARNOLD—Mr. President, I doubt the vote and ask for a rising vote.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I would ask for a roll call on that.

The motion to reconsider prevailed, yeas 15, nays 5.

Yeas—Coun. Bush, Cox, Donovan, Englert, Fish, Fitzgerald, Green, Kelly, Lynch, Mahoney, McGrath, Norton, Power, Ruby, Wilson—15.

Nays—Coun. Arnold, Curtis, Gallagher, Gleason, Hein—5.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I move assignment to the next meeting.

The matter was assigned to the next meeting.

CONFIRMATION OF EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.

President LYNCH called up under unfinished business No. 1 on the calendar, viz.:

1. Action on appointment submitted by the Mayor April 21, 1930, of Martin G. Donnelly, to be a Weigher of Goods.

The question came on confirmation. Committee, Coun. Gallagher and Arnold. Whole number of ballots 16; yeas 16, and the appointments were confirmed.

COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

Coun. FITZGERALD for the Committee on County Accounts, submitted the following:

1. Report on communication from Chief Justice of Municipal Court relating to expenditures for clerical service—recommending passage of accompanying order, viz.:

Ordered, That until otherwise ordered the sum of $33,400 per annum be allowed for clerical assistance in the office of the Clerk of the Municipal Court for Civil Business, and the said clerk is hereby authorized to expend annually the said sum for said purpose.

Report accepted; order passed.

A QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

President LYNCH—Coun. Green asks unanimous consent to make a statement. Proceed, councilor.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President and members of the honorable body of which I have the proud pleasure of being a member, I know you are pretty tired this afternoon after sitting here almost four hours, and I am not going to wear you out with any lengthy remarks. Mr. President, on my return from New York on a business trip, I picked up a copy of one of the daily papers here in which I was quoted as having made derogatory statements about the Spanish War Veterans, the veterans of the World War and the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic. I should not, of course, Mr. President, dignify who released that story to the press by a reply; but I would merely like to say on the floor of this honorable body that at no time did I ever make the statements with which I was charged in that paper. I met at my home a committee interested in the candidacy of a gentleman for chief marshal of the 17th of June parade, and when that committee left my house they shook my hand and said I had been very fair. All I am asking to be given the same space in the newspapers tomorrow for my statement that was given to the statement against me. That statement merely meant that peanut politics were being played at the expense of the councilor from the district by a crowd of political parasites. The polls are never closed in Charlestown; they fight 365 days in the year, and I am simply the victim of another unjust attack by those men. But we have a little graveyard of our own over there in Charlestown. Mr. President, where a new grave is opened every year and we deposit what remains of just the type of man who issued that statement. I know how the veterans feel towards me, because they know that my every vote and my voice and endeavor at all times have been in behalf of the veterans, since I have been holding public office. I have had to conduct bitter and hard political fights, Mr. President, but never at any time in the hardest political fights I have ever had, have I said one word, publicly or privately, against a veteran of the World War, of the Spanish-American War, or of the Grand Army of the Republic.

ANNUITY TO WIDOW OF EDWARD Q. BUTTERS.

Coun. COX offered the following:

Ordered, That an annuity of $600 be allowed and paid to the widow of Serg. Edward Q. Butters, late member of the Police Department, who died from injuries received in the performance of his duty, such annuity to continue so long as said widow remains unmarried, and to be charged to the appropriation for Police Department, Pensions and Annuities.

Referred to Executive Committee.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to ask his Excellency the Governor to order out the entire National Guard to participate in the parade in Charlestown on June 17.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to ask the Secretary of the Navy direct, and also through the Senators and Representatives from Massachusetts, to order the Atlantic Fleet to Boston Harbor for June 17, its personnel to participate in the parade in Charlestown on that date; to direct the participation in said parade of the Naval Cadets from the Annapolis Naval Academy, and of a representation of the Air Forces of the United States Navy; and to direct that the Naval dirigible "Los Angeles" take part in the celebration of June 17.

Orders severally passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK CONSTRUCTION.

Coun. ENGLERT offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Forest Hills street, from No. 285 to No. 317, Ward 11, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Coun. KELLY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Dahlgren street, both sides, from Westville street to Corona street, Ward 15, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Severally passed under suspension of the rule.

REINSTATEMENT OF JOSEPH V. CUMMINGS.

Coun. GLEASON offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston favors the enactment of legislation authorizing the reinstatement of Joseph V. Cummings as permanent laborer in the Public Works Department of the City of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

IMPROVEMENTS AT TENEAN BEACH.

Coun. FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the sum of $30,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commission for the purchase of additional shore property to sufficiently enlarge the bathing area at Tenean Beach, and for the necessary grading, sanding, etc., and that to meet such expense the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, at the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Adjourned, at 5.53 on motion of Coun. CURTIS, to meet on Monday, May 5, at 2 p. m.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY COLONY.

The first chartered colony in New England, charter granted by Charles I on March 4, 1629. About a year before, a patent had been granted to six prominent men of Dorchester, west of England, among whom was Capt. John Endicott. He sailed in June, 1628, with a party of fifty or sixty persons, arriving in September and settling at Naumkeag, afterward named Salem. In the spring of 1629, the Bay Company fitted out three ships conveying about four hundred persons and arriving at Salem in June. Endicott sent a small party to effect a settlement on the Bay in Mishawum, afterward named by the settlers Charlestown, the first town in New England to assume the town polity, Plymouth and Salem being governed by a governor and council. Endicott was appointed in London as the first resident governor on April 30, 1629. The Massachusetts Bay Company was reorganized in London on October 20, 1629, when John Winthrop was chosen as governor. He arrived at Salem on June 12, 1630, soon proceeded to Charlestown with a large following and finding that place unsuitable, finally settled in Boston. Winthrop served thirteen years as governor in four different periods ending in 1649 and Endicott fifteen years at various times ending in 1665. Other governors were Thomas Dudley, Richard Bellingham, John Haynes, Henry Vane, John Leverett and Simon Bradstreet, the latter serving twelve years until 1692 when the Bay Colony and the Plymouth Colony were merged, becoming the Royal Province of Massachusetts Bay, which existed eighty-two years to 1774, the governors being appointed by the King.

The name, Massachusetts, is Indian and signifies "near the big hills."

CONSOLIDATION OF COUNTIES TO REDUCE TAXES.

Just as consolidation of small business under holding or managing companies reduces overhead costs, it is fair to believe that consolidation of small counties into larger units would reduce taxes through eliminating duplicating offices, etc.

New York has a plan for recasting more than 60 counties into 37 units, and Tennessee, after already having merged 2 counties, now plans to merge the 95 counties in the state into 11 new units.

The results of Tennessee's experience in merging Hamilton and James counties in 1919, as portrayed by J. W. Manning of Vanderbilt University, are interesting. He points out that taxes in James County have been reduced one half, paved highways have been increased from two miles to fifty miles, and many manufacturing plants have entered the county because of the reduction in taxes. The results in New York and Tennessee will be watched with interest by the whole country.

ANNUAL APPROPRIATION ORDER ON ACCOUNT

A communication was received from the Business Manager, under date of April 21, 1930, calling attention to the fact that under the provisions of Chapter 320 of the Acts of 1889, the School Committee, pending the adoption of the budget for the year and the passing of the appropriation orders connected therewith, may make expenditures which shall not be in excess of one-third of the total expenditures for the financial year immediately preceding.

In view of the fact that the budget and itemized appropriation orders for the current financial year are now under consideration and will not be passed until some future date, it is advisable to put through an appropriation on account to provide for expenditures already made on the January 31st, February 28th and March 31st drafts and those that will be made on April 30th and May 31st drafts.

The Business Manager therefore recommends the passage of the accompanying order making appropriations on account of all items of maintenance, with the exception of the item, "Alteration and repair of school buildings, and for furniture, fixtures, and means of escape in case of fire, and for fire protection for existing buildings, and for improving existing school yards."

LIMITATION OF SHOP INSTRUCTION IN INTERMEDIATE SCHOOLS, AND LOCATION OF SHOPS IN NEW HIGH SCHOOLS

The Chairman asked that the following statement be read into the records:

One of the reasons for the appointment of the Survey Committee on March 19, 1928, was the mounting expenditures for the support of the public schools, and the first item in the commission to the Survey Committee was a study of "Intermediate and High School Organization—a study of vocational education with special reference to shop work." Since the receipt of the report of the Survey Committee, the School Committee has been considering the recommendations submitted, one by one, at special conferences held weekly when possible. As a result of this very considerable discussion, the Committee is able to bring in this evening resolutions which include several of the recommendations of the Survey Committee. These resolutions are as follows:

WHEREAS, in the opinion of the School Committee and the Board of Superintendents, trade and shop instruction in the schools serves an educational purpose, nevertheless the School Committee believes that the public feels that instruction along these lines should not be extended further at the present time.

BE IT RESOLVED, therefore, that further extension of shop instruction in all intermediate schools now under construction or hereafter to be constructed, shall be permissive only; that wherever given, instruction shall be limited to the fundamentals of manual training and shall be general, not vocational, in character; that all equipment shall be inexpensive and shall in no instance include complicated or elaborate machinery.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that in all high schools now under construction or hereafter to be constructed, all shops for vocational courses shall be of factory construction and unless placed in the basement, shall be placed in an annex to the main building; the nature of the shop and all equipment shall be subject specifically and in each instance to the approval of the School Committee.

A roll call being ordered, the resolutions were adopted by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Hurley, Lyons, Mrs. Pigeon, and Mr. Reilly—4.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. Gray—1.

In connection with his vote, Mr. Reilly stated that he had intended to make a statement on the subject under discussion, but in view of the fact that the resolutions above set forth represent unanimous agreement on the part of the School Committee, no statement is necessary.

On request from the Chair, the Superintendent made the following statement:

About twenty-five years ago a movement in behalf of vocational and industrial education spread throughout the country, and it was so popular that it has found lodgment in most of the curricula at the present time. This agitation came to Massachusetts shortly thereafter and during the administration of Governor Douglas, a Commission on Industrial Education was established and made a very elaborate report which had its effect upon education in this State and throughout the country.

The Douglas report was a very strong document. Legislation followed the report and resulted in manual training in elementary schools and industrial and vocational training in the high schools. This instruction found its place in Boston about the year 1914 and gradually was introduced into the high schools, and into the intermediate schools as they were established.

There is no doubt in my mind that there is educational value in this work and I believe it has been of value to boys and girls who are not going onward to fields of higher education. I feel, nevertheless, that we have been expanding too rapidly in this direction, and I find myself tonight in full sympathy with the Committee and in agreement with the resolutions which you have introduced. I heartily approve the resolutions and I feel called upon to say that the Board of Superintendents also is in sympathy with your action and in accord with your resolutions.

Chairman: I want to express my appreciation of the cooperative spirit of the Superintendent in connection with the curtailment of trade instruction and the expense connected therewith, and state that we have here the eternal conflict between educational values and the fact that we must accommodate our expenditures to the tax-payer's ability to finance them. I personally appreciate the Superintendent's wholehearted cooperation in this matter, and I hope this will be the first of a series of steps which will eventually curtail the mounting annual school costs.

Dr. Lyons: Mr. Chairman, I would like to have the people of Boston understand that this is the first step in the procedure instituted by the Boston School Committee to correct conditions as we found them. The action tonight is brought about by the report of the Survey Committee which started out on this work two years ago.

We have been going into the situation during the greater part of my time on the School Committee, and our action here tonight is not the result of the present agitation on the part of the Chairman of the Finance Commission, Mr. Goodwin.

Mr. Goodwin at the present time, or within a short time, has tried to take away from the Boston School Committee its initiative in this matter. I want it clearly understood by the people of Boston that the Committee's action this evening is the result of very careful study of the school situation by the Survey Committee, which committee was created by the Boston School Committee, and this creation is the first instance of its kind in the history of the city.

A SQUARE DEAL IN ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXATION.

Many cities are finding it greatly to their advantage to have their tax valuations periodically overhauled. The first criterion of any assessment is equity. For every citizen who wants through "pull" or however else to get off easy, there are twenty, nay a hundred, who want a fair and square deal for all.

The appraisal of city real estate is a highly technical affair.

Few things are more important than the equalization of assessments. Particularly in cities that are cramped by an inflexible debt or tax limit, an honest, full value assessment may be a great boon. Without the slightest raise in the tax rate a substantially greater tax yield may be had.

CONSTRUCTION OF PORTABLE BAND-STANDS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 5, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Joseph A. Rourke, Commissioner of Public Works, regarding the construction of portable bandstands to take care of the city requirements. This is in reply to your order of April 21, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department, April 30, 1930.
To His Honor the Mayor:

In reply to attached order in Council, that the Public Works Commissioner purchase or have constructed an adequate number of portable bandstands to take care of city requirements. We find that the Park Department has a number of these portable bandstands at present, and they cost when constructed some years ago about $1,400 each. At this price the total cost for the number probably required could not be found in the budget item this year.

Incidentally, I think the band concerts in general are conducted under the direction of the Park Department and the money furnished in their appropriation, and I am sure that I have never seen an item for music in the Public Works Department budget up to date, and although perfectly willing to construct any number of these stands if the money is made available, I respectfully suggest that the Park Department is the proper service through which these stands should be provided.

Yours very truly,
JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Placed on file.

OFFICIAL THOROUGHFARE PLAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 5, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Chapter 168 of the Acts of 1930 provides for the establishing of an official thoroughfare plan by the City of Boston, upon the recommendations of the City Planning Board, the Board of Street Commissioners, and the Board of Park Commissioners. The hit or miss method of making street widenings and extensions by piece-meal, made necessary by changes in administration and divergent opinions, should no longer be tolerated and the passage of this act affords an opportunity to make a beginning on a comprehensive plan, to take care of the present and future needs of the city for street and traffic improvements. I recommend the passage of the accompanying order for the acceptance of the act.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That chapter 168 of the Act of 1930, entitled "An Act Authorizing the City of Boston to Establish and Maintain an Official Thoroughfare Plan," be and the same hereby is accepted.
Referred to the Executive Committee.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS PLAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 5, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Frederic H. Fay, chairman of the City Planning Board, relative to the report of the board on a comprehensive plan of street improvements.

This is in reply to your order of April 21, 1930.
Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

City Planning Board,
Boston, April 29, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—The City Planning Board is in receipt of copy of order passed by the City Council at its meeting April 21, 1930, i. e.:

Ordered, That the City Planning Board, through his Honor the Mayor, be and said board hereby is, respectfully requested to furnish the City Council with copies of the proposed Report of the City Planning Board with reference to a comprehensive plan of street improvements.

The comprehensive plan of street improvements referred to is now in the hands of the printer and has reached page-proof form. Most of the cuts are finished with the exception of one large colored map in the form of an insert. With the completion of this colored map and the final printing and binding the report will be ready for distribution and copies will be placed in the hands of the members of the City Council at the earliest possible moment.

The report is the result of three years of careful investigation and is based upon an unusually complete traffic analysis and forecast of future growth and requirements. It will be accompanied by a definite construction program and also a financial plan.

It is the hope of the City Planning Board that this present plan, after being submitted to further examination and criticism by public and private interests, may serve as the basis of the Official Thoroughfare Plan to be prepared under the provisions of chapter 168 of the Acts of 1930.

Respectfully submitted,
FREDERIC H. FAY, Chairman.

Placed on file.

ADDITIONAL DEPUTY SEALERS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 5, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith an ordinance which increases the number of deputy sealers of weights and measures from twelve to fourteen. The reasons for the increase are set forth in the appended communication from the sealer. The work of the department is of vital importance for the protection of our citizens against unscrupulous merchants and I accordingly recommend the early passage of the ordinance.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Appended was the following from the Sealer of Weights and Measures:
May 2, 1930.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I respectfully request that an addition be made to the force of deputy sealers, owing to the urgent demand made upon us for service owing to ever-increasing legislation. I feel that in order to keep abreast with these demands that at least two more men should be added to present force as soon as possible.

Annually in the reports of the department for the past several years I have called attention to the necessity of increasing the number of deputy sealers. The eleven deputy sealers now working cannot perform the work which under existing law is demanded of them.

The attention of your Honor is called to the fact that within the past thirty-four years only two have been added to the force of deputy sealers. Within that period the population of the city has increased 282,700, that is, from 496,920 to 779,620, according to the latest state census. The cities and towns of the metropolitan area have also increased in the same proportion and as many of the residents of these surrounding cities and towns do a large part of their purchasing in Boston, this department has practically the supervision over the weighing and measuring devices of commercial and industrial enterprises that cater to a population of approximately 1,800,000 persons.

Therefore, based upon the aforesaid increase in population and the necessarily increased use of measuring devices and the incidental inspectional work, I sincerely trust that your Honor will consider favorably the request for these additional two deputy sealers of weights and measures.

Respectfully yours,
JAMES A. SWEENEY, Sealer.

An Ordinance Concerning the Weights and Measures Department.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Chapter 37 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 is hereby amended by striking out section one and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 1. The weights and measures department shall be under the charge of the sealer of weights and measures. There shall be a chief deputy sealer and thirteen other deputy sealers. The salaries paid to the sealer and to the deputies shall be in full compensation for their services.

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

Teachers' Parent Association, for children to appear at Germania Hall on May 5, 1930.

Reports accepted, licenses granted on the usual conditions.

2. Report on order (submitted by the Mayor and referred today) that chapter 168 of the Acts of 1930, entitled "An Act authorizing the City of Boston to establish and maintain an official thoroughfare plan," be, and the same is, hereby accepted—recommending passage of said order.

Report accepted, said order passed.

3. Report on the petition (referred today) of Gertrude F. Dreyer for an annuity on account of the death of Franklin B. Dreyer, late of the Police Department,—recommending the passage of the following:

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 182 of the Acts of 1930, as amended by chapter 241 of the Acts of 1930, an annuity of sixteen hundred dollars be allowed and paid to Gertrude F. Dreyer, widow of Franklin B. Dreyer, otherwise known as Franklin B. Dwyer, a member of the Police Department, who was killed in the performance of his duty on April 24, 1930; said annuity being made up of allowances as follows:

For the widow, Gertrude F. Dreyer, so long as she remains unmarried, $1,000 per annum.

For each of the following named children, during such time as he or she is under the age of eighteen or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning, $200 per annum:

Marion B. Dreyer, born January 3, 1926.

Franklin B. Dreyer, born September 19, 1928.

Paul L. Dreyer, born February 27, 1930.

the payments to date from April 25, 1930, and to be charged to the appropriation for Police Department, Pensions and Annuities.

Report accepted, order passed under suspension of the rule.

4. Report on order (referred April 14) that an annuity of $600 be allowed and paid to the widow of Frank H. Laskey, late member of the Boston Fire Department, who died from injuries received in the performance of his duty—that said order ought to pass.

Report accepted, said order passed.

LOAN FOR CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL PAVILION.

Coun. DONOVAN, for the Committee on Finance, submitted a report on the orders (referred April 7) for a loan of $248,000 to be expended under the direction of the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital for children's pavilion, that the orders ought to pass.

Report accepted, and the question came on the passage of the orders.

Coun. DONOVAN — Mr. President, I might say that this additional loan permits the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital to construct an eight-story building, where they formerly had a four-story building under construction, and permits the doctors there to segregate children's diseases, so that they will not have to fumigate the whole ward. The trustees consider this a much-needed improvement, along lines fostered by Doctor English, in charge of the hospital.

The order was passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

LEASE OF OLD STATE HOUSE.

Coun. McGRATH, for the Committee on Public Lands, submitted a report on the order (transmitted by the Mayor and referred April 28) for a lease to the Bostonian Society of the Old State House for a term of twenty years at an annual rental of $100—that the order ought to pass.

Report accepted, said order passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

SIDEWALK FOR FORD STREET, WARD 1.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along 4-8 Ford street, Ward 1, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONFIRMATION OF EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.

President LYNCH called up under unfinished business No. 1 on the calendar, viz:

1. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor April 28, 1930, of Thomas J. O'Connor, H. D. Ower, and Beecher McLean to be Weighers of Goods.

The question came on confirmation. Committee, Coun. Hein and Fitzgerald. Whole number of ballots, 17, yeas 17, and the appointments were confirmed.

SALE OF LAND, DEXTER STREET.

President LYNCH called up under unfinished business No. 3 on the calendar, viz:

3. Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be, and he hereby is, authorized, in the name and behalf of the City of Boston, to sell at public auction at an upset price of three thousand one hundred fifty dollars all the right, title and interest of the City of Boston in and to a parcel of land situate in Charlestown on the northeasterly side of Dexter street at the corner of said Dexter street and Alford street, containing four thousand eight hundred thirty square feet of land, more or less, and execute and deliver a deed of the said parcel of land to the purchaser of said land in form satisfactory to the Law Department of the City of Boston.

On April 21, 1930, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

The order was given its second and final reading and passage, yeas 20, nays 0.

SIDEWALK ON RIVER STREET.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along River street, both sides, from Austin street to West Glenwood avenue, Ward 18, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK ON RIDGEMONT STREET.

Coun. HEIN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Ridgemont street, both sides, from Gordon street to Eleanor street, Ward 21, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPAVING TEMPLE STREET, WARD 20.

Coun. COX offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave with smooth paving Temple street, from Ivory street to Baker street, Ward 20.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

ADDITIONAL TENNIS COURTS, WARD 20.

Coun. COX offered the following:
Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install four tennis courts on the Sturges road side of Billings Field, Ward 20.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

LOCKER BUILDING, BILLINGS FIELD.

Coun. COX offered the following:
Ordered, That the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commission for the erection of a locker building, and the installation of the necessary equipment, on Billings Field Playground, Ward 20, and that to meet such expense the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, at the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

FIXING UP JEFFERSON SCHOOL PLAYGROUND.

Coun. POWER offered the following:
Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to loam, roll and grade the Jefferson School Playground, Ward 10.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

PLACE FOR SMALL CHILDREN, JEFFERSON SCHOOL PLAYGROUND.

Coun. POWER offered the following:
Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to set aside a section of the Jefferson School Playground for the use of small children.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NEEDS, DORCHESTER.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:
Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be, and he hereby is, respectfully requested to advise the City Council forthwith in detail concerning any increase or increases in fire apparatus, fire equipment, fire stations or men during the past ten years in Wards 16 and 17.

Coun. WILSON — Mr. President, I have introduced that order so that we may obtain information, and I hope that we will get it in the course of the next week or ten days, a complaint having been made by the Dorchester Board of Trade with regard to the situation in the Dorchester district, particularly Wards 16 and 17, from Neponset river over to Blue Hill avenue. The point has been raised by that organization that, despite the immense increase in the number of houses, families and buildings in that district of Dorchester, there is absolutely no improvement in fire protection conditions. That may or may not be true, but it is my hope to ascertain what the situation really is, to find out what increase there has been in fire houses and in fire-fighting facilities in that district, and also to obtain the figures showing the great increase in number of buildings. Having the information, I shall then endeavor to call the attention of his Honor the Mayor to the fact that that section of Dorchester particularly is not at present properly protected against fire, especially when we consider that for fires in town or in other sections the apparatus from that section is moved in. In case of a serious fire downtown the River street and Neponset engine houses are called upon, so that that section out there is practically left without protection.

Coun. RUBY — Mr. President, may I ask the councilor from Ward 17 if he would have any objection to including in that order as an amendment Wards 1, 14 and 15 of the Dorchester section, because I think the Dorchester Board of Trade intimated at the meeting to which the councilor refers that the entire five wards of Dorchester might properly be considered in connection with this. So I think they might well be included in the order.

Coun. WILSON — Mr. President, I have no objection to the amendment proposed to the order by Councilor Ruby, including Wards 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17, taking in all the Dorchester wards. I did not want to attempt to interfere with the other wards not represented by me unless an intimation was made to that effect by some of the other councilors. Wards 16 and 17 were the outlying wards that I had particularly in mind as being seriously affected by the present situation. But I have no objection to the proposed amendment.

Coun. FISH — Mr. President, last year I put in an order raising a question why Engine 20 out in that district should be called upon to respond to second-alarm fires, leaving the district unprotected. So I would certainly like to have this matter looked into and reported upon, to see if it cannot be straightened out in such a way as will keep Engine 20 in Neponset.

The amendment suggested by Councilor Ruby, to include Wards 13, 14 and 15, was adopted, and the order as amended, covering Wards 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 — was passed under suspension of the rule.

REPORT ON CONSTABLES.

Coun. WILSON — Mr. President, I have a business duty to perform at this time, acting for the Committee on Constables, to the extent of presenting further names to the body for confirmation. I might state that a further meeting was held on Friday, and that the duty of the committee has not proved to be necessarily a pleasant one, because there seems to be an attitude on the part of some constables in Boston of not wishing to cooperate with the committee. They seem to require jacking up. While our proceeding is merely of a formal and routine character, they seem to entirely disregard any efforts by us, when we are merely attempting to look into complaints and to hear both sides, to try to clear up the situation. There are certain names, however, on which we desire to report favorably at this time. Assuming that the members of the Council still have some reliance on the committee, and the chairman of the committee, for one, being willing to continue only so long as there is a degree of confidence in him and his committee, we have reported favorably upon certain names of constables connected with official positions and to serve without bonds, and others authorized to serve civil process upon filing bonds. Of the first — those connected with official positions and to serve without bonds — we have reported favorably upon twenty-three names. There were those twenty-three names held up a week ago because the committee had checked up on some constables in the last three or four years and these names had not appeared. But we found upon summoning each of those men that they are now connected with official positions, to serve without bonds; that they had suffered the fortunes of war, unfortunately in the previous administration, not being continued under it, and that now the pendulum has swung again and they are with the right administration once more! The names are as follows: Frederick A. Cronin, Barney C. DeLuca, Charles E. Dowd, John F. Egan, Michael J. Field, Walter D. Flynn, John H. Glennon, Gabriel Grappocio, James V. Hartrey, Dennis J. Hickey, Harris Hirschberg, John T. Kelly, Samuel Koupchik, Frederick K. Lawrence, John J. Linehan, John H. Logue, Henry Loughray, Frederick J. Lundy, Vincenzo Musto, George A. Nelson, Peter Salem, John T. Thornell and James J. Twohig, Jr.

As to the list of constables authorized to serve civil process upon filing bonds, we are having further hearings. We are giving our time in looking into the matter, checking up the various complaints, and so on. The names recommended for confirmation at this time of constables authorized to serve civil process upon filing bonds, are:

Julius Ansel, William J. Baker, Daniel J. Barry, Joseph L. Bennett, Samuel Coulter, Dwight Cummings, Joseph P. Cutter, Louis Davis, Thomas Freedman, Henry A. Gagin, Paul R. Gast, Louis Goldberg, Myer Goldstein, Edmund C. Grady, John S. Grady, Charles E. Hale, John D. Hayes, Abraham M. Hecht, Moses F. Kalish, William H. Kenney, Salvatore Maffei, Isie Martin, Anthony D. McMann, William J. Mitchell, Henry L. Murphy, Patrick H. Murphy, Samuel Semiansky, Michael J. Shields, John F. Welch and Maurice Zeeman.

I will give to the clerk the list, showing twenty-three names of constables holding official positions and to serve without bonds, and thirty to serve civil process upon filing bonds.

Coun. GREEN — Mr. President, I would like to ask the chairman of the Committee on Constables if the name of Martin J. Leggett, on page 7, was omitted?

Coun. WILSON — Mr. President, the name of Martin J. Leggett has not been reported for the following three reasons. In the first place, he was absent from the first meeting of the committee; in the second place, so far as the committee knows, he has not yet made a sworn return; and in the third place, the letter the committee sent him was returned stamped to the effect that he was not living at that address.

Coun. GREEN — Mr. Chairman, I might say for the information of the chairman and the members of the committee that this man has been sick, and that that is the reason why he has not made the necessary return. He is, however, back on the job again, and asked me to notify the chairman of the committee to that effect.

President LYNCH — The question comes on acceptance of the committee's report and confirmation of the names submitted by the chairman of the committee.

The report of the Committee on Constables was accepted, and the question came on confirmation of the names above reported by Councilor Wilson.

Committee, Coun. Cox and Fish. Whole number of ballots, 20, yeas 20, and the appointments were confirmed.

AUTOMATIC TRAFFIC SIGNALS, WARD 19.

Coun. MURRAY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install an automatic traffic signal at the junction of Centre street, the Arborway and May street, Ward 19.

Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install an automatic traffic signal at the junction of Centre and Green streets, Ward 19.

Orders passed under suspension of the rule.

Adjourned at 4.10, on motion of Coun. HEIN, to meet on Monday, May 12, at 2 p. m.

CHICAGO POLICE ALLOW SPEED ON SAFETY BASIS.

Traffic police in Chicago have been ordered to make a "sane application" of the law on speeding, determining the relation of an automobile's speed to the hazards it may create, according to "Chicago Commerce," published by the Association of Commerce of that city.

Such an interpretation of the law is new to Chicago, but is based on the experience of Michigan police and of those in other states where speed limits have been legally removed in favor of the enforcement of cautious driving.

"The Illinois statute," states Police Commissioner William F. Russell, "makes it illegal to drive at a speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic and the use of the way, or so as to endanger the life or limb or injure the property of any person."

"The following types of fast driving are particularly dangerous and must be stopped:

"Cutting in and out of traffic at excessive speed.

"Excessive speed while approaching or passing pedestrians in the street.

"Excessive speed while approaching an intersection where the view of the other street is obstructed.

"Driving at high speed on a boulevard or through street in such a manner as to prevent other drivers from entering or crossing the same after they have made the legal stop.

"Driving at excessive speed while turning a corner where pedestrians are crossing.

"Driving at excessive speed at any time where an accident results, causing injury to any person or property."

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

THE WORST YEAR YET IN DEATHS FROM AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS.

Thirty-one thousand five hundred motor-vehicle deaths in the United States during 1929 is the estimate of the National Safety Council. This is 13 per cent worse than the 1928 record, although motor-vehicle registration increased only 8 per cent during the year. This increase corresponds closely to figures just reported by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, covering automobile accident deaths of its Industrial Department weekly premium policyholders for the last two years. The insurance company's total for this group for the calendar year 1929 is 4,127, as compared with 3,619 in 1928. The comparisons on a basis of policyholders exposed to risk are 21.8 motor-vehicle deaths per 100,000 policyholders in 1929, and 19.7 in 1928.

THE METROPOLITAN DISTRICT.

With its 40 Municipalities.

Consists in the most inclusive sense of forty municipalities, including Boston, or fourteen cities and twenty-six towns, all within fifteen miles of the State House but not yet consolidated in one complete governmental system. The seven cities in the first zone, i. e., adjacent to Boston, are these, viz., Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Newton, Quincy, Revere and Somerville; the six cities in the second zone, not adjacent, are Lynn, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Waltham and Woburn. The six adjacent towns are Brookline, Dedham, Milton, Needham, Watertown and Winthrop; the twenty other towns are Arlington, Belmont, Braintree, Canton, Cohasset, Dover, Hingham, Hull, Lexington, Nahant, Reading, Saugus, Stoneham, Swampscott, Wakefield, Wellesley, Weston, Westwood, Weymouth and Winchester. North and northwest of Boston are situated eleven of the cities and twelve of the towns; south and southwest, two cities and fourteen towns.

LEGAL HOLIDAYS.

As provided by the Revised Laws of Massachusetts, also by chapter 473, Acts of 1910, and chapter 104, General Acts of 1916 (ratified by the electorate on November 7, 1916), legal holidays on which the public offices shall be closed, include January 1, February 22, April 19, May 30, July 4, September (first Monday), October 12, Armistice Day (November 11), Thanksgiving Day (the last Thursday in November) and Christmas Day (December 25).

PUBLIC BUILDINGS SUPERINTENDENT REPLIES TO CRITICISMS OF FINANCE COMMISSION. ADDRESSES COMMUNICATION TO MAYOR CURLEY DEFENDING ADMINISTRATION OF DEPARTMENT. FOLLOWED ROUTINE METHODS INHERITED FROM PREVIOUS HEADS.

Superintendent of Public Buildings John P. Englert has addressed to Mayor Curley a reply to the charges made against his administration of the Department of Public Buildings by the Finance Commission. In the communication he shows that practices against which criticisms were made were inherited from previous incumbents in the office, dating so far before him as to make them almost custom. His communication to Mayor Curley reads as follows:

BOSTON, May 12, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully submit the following report in answer to the report of the Finance Commission relative to the Public Buildings Department, which was received by you today.

Since my original appointment I have attempted at all times to cooperate with all officials of the various departments of the city. The routine methods of handling the clerical routine functions of the department were apparently satisfactory to all parties concerned, and no criticism or complaint was received in regard thereto, and they were continued by me during my administration. The first time this department was apprised of any dissatisfaction with such methods was on last Friday, May 9, when the chief clerk of the department was called before the Finance Commission. The superintendent was not consulted by the commission in regard to any of the matters referred to in the report submitted to you.

CURTIS HALL.

The $605 painting contract was done in the boiler room. This boiler room was badly in need of painting, not having been painted for at least fifteen years, according to the memory of the oldest employee in the building. Checking up of the time and material on this job revealed to my inspector that the contractor would be fortunate if he made both ends meet.

The same contractor performed another job on the building, painting stairways, etc., for the sum of $185. This was done at a time when it would not interfere with the coming and going of the general public.

Another painter did the painting on parts of the gymnasium and the room containing the swimming pool, at a cost of $985. This job was also done at such times as it would not interfere with the proper functioning of the various activities of the building.

It might be possible that painting jobs such as these could be grouped together. But it has been found from past experience, extending for many years prior to my administration, that such work could not be done in any reasonable length of time, except by resorting to overtime work, which would entail considerably more expense. If not done during overtime hours, it would be detrimental and objectionable to the proper functioning of such organizations as the Family Welfare Society, Health Department Nurses, Baby Clinics, Community Health Association, Jamaica Plain Dispensary, the swimming pool and the gymnasium classes and the shower baths.

CITY HALL AND ANNEX.

The first job, in the sum of $590, was done in the Mayor's office. These rooms had not been painted for four years, and, according to custom, this work was done to provide attractive quarters for the incoming Mayor.

In the Soldiers' Relief Department a painting job of $790 was done. The department had previously been separated, with the Public Works laboratory and the Retirement Board located in between. These offices were moved out and the office, when finally assembled, needed painting very badly.

In the Assessing Department a job amounting to $987 was performed. At no other time during the year could this work have been done properly, as it is the only dull season for this department. Coincidentally, it would be a physical impossibility to award all the necessary painting in the City Hall Annex under one contract without closing the entire building for the duration of the work. Each department has its rush season; and painting and repair work must be done whenever the work of the department, without inconveniencing the general public, will permit. It has always been deemed impracticable and inadvisable to attempt to paint the entire building under one contract. The necessity and convenience of the public have been considered first in this matter; and no attempt has ever been made by me or by this department to evade any requirement of any law or ordinance, or any other regulation.

CITY CLERK—FILING OF CONTRACTS.

So far as known, no order or proposal for work under $1,000 was ever filed with the City Clerk during the many years of existence of this department. The oldest

MAYOR CURLEY PROTESTS TO UNITED STATES SENATE IN BATTLE FOR BOSTON'S SUPPLY OF PURE DRINKING WATER—WARNS OF POSSIBLE WATER SHORTAGE—ACCUSES CONNECTICUT OF SELFISHNESS.

Mayor Curley has forwarded the following communication to the Honorable Senate of the United States:

GENTLEMEN,—In behalf of the City of Boston I wish to record a most vigorous opposition to the proposed amendment of the current Rivers and Harbors Act submitted by Senator Walcott forbidding the diversion of water for any purpose from the Connecticut river or its tributaries.

The obvious purpose of this amendment is to prevent the City of Boston from taking an absolutely essential supply of pure drinking water from the Ware river and the Swift river, tributaries of the Connecticut river lying wholly within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The population of Metropolitan Boston is nearly one and one half millions. It is fast outgrowing its present water supply and unless an additional supply is obtained by 1931 from the Ware river, under construction now going forward, the citizens of this community will be faced with a very severe water shortage.

It is my understanding that the appropriate officials of the War Department have passed upon the proposed Boston water supply diversion and that they have found that it will not adversely affect navigation upon the Connecticut river as it now exists. I understand that competent engineers believe that the proposed diversion will have no adverse effect upon any suggested project for the improvement of navigation upon the Connecticut river. In view of the fact that navigation on the river will not be damaged, the attempt by the senator from Connecticut to obtain a congressional prohibition of the diversion can be regarded only as a selfish attempt on the part of the state of Connecticut to prevent the citizens of Boston from having a water supply which is essential to their health and prosperity.

Connecticut has brought a suit in the Supreme Court of the United States in an attempt to enjoin the pending project. That suit has been heard at length before a master appointed by the Supreme Court, who, as yet, has not rendered his decision. Any rights of the state of Connecticut which may be adversely affected by the proposed water supply project can be adequately protected by the highest court of the land. This tardy attempt of Connecticut to obtain action on the subject in dispute in the Supreme Court suit indicates a lack of confidence in the justice of their case which should lead the Congress to be exceedingly slow in legislating upon a matter already the subject of judicial inquiry.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

SUPERINTENDENT ENGLERT'S REPLY

employee in length of service, the chief clerk, with approximately forty-six years of service in the city, was not acquainted with this requirement; and no official in the city and no employee ever brought this requirement to my attention. The present system was inherited from my predecessors and I am informed that it was in vogue by all of the previous superintendents. This requirement was first brought to our attention on last Friday, May 9.

The commission in its report to you quotes section 23 of the charter amendments: "All accounts rendered to or kept in the departments of the city of Boston or county of Suffolk shall be subject to the inspection and revision of the city auditor and shall be rendered and kept in such form as he shall prescribe."

In accordance with the forms prescribed by the auditor, orders for work awarded on proposals have been made out in triplicate, one copy for the contractor, one for the auditor, and one for the files of this department. The auditor did not provide a form for a fourth copy and no one in my department, for many years past, ever knew or assumed that a fourth copy should be sent to any official of the city. These triplicate forms antedated my administration. No intent or attempt was ever made to avoid or evade any law or regulation; and the auditor did not revise these triplicate forms, or require or advise anybody in my department to send a copy to the City Clerk. Immediately upon learning of this requirement, I arranged for such copy of all orders to be sent to the City Clerk. Contracts exceeding $1,000 have always been sent to the City Clerk; but it was never known or assumed that copies of orders on proposals for work must be filed with the City Clerk. The records of the City Clerk's office will show that the same practice in this respect which I have followed has been followed by practically every other official in the municipal service.

AUDITOR'S COPY.

The custom of sending duplicate copies of orders for work to the auditor, together with drafts for the payment of work performed, was in vogue in this department for many years prior to my appointment. As no objection was ever expressed to me, I naturally had no reason to believe that it was not entirely satisfactory to every one concerned. There was never any intention of violating any requirement, and I assumed that the practice, extending back for many years, was entirely satisfactory.

RECORDS BY CUSTODIANS.

Regarding the use of halls, this department receives the application and fee for such use, and notifies the custodians. The custodians have been instructed not to allow the use of a hall unless they have been notified and not until the holder of the permit presents the permit, together with a signed receipt for the use of the hall on that particular date.

To check up on the illegal use of a hall on that particular date, the superintendent, the deputy, the inspectors and the superintendent of janitors frequently call at the buildings, day or night, and request to be shown the permit. It has yet to be called to my attention by any one that a hall in our public buildings has been used illegally.

CHECKING OF TIME AND MATERIALS.

When an order is issued for a job to be performed in a certain building, the inspector in charge of that particular line of work knows of the fact at once. It is then his duty to visit the building daily until the completion of the work and keep a record of the number of men employed and the materials used. When the job is completed and the bill presented, he checks his record against the bill, signs the bills, and then the bill becomes a permanent record. In addition, the superintendent and deputy visit the buildings regularly, consult the custodians, talk with the workmen and generally acquaint themselves with all particulars. Custodians are not required now, and never have been, so far as known, to keep records of work performed by contractors in their buildings. Regarding the question of the inspectors keeping permanent records of work performed, one of the investigators of the Finance Commission suggested that they keep a permanent record for their own benefit and protection and since that time they have done so.

Every order and contract approved by me during my administration had my honest judgment before it was approved, and I believe such orders and contracts were performed efficiently and economically, and for the best interests of the people of Boston, who use and who are entitled to use our public buildings.

In conclusion, I wish to state that I fully appreciate and sincerely welcome any constructive criticism of my department, whether from the Finance Commission or from any other interested party or organization, and I am always ready and willing to cooperate and act upon any such constructive criticism or suggestion that would benefit the department or the general public.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN P. ENGLERT,

Superintendent of Public Buildings.

MAYOR SENDS COPY OF REPLY TO FINANCE COMMISSION.

Mayor Curley, on May 14, sent the following letter to Mr. Frank A. Goodwin, Chairman of the Finance Commission:

DEAR SIR,—I beg to submit report received this day from the Superintendent of Public Buildings in answer to the report of the Finance Commission submitted to me under date of May 9.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

When the report from the Finance Commission was received Mayor Curley replied with the following:

May 12, 1930.

FRANK A. GOODWIN, Esquire, Chairman Boston Finance Commission.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge receipt of report of the Boston Finance Commission with reference to the conduct and activities of the Public Buildings Department. I shall check up the statements as set forth in the report submitted and shall advise you later in the week as to the course which I shall take in connection therewith.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

FINANCE COMMISSION CRITICIZES PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

Mayor Curley, on May 12, received the following communication from Hon. Frank A. Goodwin, Chairman of the Finance Commission:

SIR,—The Finance Commission has completed a preliminary survey of the Public Buildings Department. When this was started it was intended to be a cooperative effort with Superintendent of Public Buildings Englert to correct certain conditions needing correction on which the Finance Commission had information. As the study progressed, however, such an accumulation of improper practices in the handling of the large amount of the work of the department was found by the commission's investigators that the commission now deems it necessary to report directly to your Honor, so that suitable action may be taken.

The Public Buildings Department has the care and custody of all the municipally owned or operated buildings of the city that are not wholly used by one department. This means nineteen large buildings, eight smaller ones used for wardroom purposes, or as headquarters for semi-public organizations, and an ambulance station. They are known as city buildings. City Hall and City Hall Annex are included in them. The department also has complete or partial responsibility and supervision in the care and custody of the Suffolk County Courthouse, seven district courthouses and the Northern Mortuary, as county buildings. In addition it has a share of the responsibility in maintaining quarters rented to the city and other quarters rented by the city. In the latter class is the Faneuil Hall and Quincy Market, in which the Public Buildings Department authorizes and supervises all repairs.

In the upkeep of these buildings the department has spent since 1927 the following amounts:

	Public Buildings.	County Buildings.	Suffolk County Courthouse.
1927...	$552,897 98	$120,403 49	$79,045 00
1928...	584,360 63	116,186 68	105,956 07
1929...	617,945 61	124,209 53	88,461 54

In the expenditure of this vast sum of money there are certain requirements of law which the Superintendent of Public Buildings has violated, either in the letter, the spirit, or both.

1. Section 30 of chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909 requires contracts amounting to or in excess of one thousand dollars to be advertised, unless specific authority in writing is given by the Mayor to do otherwise. This requirement has been flagrantly violated in the letting out of contracts by the Superintendent of Public Buildings. As an illustration, in the budget for this year for Curtis Hall there are seven items for painting, totaling $3,550. Already so far three contracts have been let for painting in that building to three different persons, one for $185, one for $985, and one for $605. These contracts were let without bidding and no doubt the rest of the items will be let in the same manner, unless you interfere.

MAYOR IS THANKED FOR COOPERATION IN UNEMPLOYMENT SITUATION.

Mayor Curley has received the following communication from M. Kerlin, Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C.:

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Secretary Lamont has asked me to thank you in his behalf for your telegram in regard to the employment situation in your city. Your cooperation was of great assistance to us in the review of national trends made under the direction of President Hoover.

Steady improvement in the employment situation for the country as a whole since the first of the year, and the present general outlook are distinctly encouraging, and we wish to thank you for your aid.

Very truly yours,

M. KERLIN,
Administrative Assistant to the Secretary.

AUTHORITY TO DO WORK.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department for authority to resurface with asphalt macadam Autumn street, Roxbury, from Longwood avenue to Park street, with department forces, without advertising, the estimated cost for labor and material being $1,200.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department for authority to patch and blanket coat Addison street, East Boston, from Saratoga street across Pope street, with department forces, without advertising, the estimated cost for labor and material being $1,500.

The Mayor has approved the request of the Public Works Department for authority to resurface with asphalt macadam Metropolitan avenue, Hyde Park, from Milton line to Highland street, with department forces, without advertising, the estimated cost for labor and material being $1,500.

MAYOR MOVES TO IMPROVE COPLEY SQUARE.

Mayor Curley, on May 8, forwarded the following communication to Chairman William P. Long of the Park Department:

MY DEAR MR. LONG,—Under date of April 25, I addressed a communication to the late J. Harleston Parker, chairman of the Art Commission, requesting him to ask the Boston Society of Architects to conduct an architectural competition as to the best method of improving Copley square and as a result I am this day in receipt of the inclosed sketches, blueprints and communication, submitted by the committee on public improvements of the Boston Society of Architects, through Frank A. Bourne and William D. Austin.

After your Board has gone into the matter it would appear to me advisable to have Mr. Shurtleff make up a miniature of the plan as here outlined, to be placed on exhibition at the Parkman Building or the Boston Public Library.

The Metropolitan Transit Commission and the Boston Transit Commission, with the Board of Public Control Elevated Trustees, have agreed that the next public improvement in the way of subway extension will be that of Huntington avenue, and I am in hopes that, regardless of the action that may be taken by the electorate in the fall upon the question of private or public ownership, it will be possible to introduce legislation in 1931 thereby providing for the removal of surface tracks from Boylston street and Huntington avenue.

In the event that this legislation is enacted and, apparently, it will be, for all interests are agreeable, the plan as determined upon by the Boston Society of Architects will be possible of immediate acceptance.

Very truly yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor.

PLEDGES BOSTON'S COOPERATION WITH GERMAN BUSINESS MEN.

Mayor Curley, on May 13, sent the following cablegram to Herr Philipp Heineken, President of the North German Lloyd Line, on board the S.S. "Europa," Pier 4, Army Base, 58th street, Brooklyn, New York:

DEAR HERR HEINEKEN,—Upon your departure for Bremen will you kindly accept my hearty bon voyage message and every good and sincere wish for your happiness and welfare. I can but regard your visit in Boston not only as a splendid harbinger of International good will but also of the greatest importance to the port of Boston by reason of your desire for the increase and betterment of our shipping facilities. It is imperative, as you so kindly suggested during your visit here, that the leaders of Boston's maritime, commercial and industrial interests must know better their brothers in similar lines of pursuit in Germany and I pledge you my word that I will endeavor to aid and facilitate this movement with every means at my command.

Mrs. Curley deeply appreciated your gift of the beautiful roses and sends her message of appreciation and best wishes for a happy voyage.

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, May 12, 1930.

Regular meeting of the City Council in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p. m., President LYNCH presiding. Absent, Coun. Dowd, Gleason and Mahoney.

ACCEPTANCE OF STREET CONSTRUCTION LEGISLATION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith copies of statutes just enacted by the Legislature authorizing expenditures by the City of Boston for (a) sewerage works, (b) widening and construction of Summer and L streets, (c) reconstruction of accepted streets, (d) acceptance and construction of new streets. All four of these acts require acceptance by the City Council and I recommend the passage of the accompanying four orders providing for their acceptance.

In view of the delay in obtaining this legislation and the lateness of the season, I respectfully request that these acceptance orders be adopted under a suspension of the rules. While I hesitate to urge the Council to take hasty action on such important matters, I may point out that the acceptance of the acts in question merely opens the way for the submission of the tax and loan orders necessary to meet the conditions imposed by the Legislature.

If the Council sees fit to adopt the acceptance orders today I shall immediately submit the tax and loan orders for your consideration.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That chapter 264 of the Acts of 1930, entitled, "An Act Relative to the Widening and Construction of Summer and L Streets in the South Boston District of the City of Boston," be, and the same hereby is, accepted.

Ordered, That chapter 304 of the Acts of 1930, entitled, "An Act to Authorize the City of Boston to Borrow Money for the Purpose of Constructing Sanitary and Surface Drainage Sewers," be, and the same hereby is, accepted.

Ordered, That chapter 305 of the Acts of 1930, entitled, "An Act to Authorize the City of Boston to Borrow Money for the Reconstruction of Streets," be, and the same hereby is, accepted.

Ordered, That chapter 306 of the Acts of 1930, entitled, "An Act Authorizing the City of Boston to Borrow Money for the Laying Out and Construction of Streets," be, and the same hereby is, accepted.

The several orders were passed under suspension of the rule.

APPROPRIATION FOR ENTERTAINMENT OF GUESTS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under the provisions of chapter 277 of the Acts of 1930 municipalities are authorized to make expenditures in connection with the holding of conventions and the entertainment of distinguished guests. The maximum expenditure authorized in any one year under this act is $75,000.

In view of the large number of conventions to be held in this city during the current year, together with the many distinguished guests who may be expected to visit the city during the tercentenary celebration, I feel that it will be necessary to appropriate for this year at least the maximum amount authorized by law. I accordingly submit herewith an appropriation order in the sum of $75,000 for the purposes specified in chapter 277 and recommend adoption of this order by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That to meet the current expenses payable during the financial year beginning with the first day of January, 1930, for performing the duties and exercising the powers devolved by statute or ordinance, or by vote of the City Council during the year, upon the City of Boston, or the department or officers thereof, the respective sum of money specified in the table hereinafter set forth be, and the same hereby is, appropriated to be expended for the objects and purposes hereinafter stated, that the same be raised by taxation upon the polls and estates taxable in the City of Boston, and that all orders relating to appropriations, taxes and the interest thereon apply to the taxes herein provided for.

Conventions and Entertainment of Distinguished Guests.....$75,000

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

RESCISSION OF BUNKER HILL STREET LOAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—On February 17, 1930, the City Council adopted a loan order of $100,000 for the resurfacing of Bunker Hill street, which order was approved by me on February 19, 1930. No expenditures have been made as yet under this order. The loan was inside the debt limit and therefore reduced the borrowing capacity of the city by the amount of $100,000. The enactment by the Legislature of the act authorizing the expenditure of $2,000,000 outside the debt limit for reconstruction of streets affords an opportunity to resurface Bunker Hill street with money obtained from that source rather than by loan inside the debt limit.

I accordingly recommend the passage of the accompanying order rescinding the loan of $100,000 for resurfacing Bunker Hill street and assure the Council and the citizens of Charlestown that the street will be resurfaced notwithstanding the rescission of the loan.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the order passed by the City Council February 17, 1930, and approved by the Mayor February 19, 1930, for a loan of $100,000 to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works for the resurfacing of Bunker Hill street, Ward 2, be, and the same hereby is, rescinded.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

VETO OF ANNUITY TO WIDOW OF FRANK H. LASKEY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my approval, the order of your honorable body providing for the payment of an annuity to the widow of Frank H. Laskey, late member of the Fire Department. Mr. Frank H. Laskey collapsed and died suddenly while visiting Deer Island upon a tour of inspection.

The statutes providing for annuities to the widows of firemen and policemen have been passed upon and construed by every Corporation Counsel in the past thirty years. They have successively decided that in order to entitle the widow to an annuity there must have been a physical injury received in the performance of duty, which injury was the direct cause of death. From the medical report in the Laskey case it does not appear that his death comes within the limits of such a definition.

A similar order providing payment of an annuity to the widow of Frank H. Laskey was vetoed by my predecessor, Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols, in consequence of an official opinion of the Law Department.

I sympathize with the families of deceased firemen and policemen when the death results from overwork or exposure but the terms of the statute preclude the city from granting annuities in such cases, and there is no other course open but to disapprove.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

WIDENING OF SUMMER AND L STREETS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under the provisions of chapter 264 of the Acts of 1930, the city is authorized to borrow outside the statutory limit of indebtedness the sum of $1,000,000 for the widening and construction of Summer and L streets in the South Boston district, provided a "sum equal to 10 per cent of the loan so authorized is voted for the same purpose" from taxes. This improvement, affecting as it does a great commercial and industrial section of the city, is one of the most important projects of its kind to be initiated in recent years. In order that there may be no unnecessary delay in the starting of this important work, I submit herewith two orders as required under the statute, one providing for a loan appropriation of $1,000,000, and the other for an appropriation from taxes in the amount of $100,000.

I respectfully recommend adoption of these orders by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 264 of the Acts of 1930 the sum of $1,000,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners for Summer and L Streets, Widening and Construction of, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount, the same to be issued outside the limit of indebtedness.

Referred to Committee on Finance.

Ordered, That the sum of $100,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners for Summer and L Streets, Widening and Construction of, in accordance with chapter 264 of the Acts of 1930, and the amount so appropriated be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

CONSTRUCTION OF SEWERS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Up to the current year the city was limited in its borrowings for the construction of sewers to $1,000,000. In recent years this amount has proved inadequate to provide for the needs of the city in this respect. Under provisions of chapter 304 of the Acts of 1930, the Legislature has authorized the city to borrow, outside the statutory limit of indebtedness, an additional $500,000 for the construction of sanitary and surface drainage sewers. In accordance with the prevailing custom before the city can avail itself of this authorization a sum equal to 10 per cent of the loan so authorized must be provided from taxes. I accordingly submit herewith two orders, one providing for a loan appropriation of $500,000, and the other for an appropriation of $50,000 from taxes.

I respectfully recommend adoption of these orders.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 304 of the Acts of 1930 the sum of $500,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Commissioner of Public Works for Sewerage Works, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount, the same to be issued outside the limit of indebtedness.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Ordered, That the sum of $50,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Commissioner of Public Works for Sewerage Works, in accordance with chapter 304 of the Acts of 1930, and the amount so appropriated be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

RECONSTRUCTION OF STREETS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—After considerable delay the Legislature has authorized the city to borrow outside the statutory limit of indebtedness the sum of $2,000,000 for the reconstruction of streets. The necessity for an appropriation of this character is self-evident and has been emphasized by me ever since my inaugural. As a condition precedent to the authorization of this loan "a sum equal to 50 cents on each $1,000 of valuation upon which taxes are assessed" must be provided from taxes "in the year in which the loan is authorized." The act provides that the sum included in the budget for "reconstructing and repairing streets by contract" shall be taken into consideration in determining the amount to be provided under the act from taxes. On the average valuation of the current year 50 cents will produce approximately $1,000,000; hence, under the provisions of the act, it is necessary to appropriate in addition to the amount already provided in the budget the sum of $750,000. I submit herewith two orders as required by statute, one providing for a loan appropriation of $2,000,000 and the other for an appropriation from taxes in the amount of $750,000.

I respectfully recommend adoption of these orders by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 305 of the Acts of 1930 the sum of $2,000,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Commissioner of Public Works for Reconstruction of Streets, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount, the same to be issued outside the limit of indebtedness.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Ordered, That the sum of $750,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Commissioner of Public Works for Reconstruction of Streets, in accordance with chapter 305 of the Acts of 1930, and the amount so appropriated be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

CONSTRUCTION OF NEW STREETS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 12, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Under the provisions of chapter 306 of the Acts of 1930 the city is authorized to borrow outside the statutory limit of indebtedness a sum not exceeding $2,500,000 for the laying out and construction of new streets. The reason for this authorization is known to all the members of the City Council; consequently, there is no necessity for me at this time to engage in a detailed explanation of the matter.

Under the provisions of the aforesaid act two preliminary steps must be taken by the city; a sum equal to 10 per cent of the total authorization must be provided from taxes, and a sum equal to 20 per cent of the total authorization must be borrowed inside the debt limit. The passage of the loan order for $500,000 now pending in your honorable body will satisfy the latter.

I submit herewith two orders as required by statute, one providing for a loan outside the statutory limit of indebtedness of $2,500,000 and the other for an appropriation from taxes of $250,000. I respectfully recommend adoption of these orders by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 306 of the Acts of 1930 the sum of $2,500,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners for Highways, Making of, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount, the same to be issued outside the limit of indebtedness.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Ordered, That the sum of $250,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended by the Board of Street Commissioners for Highways, Making of, in accordance with chapter 306 of the Acts of 1930, and the amount so appropriated be raised by taxation on the polls and estates in the City of Boston.

LOAN FOR PLAYGROUND, FANEUIL SECTION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 5, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—For several years there has been agitation on the part of the members of the City Council and other public-spirited citizens for a playground in that portion of Brighton in the vicinity of Faneuil, Market, Arlington and Parsons streets. The City Planning Board and the Committee on Future Parks and Playgrounds have made investigations and submitted several reports on this matter. Under date of April 4, 1930, I am in receipt of a report from the City Planning Board recommending the acquisition for playground purposes of several parcels of land containing approximately 281,207 square feet (6.4 acres), which will be sufficient to provide for baseball diamonds and other playground facilities.

I accordingly transmit herewith the report of the City Planning Board referred to and recommend the passage of the accompanying order for a loan of $75,000, being the amount required for the acquisition of the land and its improvement for playground purposes as required by the statute.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Planning Board, April 4, 1930.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—By request of your Honor the City Planning Board has considered the question of a playground location within the area bounded by Faneuil street, Parsons street, Arlington street and Market street, Brighton district, and begs to submit herewith its conclusions and recommendations in connection therewith.

On July 30, 1926, in response to a City Council order, the Board recommended the acquisition for playground purposes of an area in the adjoining block, bounded by Faneuil, Parsons, Harriet, and Hobart streets, on the ground that the district was developing rapidly for residential purposes and if not taken advantage of immediately for playground use the opportunity would be lost. There was available at that time approximately five acres of vacant land. This has since been developed and there is now remaining in that particular block only about one acre of undeveloped land.

The Committee on Future Parks and Playgrounds, appointed by his Honor Mayor Malcolm E. Nichols, reported that there was need for a playground of four or five acres near the center of the Brighton district, at the same time recommending the widening of the present playground, known as Rogers Park.

In a report on "Future Parks, Playgrounds and Parkways," published by the Boston Park Department under date of November, 1925, although no specific recommendation is made, one of the diagrams indicates that recreation facilities are needed in the locality under consideration.

A study of population figures shows that there is within a quarter mile radius of the block bounded by Faneuil, Parsons, Arlington and Market streets a total of 4,589 persons, according to the 1925 census. The distribution of this population is shown on the accompanying map (Fig. 1) also the site of the proposed playground in its relation to the other recreational facilities of the district.

The Faneuil section is essentially a residential district, the block in question being zoned almost entirely for residential use. There is in the center of this block a considerable area of vacant land which the Board believes should be taken at this time for playground purposes. It also believes that the buildings fronting on Faneuil street should be taken at the same time in order to allow free access from the north.

A playground area as indicated on the accompanying plan (Fig. 2) contains 281,207 square feet, or approximately 6.4 acres. This is ample for a full-size baseball diamond, bleachers, tennis court, children's corner, and such other equipment as might be desirable. This entire area has an assessed value, land and buildings, of $28,500. Much of the rear lands has been used for agricultural purposes and are assessed upon an acreage basis, no change having been made in the assessment over a considerable period of years.

This area is recommended by the City Planning Board as desirable in location and size, with its frontage on Faneuil street and an approach from the south by means of Arlington place.

The district is developing rapidly. Very few tracts of land available for playground purposes remain vacant at the present time. Development has already started in this area and the Board believes that action should be taken immediately in advance of further construction.

Respectfully submitted,
THE CITY PLANNING BOARD,
FREDERIC H. FAY, Chairman.

Ordered, That the sum of $75,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commissioners for Playground, Faneuil District, Brighton, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

EAST BOSTON RELIEF HOSPITAL.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the sum of three hundred thousand dollars be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Board of Trustees of the Boston City Hospital for the enlargement of the present East Boston Relief Hospital, and that to meet such expense the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Coun. DONOVAN—Mr. President, I might say, briefly, upon this order I have just introduced, that I put it in in conformity with the views of the survey of the doctors appointed by former Mayor Nichols, and also in line with the views of the trustees of the Boston City Hospital. They are opposed to the continuation of the installation of relief stations in various sections. In East Boston we have an East Boston relief station, where some 20,000 cases a year are treated; but at that station at the present time major operations are not performed, where persons are injured. At the present time and in the immediate future, due to the increased business that will come to East Boston because of the new airport and the introduction of industries of one kind and another, it is very important that we should have proper hospital accommodation. I have, therefore, introduced this order with that end in view. With this amount it will be possible to build an up-to-date hospital in East Boston, using the present East Boston Relief Station as a nucleus. It is very important, as I say, that that section, being near the waterfront, and having the present increased demands upon it, should have such hospital facilities.

The order was referred to the Committee on Finance.

LOAN FOR HIGHWAYS.

President LYNCH called up, under unfinished business, No. 5 on the calendar, viz.:

On March 24, 1930, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 18, nays 0.

The order was given its second and final reading and passage, yeas 18, nays 0.

FIRST AID EQUIPMENT OF BATHING BEACHES.

Coun. FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to equip each bathing beach under its jurisdiction with a first-aid medical kit and pulmotor apparatus.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

MOTION TO CONFIRM CONSTABLES.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, under unfinished business, I am going to move that we take up, from No. 3 on the calendar, the names of C. P. Gill and Michael J. Hafey.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I understand that the sentiment of the Council has already been expressed in favor of having these various constables receive some degree of attention before acting upon them. That being so, I see no reason why these appointments which have come in to us since the first of May should receive precedence over those that came in before May 1, and without filing the same returns that we require of the other 284.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, I will withdraw my motion, and support the chairman of the committee.

The motion was withdrawn.

CENSUS FIGURES FOR WARD 13.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council favors a retabulation of the United States census enumeration figures for Ward 13 before they are made official, and that a copy of this resolve be sent to Mr. Leonard A. Frink, Supervisor of the Thirteenth Suffolk census district.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, I wish to say just a few words upon this resolution that I have introduced. I think every member of the Council appreciates the fact that the buying power of the city and its importance along different lines are regulated to some degree by the number of its inhabitants; and many of us are concerned because one of the important wards of our city, Ward 22, has apparently suffered, through the figures submitted in the papers, a loss of 800 or more inhabitants in the last ten years. It is in order to ascertain whether that really is a fact that I present this order today. Before doubting the official count in that district I have gathered information from a number of people in the district. I am told, for example, by a reputable business man in the Savin Hill section that the census enumerator, one of the young fellows covering that district, had spoken of a certain house he had visited on four occasions, and could not find anyone, because the husband and wife were both working, and he said, "If they think I am going back to that street again to get four cents a name, they are mistaken." So I have reason to believe that he purposely failed to go back there and get the names. With the thought in mind that the number of inhabitants in our city governs the standing of our city among the other cities of the country, and that our position as seventh or eighth city in the United States may be decided by the result of this census, I am sincerely interested in seeing a fair count made. The last official count that was made was made in 1925, by the state of Massachusetts, and the count at that time showed that there were 29,266 people living in Ward 13. That was an increase over ten years before, 1915, of 2,781 people. Since 1925 there has been put through the new old Colony Boulevard, which gives splendid motor service to our city. It has been opened up directly through that ward. There are also two stations of the Dorchester rapid transit, Columbia and Savin Hill, which have been opened in that ward. Everyone who knows about such developments appreciates the fact that no residential or business section is stronger than the transportation facilities afforded there. A city is like a human being, with heart and arteries, the heart sending the current through the arteries and supplying life to the limbs of the individual and the different branches of the city. That is what brings health, and if you sever an artery of the individual or of the city, death of the member supplied by it follows. But we have out there in that ward the finest transportation available in Boston, as a result of which during the last three years there have been 235 new apartments furnished, in seventy buildings. Each of those 235 apartments contains from four to seven rooms. Those familiar with such figures know that you can figure at the minimum four members to a family. So at that rate we would have an increase there of 932 people. But I have gone farther and have checked births against deaths. In the five-year period there have been 2,727 births, with 1,842 deaths, or a net gain of 885 people in the ward. I have also taken a typical school district, the Edward Everett School section, covering six of the precincts of the ward, and including the St. William's elementary school, and I find that the number of pupils has increased from 1,629 in 1925 to 1,890 in that same district this year. Those are facts, statistics, which can be easily verified. I have drawn up some facts and figures here concerning the population of the ward which I will give to the reporter for inclusion in the record. This is intended in no way whatever as a reflection upon Mr. Leonard Frink, in whom is placed the responsibility of the census of the district, because I appreciate the fact that his task is a hard one. I simply ask, however, that before the total of this ward is sent on to Washington and made permanent, it be checked up by a retabulation of the figures. I also ask that the Boston Chamber of Commerce, the Dorchester Board of Trade and the Uphams Corner Citizens Association be sent a copy of this resolution and of these statistics which I have compiled, so that they may interest themselves in the situation. I feel, in all fairness to the ward I represent here and to the city which we all represent, that there should be a check-up. It looks as if the figures had been obtained by people who were more interested in what they were to earn through their work than in the standing of the city. So I believe the figures should be retabulated and proper figures obtained before the results are sent to Washington. This is an important matter upon the results of which our city, commercially and otherwise, is judged. Therefore, I believe that the Chamber of Commerce and the local boards and improvement associations should try to have a conference with Mr. Frink, where all parties can sit down and thresh the thing out. I trust, therefore, that the resolution will be adopted by the Council.

THANKS TO LOUIS E. KIRSTEIN.

Coun. BUSH offered the following:

Whereas, The generosity of one of our outstanding citizens has conferred a lasting benefit on the inhabitants of the City of Boston by his presentation of a beautiful memorial library building; and

Whereas, It is fitting and proper that official recognition be taken by the Boston City Council by an official vote of thanks and appreciation to him for his great-hearted and generous gift; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Boston City Council herewith takes opportunity to express, on behalf of STATISTICS ON WARD 13, DORCHESTER, PERTINENT TO THE PRESENT FEDERAL CENSUS.

The census of 1915 comprising the exact streets now in Ward 13, showed a total population of 26,175 people. The census in 1925 showed a total of 29,266, an increase of 2,781 people. The figures as submitted tentatively in the papers for the 1930 census show a total of 28,458 people, or a falling off of 808 inhabitants during the last five years.

CHANGES IN SCHOOL POPULATION OF WARD 13, DORCHESTER.

As of May 8, 1930, as determined by average number of pupils belonging in elementary and kindergarten class of Edward Everett Public School and St. William's Parochial School:

the citizens of Boston, their thanks and appreciation to Honorable Louis E. Kirstein for his magnificent contribution to our cultural facilities in the form of the new library building on City Hall avenue.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President and members of the Council, this seems an opportune time, being the first meeting of the Council after the completion and opening of the new Kirstein Memorial Library, on City Hall avenue, to officially extend our thanks and appreciation to Mr. Kirstein, on behalf of the citizens of Boston, for his magnificent gift to us. There has been some criticism in the past relative to the location of this particular library building. We find now, however, that that criticism has entirely disappeared and nothing but most favorable comment has been heard both of the library and its location. The primary purpose of the library—in addition to its being a memorial to Mr. Kirstein's father—was to provide to the business men of this city ready access to valuable business statistics and facts. For the fulfillment of that purpose the present location of the library is admirable, being close to the very business heart of the city. In going through the library building I find that a very comprehensive plan has been carried through in order to meet the purpose and the idea of this branch library. There is a compilation and accumulation of valuable business statistics covering the entire country, and in fact the world; you will find provided there directories of every large city in the United States, and important facts and statistics with regard to all our industries, agricultural, manufacturing, commercial and raw materials. Thus vital information is afforded to the business men of this city. We have had many magnificent gifts of one kind and another to the inhabitants of this city in the past, from private individuals, and we hope that they will see their way clear in the future to continue such gifts. I do feel, however, that this is the time for us, in the particular matter of this Kirstein Memorial Library, as representatives of the citizens of Boston, to extend officially our recognition and appreciation of this extremely valuable gift to our city. I move you, therefore, that we pass this resolution under suspension of the rules, and that it be suitably engrossed and forwarded to the donor, whatever expense may be incurred being charged to our City Council fund for such purposes.

The resolution was unanimously passed under suspension of the rule.

COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAXES BY MUNICIPALITIES.

The collection of delinquent taxes is often neglected by city officials, resulting in a considerable financial loss to the municipality.

The sale of property for taxes usually takes place from one to three years after the taxes have become due and after the publication of a tax sale notice for from three to six weeks. The property is sold at auction to the highest bidder provided that the bid covers the amount of taxes, all unpaid assessments, interest, fees, penalties, and other charges against the property. If the bid is not sufficient to cover these items, the city bids in the property. Property sold for taxes may be redeemed after a period varying from one to three years upon payment of sum sold for, together with interest computed at the rate of 12 per cent per annum. If the property is not redeemed within the prescribed time the purchaser is given either a deed, an estate in fee simple, or an absolute estate in fee, subject only to the lien of unpaid state and county taxes.

In two cities, White Plains and Yonkers, the tax lien is sold. This has worked out very satisfactorily. In Yonkers the problem of the collection of delinquent taxes has been cleared up:

1. By keeping the assessed valuation down to the real present market value, thereby preventing the accumulation of a large amount of uncollectible taxes.
2. By foreclosure, in one action, of large numbers of lots in one ownership.
3. By assignment of tax liens, at full value, to any one applying for same.
4. By resale, at reduced amounts, of tax liens held by the city.
5. By compromise with owners, reducing the amounts due to a sum that will make it worth while for such owners to pay up the city thereby saving foreclosure costs, and immediately placing such property on a taxpaying basis, and at the same time allowing the owners to get out with some equity. Foreclosure should never be resorted to where an owner shows any disposition to compromise.

BOSTON AREA TO WARD LINES.

Total, 30,598 acres (i. e., 47.81 square miles), 2,944 acres being filled land, 1,143 acres water area and 1,436 acres flats. Land area only, 28,019 acres (i. e., 43.78 square miles). Included in the latter are 160 acres of filled flats recently added to the land area of South Boston and 175 acres to that of East Boston.

Original Boston contained about 780 acres of land. Of the twelve leading American cities, eight are larger in land area than Boston, viz., Los Angeles (441 square miles), New York (318), Chicago (199.4), Philadelphia (129), Baltimore (91.9), Detroit (80), Cleveland (56.6) and St. Louis (61.25). The only city in Massachusetts with larger land area is Taunton (50 square miles).

If Boston should expand by annexations as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and others have expanded, its total area, in case of including the thirty-nine cities and towns within the 15-mile radius, would be second to the largest, viz., Los Angeles, the present land area of "Greater Boston" being 409.5 square miles.

ALTITUDES IN BOSTON.

(1) Highest, Custom House tower, 510.71 feet, i. e., top of finial above mean low water (same as "city base") or 495 feet from surface of street; (2) Bellevue Hill, West Roxbury, 376.3 feet to top of new reservoir, or about 320 feet of top of hill; (3) Bunker Hill Monument, 307.84 feet, or top of Breed's Hill, Charlestown, at base of monument, 86.44 feet; (4) Slocum Hill, near Allandale street, Jamaica Plain, about 300 feet; (5) High Fort Observatory, Highland Park, Roxbury, 291 feet, on top of hill at base of tower, 153 feet; (6) Revolution Memorial Monument, Telegraph Hill, South Boston, 270 feet, or top of hill at base of monument, 145 feet; (7) State House, top of dome, 261 feet; (8) Hill between Poplar and Dale streets, West Roxbury, near Hyde Park boundary line, about 258 feet; (9) Peters' Hill, Arnold Arboretum, 237 feet; (10) Fairmount Hill, Hyde Park, about 220 feet, Beacon Hill, now 107.89 feet (i. e., at corner of Mt. Vernon and Joy streets), was originally about as high as the base of the State House dome.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7, (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the new style calendar in 1752 to September 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

DIMENSIONS, ETC., OF BOSTON.

Boston's greatest length, 13.8 miles, i. e., from northern end of East Boston to southern end of Hyde Park; greatest width, 7.75 miles, i. e., from Marine Park shore to western end of Brighton; median transverse width, 5.75 miles, i. e., from Charles river at Harvard Bridge to Neponset river at Blue Hill avenue; width of business center, 1.2 miles, i. e., from Charles river at Cambridge Bridge to Fort Point channel at Summer street. Geographical center of city in Roxbury, corner Walnut and Westminster avenues.

NEW ORLEANS BUILDING THREE NEW INCINERATORS.

Three new incinerators to cost a total of $700,000 are under construction at New Orleans and will add appreciably to that city's sanitation system. This will make a total of five plants where garbage can be readily disposed of. The plants, according to Commissioner of Public Property John Klorer, will be equipped in the most scientific manner with special provision for the prevention of any smoke nuisance.

The incinerators are conveniently distributed about the city, one of the new ones being almost ready for use. The one now nearing completion can handle 170 tons of garbage every 16 hours with no odor escaping, and its stacks are 125 feet high.

LEGAL HOLIDAYS.

AIRPORTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The number of airports in the country continues to grow steadily, and the listing compiled by the Department of Commerce showed 1,520 airports in operation on October 2 of this year. Of these, 442 were municipal airports, and 468 were privately owned and operated. The rest included army fields, naval air stations, Department of Commerce intermediate fields, marked auxiliary fields and miscellaneous others. As will be noted, the municipal airports comprise 29 per cent of the total number now in use in the country. The fact that 442 cities of various sizes have indicated their interest by investing substantial funds in the purchase of property and construction of these airports illustrates the stability of aviation today. As indicative of the volume of traffic already in evidence at municipal airports, it might be noted that in a recent representative week the Des Moines airport showed 88 airplanes arriving and 86 leaving. Oakland, California, showed 55 arriving, 52 leaving; while the Tulsa, Oklahoma, airport showed 272 arriving and 265 leaving. These figures are constantly increasing, and they show that the city airport is already being used.

PORT OF BOSTON.

Boston Harbor comprises an area of about 47 square miles (exclusive of the islands), including all the expanse of tidewater within a straight line from Point Allerton to Point Shirley and extending therefrom to the mainland. It is the best of natural harbors, near open sea, sheltered and spacious for anchorage; main ship channel 35 feet in depth at mean low water, increasing to 40 feet from President Roads to open sea; new dredging operations in charge of United States engineers are under way for increasing depth of said main channel to 40 feet; waterfront (i. e., lineal pier space) 40 miles, 6 miles fronting on 30 feet depth at low water.

Commonwealth Pier No. 5, South Boston, 1,200 feet long, 400 feet wide, accommodating five 600-foot ships at one time, 40 feet depth at mean low water on both sides, with three 2-story fireproof buildings of steel and concrete construction, containing 900,000 square feet of floor space, total cost of this enterprise to State, $4,500,000. Commonwealth Pier No. 6, South Boston (Fish Pier), buildings on same erected by lessee, Boston Fish Market Corporation, cost to State, $1,487,361. Commonwealth Pier, No. 1, East Boston, 900 feet long, costing State $764,600 for site and $426,674 for construction. New dry dock at South Boston (probably the largest in world), completed in 1919, 1,200 feet long and 120 wide, costing $3,169,651 and taken by United States Government at total cost.

Islands in Boston Harbor over 3 acres in area, 17, with total area of 965 acres; Long Island the largest, or 215.5 acres. Owned by United States, 392 acres; by City of Boston, 334 acres. Number of wharves, 143, of which eight are owned by the city.

There are 38 foreign steamship lines with regular sailings to and from Boston, ten coastwise lines and three intercoastal. In 1915 a revision of the harbor lines was made and the project undertaken whereby 600 acres of flats between Governor's Island and Jeffries Pt. will be filled in and used for extensive commercial developments under State control. About 175 acres of flats have recently been filled in and added to the land area of East Boston and 160 acres to that of South Boston.

In April, 1918, the Government decided to establish its Army Supply Base on a portion of the Commonwealth lands in South Boston. About 57.6 acres were purchased of the State, the price being $1,317,510, soon followed by the construction of two pier sheds, each 920 feet long, a wharf shed and other buildings, including one of the largest storehouses in the world, built of reinforced concrete, eight stories high, 1,638 feet long, 126 feet wide and with floor space of over 1,650,000 square feet. The total outlay for the plant was $26,000,000.

Total expenditure by State for improvement of Boston Harbor $22,575,827 from 1859 to November 30, 1927, inclusive; in the same period, there was expended additionally $951,992 on small channels; total Federal expenditure from 1790 to June 30, 1927, $13,258,846.

FLAG DAYS.

By order of the City Council it is the duty of the City Messenger to have the national colors displayed upon the public flagstuffs on the following days:

Franklin's Birthday, January 17; Lincoln's Birthday, February 12; Washington's Birthday, February 22; Evacuation Day, March 17; Patriot's Day, April 19; Grant's Birthday, April 27; Memorial Day, May 30; Anniversary of Adoption of National Colors, June 14; Bunker Hill Day, June 17; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day, September (first Monday); Anniversary of Foudning of Boston, September 17; Columbus Day, October 12; Armistice Day, November 11.

THE COST OF DIPHTHERIA.

Diphtheria costs New York City over $5,000,000 annually, according to Dr. Shirley W. Wynne, Health Commissioner of New York, whose statement, given in a news release from the department, is based on the calculations of the value of the lives lost, the cost of hospital care, and the expense of caring for patients in their homes.

Last year the loss occasioned by diphtheria in New York City was as follows:

Value of 642 human lives lost.....	$4,575,000
Cost of hospital care for 2,976 cases in the Contagious Disease Hospitals.....	391,000
Cost of caring for 7,800 cases in private homes.....	273,000
	$5,139,000

As against an annual economic loss of over $5,000,000 a year it is stated that an expenditure of less than 10 per cent of this sum will suffice to wipe out diphtheria and thus save the community $4,500,000 annually.

Figures by the New York City Department of Health show that thus far this year over 25,000 children have been immunized against diphtheria, nearly 12,000 having been protected by private physicians. The growing interest on the part of parents is well shown in the steady increase in the number of children immunized, which increased from 555 in the first week of the present campaign to 4,702 during the first week in April, or almost ninefold.

MUNICIPALITY TAKES OVER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AIRPORT.

Oklahoma City has voted $425,000 in bonds for the enlargement and improvement of its municipal airport. The Aviation Committee of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce has operated the airport for the past four years and was largely instrumental in putting over the bond-issue campaign. The port will in the future be operated by the city as a strictly municipal project.

When completed, the new field will comprise 360 acres and will meet all of the qualifications for an A 1A airport as set forth by the United States Department of Commerce.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS REDUCE BALTIMORE TRAFFIC TOLL.

An analysis of traffic accidents at street intersections in Baltimore indicates that the automatic traffic signal is proving very effective in reducing the number of such accidents.

There were 419 traffic accidents at all intersections covered in the report issued by the Baltimore Safety Council for the first six months of 1927, before the signals were installed. In direct contrast, only 259 such accidents were recorded for the first six months of this year, with the signals in operation.

The casualties were: one person killed and 129 injured before the installation of the signals, as compared with two killed but only 92 injured after. A reduction in the number of accidents was reported at thirty-two intersections, following the installation of the signals, while seventeen other intersections have shown little or no change as yet, and ten actually have experienced an increase since the use of the signals.

THROUGH TRAFFIC STREETS.

Many a city government, confronted almost unawares by the ever-increasing traffic problem, has seized upon the "through street" idea as the least expensive sop to those who clamor for something to relieve the distress. This situation is reflected in many city traffic ordinances which give absolute right-of-way to vehicles on any of the "arterial highways" included in a long list, and which fail entirely to provide for stop requirements, signs, enforcement facilities, or public education. Unfortunately, traffic regulation is not so simple. It cannot be successfully accomplished by merely designating certain through streets.

Still, through streets are useful. Their successful application depends only on an understanding of what can and what cannot be expected of them, and on a realization of where they fit into the traffic control picture. Consider a street as it develops with the increasing traffic from a minor highway to a heavily traveled main thoroughfare. Traffic control will logically develop in successive steps something like these:

1. No control at all.
2. Slow or stop signs at isolated intersections.
3. Through streets with stop signs at every intersection.
4. Occasional automatic signals introduced where there is heavy cross traffic.
5. Complete flexible progressive signal control.
6. Grade separation at important intersecting streets.
7. Elevated or depressed roadway without intersecting streets.

MAYOR CURLEY CONTRIBUTES TO NASHUA RELIEF FUND.

Mayor Curley, on May 17, forwarded the following communication to Harry A Gregg, chairman of the Nashua Relief Fund:

DEAR SIR,—I beg to forward my contribution to the fund being raised for the relief of the sufferers from the recent fire in Nashua, New Hampshire, in the sum of $100.

The generous contribution made by the Government of Japan to this fund should serve as an incentive to every individual living in New England at least to contribute as generously as his means will permit to the aid of our fellow New Englanders, many of whom have lost everything in consequence of the recent conflagration.

A catastrophe similar to that which occurred in Nashua, New Hampshire, if it had occurred in some remote section of the world and was directed to our attention, would unquestionably result in a more ready and generous response than has been in evidence in the case of the Nashua Relief Fund.

New Englanders have been the victims of industrial depression and the probability is that in a majority of cases the loss occasioned in consequence of the fire meant the loss of everything of value to the residents of Nashua but, unfortunately, our perspective as to their needs is dimmed because of the fact that they are our neighbors rather than persons who live in a remote section of the world and the spirit of neighborliness no longer occupies the place in our hearts and minds that it did in the earlier years of America.

The fact must not be lost sight of that many have lost everything and must begin life anew; they need help.

Japan has furnished the example, let all Americans be guided by it, since there is no means of determining when a similar affliction may be our own lot and a similar cry for aid may be raised, the response to which will be dependent in large measure upon our generosity and early action in the case of the Nashua sufferers.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR CURLEY STARTS PROCEEDINGS AGAINST LANDLORD FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE WATER FOR TENANTS.

The Water Department has notified Deputy Commissioner Thomas Donnellon of the Health Department to institute proceedings at once in court against Eva Mendelsohn, of 295 Tappan street, Brookline, for failure to furnish water to tenants occupying premises, ownership of which is vested in Mrs. Mendelsohn at 5, 7 and 14 Station street, Hyde Park.

In payment of the 1927 water account for these premises a check was forwarded the city under date of June 22, 1928, but unfortunately, it was a "rubber" check there being no funds on deposit and it was not until December 3, of 1929, that another check was submitted in payment

CITY CANNOT AID PRENDERGAST PREVENTORIUM—MAYOR EXPRESSES REGRET AT BEING UNABLE LEGALLY TO HELP MAINTAIN INSTITUTION—CITES LEGAL OPINIONS IN COMMUNICATIONS TO DR. JOHN B. HAWES.

Mayor Curley, on May 20, forwarded the following communications to Dr. John B. Hawes, 2d, President of the Boston Tuberculosis Association:

MY DEAR DOCTOR,—I beg to forward herewith copy of opinion submitted by the Corporation Counsel during the administration of my predecessor, Hon. Malcolm E. Nichols, to the Board of Trustees of the Boston City Hospital, under date of September 25, 1928, upon the question of the inclusion of the sum of $15,000, to be utilized by the Prendergast Preventorium at Mattapan in its work of preventing children exposed to tuberculosis from becoming subject to the disease.

The contention in this particular instance, made by the Corporation Counsel for the City of Boston, was that the Preventorium, not being a department of the city and not under public control, was clearly within the purview of the anti-aid amendment to the Constitution and it would be unlawful to appropriate money for its maintenance.

Under date of May 19, 1930, I am in receipt of a further opinion from the Corporation Counsel in which it is contended that the city has no legal right to assist in defraying the expenses incurred by the Preventorium.

Under the circumstances, greatly as I regret it, there is apparently no tangible aid to be expected from the municipality.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor.

The opinions rendered by the Corporation Counsel are as follows:

BOARD OF TRUSTEES, BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL.

GENTLEMEN,—Through one of your Board, Mr. Alexander Whiteside, I understand that your Board is desirous of being advised as to its power to include in its budget the sum of $15,000, to be utilized by the Prendergast Preventorium at Mattapan in its work in preventing children exposed to tuberculosis from becoming subjects of the disease.

I understand that the Trustees of the hospital value the work done by the Preventorium and are in accord that it is a meritorious work but that they are uncertain as to the legality of the appropriation sought by Doctor Hawes of the Preventorium.

Under the City Charter heads of departments are required to make up a budget epitomizing the expenses of their department. The Mayor consolidates the budgets so prepared by the heads of departments and presents them to the City Council. All through the City Charter the underlying thought in budget provisions is that all items are "current expenses" of the various departments of the city.

PRENDERGAST PREVENTORIUM.

"All appropriations . . . shall originate with the Mayor who . . . shall submit to the city council an annual budget of the current expenses of the city and county. It shall be the duty of the city and county officials . . . to submit forthwith in such detail . . . estimates for the next fiscal year of the expenditures of the department."

Even the grant of the authority to the City Auditor to make transfers speaks of transfers from appropriations for current expenses of one division of a department to the appropriation for current expenses of any other division of the same department.

It is perfectly clear that the budget can provide only for the current expenses of a department of the city.

As presently constituted the hospital has no jurisdiction over the Prendergast Preventorium. The Prendergast Preventorium is not a city department nor a subdivision of any city department. If the $15,000 requested were included in the budget of the City Hospital it would not be for a current expense of the hospital but would represent an expenditure of the Preventorium. The trustees would then be confronted with whether they could contribute support to the Preventorium. This would not be legal to do because it would divert money of the city, dedicated to public use, to the Preventorium, a private charity. This would be using public funds for charitable purposes privately and not publicly managed. To do this would violate the so-called anti-aid amendment of our Constitution, which among other things provided that no "grant, appropriation or use of public money or property . . . shall be made or authorized by the Commonwealth or any political division thereof for the purpose of founding, maintaining or aiding . . . any infirmary, hospital, institution . . . which is not publicly owned and under the exclusive control, order and superintendence of public officers or public agents."

The Preventorium not being a department of the city and not under public control, I therefore advise you that the Trustees of the City Hospital have no power to include the sum of $15,000 in City Hospital budget to be expended by or for the Prendergast Preventorium.

Very truly yours,

F. S. DELAND,
Corporation Counsel.

May 19, 1930.

To HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In compliance with your request contained in your letter of May 13 to me I have examined into the request received from the Prendergast Preventorium that the City of Boston assist in defraying the expenses incurred incident to the conduct of that institution or that the city consider taking over all this preventive work.

I am of the opinion that the city has no legal right to assist in defraying the expenses incurred by this institution. Since the Preventorium is not a department of the city and not under public control funds used to support the same would be in violation of the so-called anti-aid amendment of our Constitution.

I am inclosing herewith copy of an opinion rendered by my predecessor, dated September 25, 1928, in which opinion he discusses the very same matter, and holds, as I do, that it would be unconstitutional to render the assistance sought.

As for the request that the city consider taking over all this preventative work I advise your Honor that as a result of the conference held on Friday, May 16, with the Health Commissioner, the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital and myself present, it was not deemed advisable for either the Hospital Trustees or the Health Commissioner to take over this work. In fact it was the consensus of opinion that the city should not be required to engage in this kind of work.

Very truly yours,

SAMUEL SILVERMAN,
Corporation Counsel.

MAYOR CURLEY THANKED FOR PROMPT ACTION ON BOSTON WATER SUPPLY CONTROVERSY.

Mayor Curley has received the following communication from R. Ammi Cutter:

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I am very grateful to you for your prompt attention to my request for a letter to the Senate with reference to the amendment to the Rivers and Harbors bill proposed by Senator Walcott of Connecticut.

The Attorney-General, Mr. Bently Warren, and I went to Washington yesterday and succeeded in obtaining the cooperation of both the Massachusetts Senators and of all the members of the congressional delegation, who were then in Washington, in opposing the amendment and I think that the arguments in opposition to the Connecticut maneuver were well received by the committee. I am sure that your letter was of very great assistance to us in meeting the situation which came up so suddenly.

Very respectfully yours,

R. AMMI CUTTER.

COUNCILOR NORTON THANKS MAYOR.

The following statement was issued by Councilor Clement A. Norton of Hyde Park, regarding shutting off water in his district on order of Mayor Curley:

I want to thank the Mayor of Boston for the humanitarian manner in which he handled the vexing problem of collecting water bills from landlords without inconveniencing innocent tenants to too great an extent in the Hyde Park District.

Unlike other years when water was shut off and families suffered, this year, when the matter was drawn to the Mayor's attention that children and aged people were involved, he immediately ordered that under no consideration should water be shut off for over fourteen hours and then only after the tenants had had ample opportunity to obtain water enough to do them for the period that the water was shut off.

I brought the Mayor's attention to the fact that it was rumored that water was to be shut off in two Hyde Park homes where sickness was involved and he immediately issued orders that in no home was water to be turned off where there was sickness.

CLEMENT A. NORTON.

of the 1927 account, and this check was also found to be a "rubber" one and worthless.

Upon April 18, of 1930, payment was finally made in case upon the 1927 account due upon the premises 5 Station street and 14 Station street, Hyde Park, but a bill for $20.02 due for the 1927 water account upon No. 7 Station street still remains unpaid.

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT.

Upon May 14 the Mayor approved a contract with the Dewell Company for preparing the assessed poll lists. A communication from Edward T. Kelly of the Assessing Department was as follows:

BOSTON, May 9, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—We desire your permission to make a contract with the Dewell Company, without advertising, in the preparation of the assessed poll list for the year 1930, which includes typing of the poll tax book and collector's manuscript and the writing of the poll tax bills and coupons.

This work will necessitate preparing two copies of the police lists, showing the name, residence, ward and serial number of each male person over twenty years of age. In order to give a consecutively numbered list it will be necessary for them to eliminate all females, businesses, vacant dwellings, stores, garages, etc., upward of 280,000 items, and then number the remaining male residents consecutively, beginning with No. 1 for each ward—approximately 250,000 items.

From this list we desire them to write the poll tax bills and coupons, giving name, street and numbers, ward number, precinct number and serial number and the same information on coupon. It is necessary to have the poll tax bills written as early as possible, so that they may be delivered to the collector and the payments made as speedily as possible.

The Dewell Company have done this and other work for this department at various times, are a reliable concern and are familiar with our books. They will do this work at a lower price than has been estimated by any other concern namely at a cost of $8,425, delivery of bills to be made not later than June 30, with earlier deliveries starting on June 20.

After investigation by the Chief Clerk it is found that the only concern prepared to do this work is the Dewell Company, whose offices are easily accessible to City Hall.

Under the circumstances, we request your permission to make this contract with the Dewell Company, without advertising, at a total cost of $8,425.

Respectfully,

EDWARD T. KELLY,
Chairman.

REPLY OF SUPERINTENDENT ENGLERT.

Following the communication of the Finance Commission the Superintendent of Public Buildings addressed the following letter to Mayor Curley:

BOSTON, May 16, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully submit the following report in answer to the report submitted to you by the Finance Commission under date of May 15.

In my previous report to you I clearly pointed out that no copies of orders to contractors for work under $1,000 had ever been filed by this department in the office of the City Clerk during the many years of the existence of this department. There was no evasion or concealment by me in answering the Finance Commission on this point. It was never assumed that such orders under $1,000 should be filed with the City Clerk; and there is still some question as to the intent of the statute on this point; but pending the opinion of the Corporation Counsel, which I have requested, I am filing copies of such orders until advised to the contrary.

There was no evasion or concealment by me in answering the assertions of the Finance Commission in regard to filing copies with the auditor. I frankly stated that the practice in this department has been to send such copies, together with drafts for the payment of bills; and, in the absence of any notice to the contrary, I assumed such practice was entirely satisfactory. This department is now sending such copies to the auditor, as soon as possible, after they are made out in this office.

In the cases criticized by the Finance Commission, I specifically stated that it was my honest judgment that the work performed under the various orders was done for the best interests of the city, and I explained my reasons as to why it was not considered advisable or for the best interests of the city to attempt to perform such work under one contract. There was no evasion or concealment by me on this answer to the commission's criticism. On the contrary, my purpose was to be, and I believe shows, entirely frank in my answers.

The additional cases cited by the Finance Commission in its report of May 15, are answered as follows:

1. Painting and Plastering Work at Oak and Tyler Streets Municipal Building.—It was anticipated in October, 1929, that work would be necessary in this building, and this department prepared items for the budget of 1930 for such work. One of the items was for repairing the plaster and repainting the library ceiling and walls. During December, however, it became apparent that unless the work on the ceiling in the library was done immediately, the danger from falling plaster would constitute a menace to the safety of the public who used this building. Consequently, it was my honest judgment that this was an emergency, under the provisions of the City Charter, and necessary immediately for the safety of the public. Furthermore, the work was not completed in December, as asserted by the commission, but was not finally completed and accepted until the middle of January. The inspector visited this job daily during its progress, and I personally made frequent trips to the building, to check the progress of the work. Because of its emergency, the work was ordered orally by me, and confirming proposals and order were executed on January 6 and 18, and bill for the work, after being checked by the inspector, was approved for payment on February 15. There was no concealment and no falsification of the records of this department; and the city received full value for the amount paid for this work; and the specifications were fully complied with by the contractor, who is one of the most reputable, reliable and efficient painting contractors in the city, of many years' experience.

2. Work at Old Franklin Schoolhouse, following Fire.—On or about Armistice Day, November 11, there was a fire at the Old Franklin Schoolhouse. Of course, I could not anticipate that fire. This building is used by many veterans' organizations, including two G. A. R. Posts, Corporal Gordon E. Denton Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Kearsarge Naval Veterans. A number of Women's Auxiliaries also use this building. I therefore considered this work to be an emergency, which should be done immediately; and I gave the contractor an oral order to proceed with the work. Naturally, because of this emergency, there was no appropriation available for this work in the budget of 1929; but under the circumstances, I believe I was entirely justified in proceeding with this emergency work. As soon as possible, because of the illness of the contractor, his confirming proposal was received on January 29, finally accepted February 7, and the bill of February 15 approved for payment, after a careful check by the inspector, who followed the progress of the work daily. There was no falsification of the records, and because of the emergency, there was specific authority for it under the provisions of the City Charter.

3. I wish to emphatically deny that I stated to the Finance Commission's investigators that "one of the missing orders was for a job not yet started on which I was obtaining bids at the old Fire Station on Church street." I frankly showed the order to the investigators, which I was holding awaiting receipt of the proposal in writing, confirming the oral order which I had given the contractor on January 25. This was a rush job to prepare quarters for the Employment Bureau which had to vacate premises on Blackstone street and move to city property at the old Fire Station on Church street, in accordance with instructions from the Mayor. The said proposal, in confirmation of oral orders, was expected momentarily. The written confirmation of the acceptance was dated February 10, because after several requests to the contractor for his written proposal on that date the contractor stated that he would send in such written proposal in confirmation of the oral order; and this is the order blank which was laid aside as stated above, and shown to the investigators. However, the contractor, although repeatedly requested, did not send in his written confirmation of the proposal until March; and on March 24 his bill was rendered. This was approved for payment and sent along on April 15. There was no intent or attempt to conceal any of the records on this job; and, on the contrary, this department was very frank in trying to cooperate and explain this job to the Finance Commission's investigators.

4. Work in City Hall.—I assume the bill at the auditor's office for work done in City Hall, proposal of February 6, refers to the partitions in the Mayor's office, although no specific information is given in the Finance Commission's report. The contractor submitted a proposal for this work on February 6, which I accepted at once, although the written confirmation was not made out until May 7. The bill was approved for payment in the May 15 draft. The price for this work was submitted to me on February 6, and was not made or fixed after the work was done. The records contain a true statement of what was actually done.

5. Employment Bureau.—Late in January your Honor ordered me to have the Employment Bureau discontinued as soon as possible its occupancy of the old Blackstone Hotel and to make necessary repairs for the Bureau at the Church Street Fire House. Notice was sent to the lessor regarding removal on February 28. The contractor submitted a proposal to do the necessary carpentry alterations on February 12, and I accepted his proposal, orally on the same date. The written confirmation of this acceptance, however, was not made out until a later date. The work proceeded on dates immediately following February 12, and was completed in time for the Employment Bureau to move into the renovated building by the first of March. The bill was dated March 1, upon completion of the work, and the written confirmation of the acceptance of the proposal was made on March 19 and the bill passed for payment in the March 31st draft. The accepted proposal was in this office and if the investigators did not examine it, I am at a loss to explain their failure to examine it. There was no concealment or falsification of any of the records in this office; and such records show a true statement of the facts in regard to this job.

Summary.—I have endeavored in both of my reports answering the reports of the Finance Commission, to give an honest, clear and frank statement of the facts in each case which they have criticized. I have never knowingly avoided or evaded any law, ordinance or regulation, as stated previously; and I repeat that I honestly and sincerely believe that every such contract was performed efficiently and that the city received full value for the price paid for such contracts and orders.

I deny that there has been any waste of the taxpayers' money during my administration, and I deny that I have falsified the records, and I deny that I have split contracts. I have used my best and honest judgment to provide for the best service that this department could give to the people of Boston, for their health, safety and convenience, in the use of our public buildings.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN P. ENGLERT.

LAND-TAKING IN HYDE PARK.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Hyde Park and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Page street, bounded:

Northerly by Jefferson street, six feet; easterly by another part of Page street, three hundred and fifty-five feet; southerly by the same, six feet; and westerly by the same, three hundred and fifty-five feet, containing twenty-one hundred and thirty square feet, more or less.

Included in the above taking is a part of the following lot registered in the Land Court, said part lying between the middle line of Page street and the westerly line of said taking:

George W. Waller, Jr., Doris N. Waller, Cert. No. 25848, Book 125, page 48.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: 345 linear feet of 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above described taking, being private land (Page street), and leading southerly from Jefferson street for a distance of approximately three hundred and fifty-five feet.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the abutting lots of land on both sides of Page street, from Jefferson street to Arlington street, excluding the lot at the easterly corner of Arlington and Page streets, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered; each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 954, Sewerage Works, Page Street, Hyde Park, April 10, 1930, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

E. C. HULTMAN,

MICHAEL H. CROWLEY,
Superintendent of Police.

General Order No. 12.

The Police Commissioner hereby delegates the following members of the Police Department to constitute a "Board of Merit": Superintendent Michael H. Crowley and Deputy Superintendents Thomas F. Goode and James McDevitt. The Board will meet when notified by the Superintendent of Police. They will examine all reports of commendation received from division and unit commanders during the year 1929. After examining the same, the Board will report its findings to the Police Commissioner, submitting the name of the officer, who, in their judgment, is entitled to receive the "Walter Scott Medal for Valor," for 1929.

Division and unit commanders, who have not already done so, will send to the Superintendent of Police reports of commendation of officers under their command for exceptional good police work, that it may be determined, in accordance with the conditions of the "Walter Scott Medal for Valor Fund," what officer "has during the calendar year (1929) specially distinguished himself for valor in the performance of his duty as a policeman."

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

E. C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

Commanding officers of divisions will promulgate this order by reading it to their men at roll call this p. m.

MICHAEL H. CROWLEY,
Superintendent of Police.

General Order No. 13.

A trial board consisting of Captains Rooney, Dunlap and Hanrahan, having heard by reference a complaint against Patrolman Joseph Mikalonis of Division 15, charging him with conduct unbecoming an officer, reported to the commissioner a finding of guilty on the charge and on Specification 1 thereunder, and not guilty on Specification 2 thereunder.

On the tenth day of May, 1930, the said Patrolman Joseph Mikalonis requested, in writing, a public hearing which was granted on May 19, 1930.

The Police Commissioner having heard the evidence as presented, and after considering the case, concurs with the finding of the trial board as to the guilt of the said Patrolman Joseph Mikalonis, but not as to the punishment recommended to be imposed.

It is hereby ordered that the said Patrolman Joseph Mikalonis be suspended for a period of ninety days, such suspension to begin as of March 29, 1930, and to expire on June 27, 1930, with loss of pay during the time of his suspension.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 14.

By authority conferred upon me as Police Commissioner, under General Laws, chapter 31, as amended, Patrolman Charles L. O'Connor of Division 17 is hereby suspended for a period of thirty (30) days, to take effect Thursday, May 22, 1930, and to expire Friday, June 20, 1930, at 12 midnight, with loss of pay during the term of suspension.

The cause and reasons for such suspension are as follows:

Charge: Conduct unbecoming an officer.

Specification: In that on the twentieth of May, 1930, the said Patrolman Charles L. O'Connor was under the influence of intoxicating liquor, while in uniform and about to go upon street duty, to such an extent as to make him unfit to perform police duty.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 45.

I. SMOKE EJECTORS.

Three smoke ejectors have been placed in service in this department and are located at the headquarters of Divisions 1, 2 and 3, where they may be obtained and transported to the scene of a fire or other place where their services may be required.

The blower has a capacity for moving 10,000 cubic feet of air per minute and is driven by a Pelton turbine water motor, Type 6 F. S., direct connected to the blower.

There is a 1½-inch control Globe valve on motor and a 300-pound pressure gauge; also a 2½-inch National Standard female hose connection.

The motor is designed to operate on a pressure ranging from 100 to 150 pounds water pressure.

There is supplied with each ejector, two lengths of flexible suction pipe and a tarpaulin so arranged as to encircle suction pipe and cover in window openings, air shafts, hatchways, etc., where the ejector is liable to be used.

Experience has shown that these smoke ejectors may be used in cellars, manholes, ships' holds and other places where smoke and gases are encountered and it is desired to remove the same so that men will be enabled to operate more efficiently.

Officers will instruct the men in the operation of these ejectors.

II. MEMORIAL FIELD SERVICE.

Members of the department who are veterans of the Spanish-American and World Wars, and who are desirous of participating in the Memorial Field Service on Sunday, May 18, 1930, at Fenway Park, on their off-time, will report to Ladderman Laurence J. Sweeney of Ladder Company 3, at Park square not later than 8.45 a. m.

Because of the large number of members of the department who served in these two wars, who are desirous of participating in the Memorial Field Service, permission is granted to exchange periods of duty. Company commanders will allow time off to such men going off duty that day, who request it, in order to reach the place of assembly in time to participate in the parade.

The regulation uniform of this department with sack coat and white gloves will be worn. Organization badges, war service medals and ribbons may be worn side of the corporation badge.

III. LICENSE APPROVAL.

On account of the great number of licenses coming in for renewal under the new law it is noted that an unreasonably large proportion of "yellow approval sheets" are not forwarded to this department as promptly as might be.

District chiefs are hereby requested to return all such renewal sheets, if they comply with the regulations, as speedily as possible.

In the event of installations or erections which require approval blanks not having been effected or completed, return blanks with Form 5 attached, stating conditions.

By order of Fire Commissioner EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN.

DANIEL F. SENNOTT,
Chief of Department.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7, (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the new style calendar in 1752 to September 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

NEW ORLEANS BUILDING THREE NEW INCINERATORS.

Three new incinerators to cost a total of $700,000 are under construction at New Orleans and will add appreciably to that city's sanitation system. This will make a total of five plants where garbage can be readily disposed of. The plants, according to Commissioner of Public Property John Klorer, will be equipped in the most scientific manner with special provision for the prevention of any smoke nuisance.

The incinerators are conveniently distributed about the city, one of the new ones being almost ready for use. The one now nearing completion can handle 170 tons of garbage every 16 hours with no odor escaping, and its stacks are 125 feet high.

COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAXES BY MUNICIPALITIES.

The collection of delinquent taxes is often neglected by city officials, resulting in a considerable financial loss to the municipality.

The sale of property for taxes usually takes place from one to three years after the taxes have become due and after the publication of a tax sale notice for from three to six weeks. The property is sold at auction to the highest bidder provided that the bid covers the amount of taxes, all unpaid assessments, interest, fees, penalties, and other charges against the property. If the bid is not sufficient to cover these items, the city bids in the property. Property sold for taxes may be redeemed after a period varying from one to three years upon payment of sum sold for, together with interest computed at the rate of 12 per cent per annum. If the property is not redeemed within the prescribed time the purchaser is given either a deed, an estate in fee simple, or an absolute estate in fee, subject only to the lien of unpaid state and county taxes.

In two cities, White Plains and Yonkers, the tax lien is sold. This has worked out very satisfactorily. In Yonkers the problem of the collection of delinquent taxes has been cleared up:

1. By keeping the assessed valuation down to the real present market value, thereby preventing the accumulation of a large amount of uncollectible taxes.
2. By foreclosure, in one action, of large numbers of lots in one ownership.
3. By assignment of tax liens, at full value, to any one applying for same.
4. By resale, at reduced amounts, of tax liens held by the city.
5. By compromise with owners, reducing the amounts due to a sum that will make it worth while for such owners to pay up the city thereby saving foreclosure costs, and immediately placing such property on a taxpaying basis, and at the same time allowing the owners to get out with some equity. Foreclosure should never be resorted to where an owner shows any disposition to compromise.

BOSTON AREA TO WARD LINES.

Total, 30,598 acres (i. e., 47.81 square miles), 2,944 acres being filled land, 1,143 acres water area and 1,436 acres flats. Land area only, 28,019 acres (i. e., 43.78 square miles). Included in the latter are 160 acres of filled flats recently added to the land area of South Boston and 175 acres to that of East Boston.

Original Boston contained about 780 acres of land. Of the twelve leading American cities, eight are larger in land area than Boston, viz., Los Angeles (441 square miles), New York (318), Chicago (199.4), Philadelphia (129), Baltimore (91.9), Detroit (80), Cleveland (56.6) and St. Louis (61.25). The only city in Massachusetts with larger land area is Taunton (50 square miles).

If Boston should expand by annexations as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and others have expanded, its total area, in case of including the thirty-nine cities and towns within the 15-mile radius, would be second to the largest, viz., Los Angeles, the present land area of "Greater Boston" being 409.5 square miles.

AUTOMOBILE FATALITIES.

Automobile fatalities for the months of January and February of this year, as compared with last year, decreased considerably in the cities and increased considerably in the towns and country, as indicated by the Nation-wide reports received by the National Safety Council.

These reports show that the cities had six per cent fewer automobile deaths this year than last year; 61 of the 90 cities that reported showed declines, or no changes at all, as compared with a year ago. But the state-wide reports received during the same period showed an increase of 11 per cent in fatal automobile accidents. In the total, there were an estimated 4,240 motor vehicle deaths during January and February of this year, as compared with 4,220 such fatalities during the same two months of last year.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 8.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,

BOSTON, May 19, 1930.

To All Department Heads.

DEAR SIR,—I am forwarding herewith a copy of letter received from the Corporation Counsel relative to building permits, and request that the recommendations contained therein be complied with.

Very truly yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor.

CITY OF BOSTON,

LAW DEPARTMENT, May 1, 1930.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I have been informed that certain departments of the city have not obtained building permits from the Building Department for construction or alteration of structures under their jurisdiction. The Building Law exempts only the Department of School Buildings. Therefore, it is essential that all other departments of the city obtain building permits. I believe it would be to the advantage of the city to insist that all departments, even the Department of School Buildings, obtain the necessary permit from the Building Department before proceeding to erect or alter a structure. If this is done all the departments will have the benefit of inspection by the Building Department. The various departments will then be able to ascertain whether or not buildings under construction have complied with the law in every respect. If your Honor deems it advisable I would suggest notifying all departments to this effect.

Very truly yours,

SAMUEL SILVERMAN,
Corporation Counsel.

ELECTRIC LAMP, BRADSHAW STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 19, 1930.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from Joseph A. Rourke, Commissioner of Public Works, regarding the possibility of installing an electric arc lamp at Bradshaw and Esmond streets. This is in reply to your order passed April 7, 1930.

Respectfully,

To His Honor the Mayor.

In reply to attached order in Council, dated April 7, requesting the Commissioner of Public Works to install an electric arc lamp at the corner of Bradshaw and Esmond streets, Ward 14, investigation discloses that this location is in a gas lamp residential district, where there are no electric facilities, either overhead or underground, for series arc lamps, so that this installation could be made only at too great an expense to justify it.

Yours respectfully,
JOSEPH A. ROURKE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

VETO OF ORDER IN RE WILLIAM A. CAREY REST.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 17, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my signature, your order passed May 12, 1930, to name a plot of land in Breed square, William A. Carey Rest.

I have expressed the opinion on several occasions that the naming of so-called squares, which are often merely street intersections and junctions, after World War veterans was far from being the most suitable method of honoring them; and have advocated the construction, as a fitting memorial, of a building with tablets containing the names of all who entered the service of their country from this city.

However, the practice of naming squares and intersections after war heroes has become established to such an extent that there are few, if any, locations remaining unnamed. It has been the policy of the city, adopted at the request of the veteran organizations, to use only the names of those who lost their lives during the war, and so far as I can ascertain, this policy has not been deviated from.

Mr. Carey's death did not take place during his service, and while that does not in any way detract from the value of his sacrifice and that of thousands of others who came back from the war gassed and otherwise incapacitated, I am constrained in pursuance of that policy to disapprove the order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

VETO OF ORDER IN RE JOHN WATSON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 14, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith, without my approval, your order making an allowance, under the provisions of chapter 295 of 1930, of $6,500 to John Watson, in compensation for the death of his wife, Rachel S. Watson.

I have approved the order accepting the act, but I believe the amount provided by the City Council is somewhat too large. I am willing to approve a similar order making a total payment of $5,000.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Placed on file.

SALE OF LAND, WEST CEDAR STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 15, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I beg to forward herewith communication received from the Park Commission with reference to land which is in the possession of said department, and which cannot be utilized to advantage.

The municipal real estate expert recommends the sale, at an upset price of from $2 to $2.50 per foot and, in my opinion, it would be advisable to establish an upset price of $3.50.

Accordingly I recommend the adoption of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, April 24, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—In answer to your esteemed communication of April 16, with inclosure, letter from G. Bruce Stuart, addressed to the Municipal Auctioneer, relative to sale of vacant land in the rear of 80 West Cedar street, in which you instruct me to communicate with Mr. Beck, real estate expert, for appraisal and sale of same at public auction. I respectfully submit the following:

The lot in question contains 1,600 square feet and was part of the George F. Parkman estate and is leased and appraised at a value of $2,500 by the appraisers appointed by the Probate Court on November 5, 1908.

The land in question has never been turned over to the Park Department and as far as I can ascertain is under the control of the Trustees of the Parkman Fund. It will be necessary to obtain the consent of the City Council before the land can be sold. The matter came up in 1928, at which time an upset price of $2 per square foot was set for sale at public auction.

I am requesting Mr. Beck for an appraisal as per your instructions.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

City of Boston,
Park Department, May 7, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—On April 16 you referred to me a communication received from G. Bruce Stuart, 185 Devonshire street, relative to sale of vacant land in the rear of 80 West Cedar street, in which you instructed me to communicate with Mr. Beck, real estate expert, for appraisal and sale of same at public auction.

I am this day in receipt of a letter from John Beck in which he states that "the land in the rear of 80 West Cedar street, now in the possession of the city and formerly owned by George F. Parkman, has a frontage on Putnam avenue and is assessed for $2,400 and can be used for residences or apartments not exceeding five stories in height, but he considers it worth more than the assessed value of $1.50 a square foot, probably $2 to $2.50, and advises that if it is offered at public auction sufficient interest should be aroused to enable the city to obtain more than the $2,400 or the assessed valuation."

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

Ordered, That there be sold at public auction, at an upset price of $3,500, land in the possession of the Park Department, and located in rear of 80 West Cedar street, with frontage on Putnam avenue, and now assessed for $2,400.

Referred to Committee on Public Lands.

Coun. RUBY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Trustees of the Boston Public Library be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to establish and maintain branch libraries in the Franklin Field section and the Morton street Blue Hill avenue section of Ward 14.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, for several years I have tried to have established a branch public library in the particular sections specified in this order. The only branch library in the confines of Ward 14 is one located in the Mt. Bowdoin district, on Washington street. I understand that at the present time it is the plan of the Library Trustees to do away with the branch library at the corner of Blue Hill avenue and Babson street, because of the fact that it has outlived its usefulness and that more space is needed. In view of the fact that we have appropriated $200,000 for branch libraries this year, and that nothing has been done in the way of establishing branch libraries for four or five years, as representing that section, the population of which has very largely increased, I have introduced this order looking to additional branch library facilities for the ward. I move a suspension of the rule for the passage of the order, and I trust that the trustees will see fit to establish these libraries.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

LOAN ORDERS, ETC.

President LYNCH called up, under unfinished business, Nos. 2, 3 and 4 on the calendar, viz.:

2. Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 237 of the Acts of 1928 an additional sum of $124,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital, for Children's Pavilion, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount, the same to be issued outside the limit of indebtedness.

On May 5, 1930, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

3. Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 237 of the Acts of 1928 an additional sum of $124,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital, for Children's Pavilion, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

On May 5, 1930, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

4. Whereas, By chapter 385 of the Acts of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the year 1907, the Legislature of the said Commonwealth ordered that the Old State House, at the corner of Washington street and State street, in said Boston, should be preserved as a historical memorial, and that no part thereof should be used for commercial or business purposes; and

Whereas, By an instrument in writing dated May 17, 1910, the said premises were leased to the Bostonian Society, a corporation organized under the Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for the purposes set forth in the Charter of said Bostonian Society for a period of twenty years, and at an annual rental of one hundred (100) dollars, under the terms and conditions set forth in said lease; and

Whereas, The said Bostonian Society is desirous of leasing the said premises for a further period of twenty years at the same rental;

Now, therefore, it is Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor, be, and he hereby is, authorized to execute and deliver to the Bostonian Society, in the name and behalf of the City of Boston, and in form satisfactory to the Law Department of the said City of Boston, a lease wherein the said City of Boston leases to the said Bostonian Society the Old State House, situated at the corner of said Washington street and said State street, for a term of twenty years at an annual rental of one hundred (100) dollars, the said lease to be upon such terms and conditions and with such reservations as his Honor the Mayor may deem expedient.

On May 5, 1930, the foregoing order was read once and passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

The orders were given their second and final reading and passage, yeas 17, nays 0.

CONFIRMATION OF EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.

President LYNCH called up, under unfinished business, No. 1 on the calendar, viz.:

1. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor May 12, 1930, of Philip H. Quinn, Alvin S. Hartman, Thomas H. Butcher, Ernest W. Litch, Walter R. Bowman, Lena Simon, Harold Keane and Leslie A. Pike, to be Weighers of Coal; and Leslie A. Pike, to be a Weigher of Goods.

The question came on confirmation. Committee, Coun. Gallagher and Mahoney. Whole number of ballots, 16; yeas 16, and the appointments were confirmed.

ENTRANCE TO FIELDS CORNER STATION.

Coun. KELLY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Public Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to establish an entrance on Dorchester avenue to the Fields Corner Station of the rapid transit system.

Coun. KELLY—Mr. President, the Fields Corner Station of the rapid transit system is right in the center of Dorchester, and it seems to me that at no time has the Boston Elevated made any attempt to satisfy its patrons in that district. In other words, the present entrance necessitates pedestrians from different parts of the district, who want to use that station, walking a considerable distance. For instance, they have to walk to Charles street from Dorchester avenue, and going from some sections of the ward they have to walk nearly a quarter of a mile, taking a chance of being hit by buses in getting there. I certainly think the trustees of the Boston Elevated ought to consider the people of that section and make an entrance to that station from Dorchester avenue. I ask a suspension of the rule and the passage of the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

REPAVING OF STREETS, WARD 19.

Coun. MURRAY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave with smooth pavement, Bourne street, Ward 19.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave with smooth pavement, Spring Park avenue, Ward 19.

Severally passed under suspension of the rule.

AMBULANCE SERVICE, STATION 13.

Coun. MURRAY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide that Station 13, Jamaica Plain, be covered with police ambulance service.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR VETERANS.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to instruct all department heads to allow leave of absence, without loss of pay, to veterans serving on committees in connection with the American Legion Convention, to be held in Boston on October 6, 7, 8 and 9, 1930.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor, be requested to instruct all department heads to allow leave of absence, without loss of pay, to all veterans participating in the parade to be held during the American Legion Convention in Boston on October 7, 1930.

Severally passed under suspension of the rule.

CONDITIONS AT COULTER'S BEACH.

Coun. FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to eliminate the dangerous condition now existing at Coulter's Beach, Ward 16, by filling in the deep holes made during the dredging of the channel in the Mavin Hill Basin.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALK CONSTRUCTION.

Coun. KELLY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along 55, 57, 59, 61 Olney street, Ward 15, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Coun. GLEASON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Lamont street, both sides, Ward 9, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Downing street, both sides, Ward 9, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Severally passed under suspension of the rule.

LOCKER BUILDING, FRANKLIN PARK GOLF COURSE.

Coun. RUBY offered the following:

Ordered, That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Park Department, for the construction and equipment of a locker building at the Franklin Park golf course, and that to meet such expense the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, at the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I have had several requests along the line of this order. It is well recognized today that the Franklin Park golf course is one of the best patronized golf courses in the Commonwealth, and is easily paying for itself. I understand that today there are about 600 lockers in a very poor and unsatisfactory location in the park and that there is a waiting list of probably 900 or 1,000 people who would like to secure lockers, people who use the Franklin Park golf course. I understand that there are over 1,600 golfers today paying the city $10 each a year for the privilege of using the links and that there are thousands of others who go to these links and pay for the use of the course as they play. I believe the money spent by the city as here proposed would quickly come back, especially when you consider the fact that for the last three or four years there has been an estimated profit on the Franklin Park golf course of anywhere in the neighborhood of $25,000 to $50,000 a year. I trust that the Committee on Finance will meet as soon as possible and report back this order to the City Council for adoption.

The order was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave with smooth pavement, East Second street, from Dorchester to L streets, Ward 6.

THE BOSTON CENSUS.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

President LYNCH—There being no objection, the councilor will proceed.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, last Monday I introduced an order relative to the census enumeration in our ward, and during the week I have received notice from the census enumerators that on a recheck of Ward 13 instead of 28,458 inhabitants there are 29,525. That means a total increase of 1,067 people in that ward. If that kind of mistake has been made in the twenty-two wards of Boston, we can readily see where our city might not receive the proper relative standing to which it is entitled among the other cities of the country. I simply wish to thank the Council for allowing my resolve of last week to be adopted, and I know that there are organizations in our city, that are interested in the welfare of the city, which are extremely pleased with the present showing. I received a letter from the Chamber of Commerce in which they congratulated the Council upon its activity and alertness in this matter, and say that it has achieved results. Now, with the thought in mind not only of the business standing of our city being judged by the number of its inhabitants, but also the thought in mind that our Congressional districts will soon be established and this thousand extra inhabitants in our ward will materially affect our Congressional district, I simply suggest, through you, Mr. Chairman, to other members of this body that if there is any doubt of the situation in their wards they follow the same program of seeing that the figures are rechecked or retabulated; because we all have at heart the interest of the city, and an additional thousand inhabitants in any one of our wards may well have a very important bearing not only on the standing of our city in the country at large, but on our Congressional districts and otherwise. So I trust, if any of you have any doubts about the figures in your wards, you will have them checked up before they are sent to Washington to make sure that they are correct. I think we all realize that Boston is entitled to the place it should properly hold in the matter of population among the cities of the country, and that our wards are also entitled to a full enumeration of their inhabitants.

Adjourned, on motion of Coun. HEIN, at 4.06 p. m., to meet on Monday, May 26, 1930, at 2 p. m.

MAYOR INVITES LINEAL DESCENDANT OF FIRST BOSTON SETTLERS TO VISIT CITY.

Mayor Curley, on May 21, forwarded the following communication to Capt. William Dalrymple Johnson, of Ketten, near Stamford, Rutland, England:

DEAR CAPTAIN JOHNSON,—I have been gratified to learn, through Mr. Charles Knowles Bolton, Secretary and Librarian of the Boston Athenæum, 10½ Beacon street, Boston, Massachusetts, that you are a lineal descendant of Isaac Johnson and Lady Arbella Johnson, who came to Massachusetts in 1630 and settled in Boston.

It is a pleasure to advise you that there are many historians now living in Boston, who believe that the original foundation of our city was made by Isaac Johnson, who led a great pilgrimage of Colonists from Charlestown to this city.

It is a pleasure to advise you that we are this year celebrating the Boston Tercentenary with appropriate ceremonies and I accord you a most heartfelt and cordial invitation to visit Boston during the observances of Boston Week, which begins September fourteenth, with Lady Johnson or some other member of your family.

I sincerely trust I may be honored by an acceptance of this invitation and with assurances of my highest consideration and esteem, I am,

Sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor.

CORPORATION COUNSEL ASKED TO RULE IN PUBLIC BUILDINGS CONTROVERSY.

Mayor Curley, on May 19, forwarded the following communication to Samuel Silverman, the Corporation Counsel:

MY DEAR MR. SILVERMAN,—I beg to forward herewith correspondence in the case of the Finance Commission versus the Superintendent of Public Buildings, John P. Englert.

The Finance Commission base their case against Mr. Englert upon a failure to comply with the statutes in the matter of filing notice of award of contracts and also failure to advertise contracts in conformity with the statutes.

The answer of the Superintendent of Public Buildings is that he was unaware that he was required under the law to file copies of contracts where the amount involved was less than $1,000.

I am desirous that you make a study of the correspondence that has passed between the Finance Commission and the Superintendent of Public Buildings and report to me as to the compliance or non-compliance with the provisions of the statutes and submit the same to me at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor.

MAYOR CURLEY MAGNANIMOUS TOWARD HARVARD "LAMPOON" EDITORS — ACCEPTS APOLOGY HUMBLY OFFERED — OVERLOOKS INCIDENT OF INSULTS OUT OF CONSIDERATION FOR FAMILY AND THE IMMATURITY OF THE YOUNG MAN ASSUMING RESPONSIBILITY.

Mayor Curley magnanimously heeded the pleas for leniency and accepted the apologies of the editors of the "Harvard Lampoon" for the insults an edition of their publication offered him, the City of Boston and the Tercentenary Celebration organizations.

Mayor Curley took this action after he had received the following communication from Paul Brooks, president of the Harvard "Lampoon":

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Being myself responsible for anything which has been published in the recent edition of the Harvard "Lampoon," I wish to apologize for any personal offence which may have been caused. The entire matter was intended as one of jest and was not meant to be taken seriously. The object of the "Lampoon" was neither to ridicule you, the people of Boston, nor the Tercentenary Celebration, for whose success I realize that you are to a very large degree responsible. I deeply regret any false impression which the current number may have caused in the minds of the public. I want to assure you that it was not my intention to attack your personal reputation and honesty in any way, both of which are known to the people of Boston and of the Commonwealth to be of the highest type.

In closing, let me express my regret at any mental discomfiture which I may have caused you or yours,

Very truly yours,

PAUL BROOKS,
President of the Harvard "Lampoon."

The Mayor was moved to accept the apology offered by the president of the "Lampoon," Paul Brooks of Long Island, N. Y., as complete satisfaction for the humiliation and injury done him by libelous cartoons and statements in the tercentenary number of the "Lampoon," because of the extreme youth of the young man and out of consideration for his family, and the effect of court action on his life.

From Counsel Silverman the Mayor learned that Brooks was a youth who seemed to be sincere in his offer of apology. Thereupon, the Mayor called a stenographer and dictated this statement:

"The complete and abject apology of the president of the Harvard 'Lampoon,' Paul Brooks, in view of his extreme youth and the effect that court proceedings might have on his future, prompts me to accept the apology made, and, so far as I am concerned, the incident is closed."

privilege of your company on some occasion during the Boston convention, I am,

Very sincerely,

LAWRENCE WHITTY.

MAYOR CURLEY FELICITATES MACNIDER ON APPOINTMENT AS MINISTER TO CANADA.

Mayor Curley, on May 22, forwarded the following telegram to Hon. Hanford MacNider, at Mason City, Iowa:

Your appointment by President Hoover as United States Minister to Dominion of Canada is finest recognition which American Nation has paid to members of the American Legion. Kindly accept my sincere and earnest congratulation and every good and sincere wish for your administration at Ottawa. It is high time that this country should recognize in our diplomatic and consular appointments the members of the American Expeditionary Forces who upon the field of France won the greatest war in history and saved for our posterity the blessings of human liberty and the world's civilization.

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

COSULICH LINE SHIP "SATURNIA" MAKES FIRST CALL AT BOSTON FOR PASSENGERS.

Mayor Curley, on May 24, received the following communication from Frank S. Davis, Director of the Maritime Association of the Boston Chamber of Commerce:

MY DEAR MAYOR,—The first direct result following your announcement that a regular service is to be maintained at this port by the Cosulich Line will be a call of the motorship "Saturnia," 24,000 registered tons, at Commonwealth Pier, to embark three hundred passengers on Friday, May 30, at ten o'clock daylight saving time.

The widow of former Chief Justice Taft is listed among the passengers from New York.

It is the largest motorship that has ever called at the port of Boston in overseas service. The "Saturnia" is scheduled to leave Boston about 1 p. m. and I am sure that some special exercises to mark the event would be helpful. When I recently interviewed Mr. Guiseppe Cosulich, the company's executive in America, he expressed the hope that enough business would be developed to eventually warrant expansion of the Boston service, and explained that it would be somewhat contingent upon a reduction of our port charges, which matter is now being given attention.

It would be exceedingly helpful if you could arrange to make a brief address to the large gathering that will be on hand to witness the departure of the steamer and also if there could be some music and the usual display of fireboats as the steamer goes down the harbor. I will undertake to arrange for the airplane escort. Possibly, you will wish to have Judge Leveroni say a few words in his native language. Speaking exercises should be scheduled to begin at 11.30 a. m. daylight saving time, at Commonwealth Pier.

Respectfully,

FRANK S. DAVIS,
Manager, Maritime Division.

BOSTON WILL ENTERTAIN NOTED FRENCH GUESTS ON JULY 4 DURING TERCENTENARY CEREMONIES.

Mayor Curley has extended an invitation to Hon. Jules Henry, Charge de Affairs of the French Embassy, Washington, D. C., to be a guest of honor at the Boston Tercentenary ceremony of July 4, 1930.

The invitation of Mayor Curley was extended by Hon. J. C. Joseph Flamand, Honorary Consul of France in Boston, at the French Embassy in Washington, upon Mayor Curley's request.

M. Henry has accepted the invitation. He has further agreed to invite his Excellency, Hon. Gaston Doumergue, President of the French Republic, to also come to Boston upon July 4, 1930, or to send a distinguished representative from Paris upon a French battleship.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

FARM BUREAU FEDERATION INVITES 3,600 ORGANIZATIONS TO CONVENE IN BOSTON IN DECEMBER.

Mayor Curley, on May 26, received the following communication from Howard S. Russell, Secretary of the Massachusetts Farm Bureau Federation:

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I am inclosing a copy of the letter which we are just sending to 3,600 farm organizations and leaders in counties all over the country. I thought you would be interested in it.

We shall follow this with probably two other letters, one in the summer and one in the fall. This is to be accompanied by an excellently illustrated descriptive circular of Boston.

HOWARD S. RUSSELL.

To Your Farm Bureau:

Boston invites you and all the farm people of the whole country to come to the American Farm Bureau Convention next December.

Nineteen hundred and thirty marks the three hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and of the beginning of free government in North America. It will also be celebrated as the three hundredth anniversary of the beginning of agriculture by free men in this free country. Boston, therefore, will be a highly appropriate place for the meeting of the farmers from all parts of the country who make up the American Farm Bureau Federation.

We of the Eastern States are making great preparations for this event. The convention itself will be fully up to the high standard set in recent years. In addition, there will be an historical agricultural exhibition showing ancient tools, time-honored varieties of agricultural products, and household equipment of former times. The New England Fruit Show, with a handsome exhibit of fruits, vegetables and flowers from all the New England States will be held at the same time.

There will be an opportunity to visit Lexington, Concord, Plymouth and Salem. You can see the original Concord grapevine, the original Baldwin apple trees and go to the place where the Danver, onion and carrot originated. You may visit Harvard, Wellesley, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Radcliffe, and a score of other colleges. You may see your cotton and wool made into beautiful fabrics, your hides into shoes, and meet the firms that distribute your fruits and vegetables to the great consuming public. The City of Boston itself is a treasure house of interesting sights.

Plan now to come to Boston for the convention on December 8, 9, and 10, and spend the rest of the week in historic Massachusetts as our guests.

Very truly yours,

HOWARD S. RUSSELL,
Secretary.

AIRPORTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The number of airports in the country continues to grow steadily, and the listing compiled by the Department of Commerce showed 1,520 airports in operation on October 2 of this year. Of these, 442 were municipal airports, and 468 were privately owned and operated. The rest included army fields, naval air stations, Department of Commerce intermediate fields, marked auxiliary fields and miscellaneous others. As will be noted, the municipal airports comprise 29 per cent of the total number now in use in the country. The fact that 442 cities of various sizes have indicated their interest by investing substantial funds in the purchase of property and construction of these airports illustrates the stability of aviation today. As indicative of the volume of traffic already in evidence at municipal airports, it might be noted that in a recent representative week the Des Moines airport showed 88 airplanes arriving and 86 leaving. Oakland, California, showed 55 arriving, 52 leaving; while the Tulsa, Oklahoma, airport showed 272 arriving and 265 leaving. These figures are constantly increasing, and they show that the city airport is already being used.

PORT OF BOSTON.

Boston Harbor comprises an area of about 47 square miles (exclusive of the islands), including all the expanse of tidewater within a straight line from Point Allerton to Point Shirley and extending therefrom to the mainland. It is the best of natural harbors, near open sea, sheltered and spacious for anchorage; main ship channel 35 feet in depth at mean low water, increasing to 40 feet from President Roads to open sea; new dredging operations in charge of United States engineers are under way for increasing depth of said main channel to 40 feet; waterfront (i. e., lineal pier space) 40 miles, 6 miles fronting on 30 feet depth at low water.

Commonwealth Pier No. 5, South Boston, 1,200 feet long, 400 feet wide, accommodating five 600-foot ships at one time, 40 feet depth at mean low water on both sides, with three 2-story fireproof buildings of steel and concrete construction, containing 900,000 square feet of floor space, total cost of this enterprise to State, $4,500,000. Commonwealth Pier No. 6, South Boston (Fish Pier), buildings on same erected by lessee, Boston Fish Market Corporation, cost to State, $1,487,361. Commonwealth Pier, No. 1, East Boston, 900 feet long, costing State $764,600 for site and $426,674 for construction. New dry dock at South Boston (probably the largest in world), completed in 1919, 1,200 feet long and 120 wide, costing $3,169,651 and taken by United States Government at total cost.

Islands in Boston Harbor over 3 acres in area, 17, with total area of 965 acres; Long Island the largest, or 215.5 acres. Owned by United States, 392 acres; by City of Boston, 334 acres. Number of wharves, 143, of which eight are owned by the city.

There are 38 foreign steamship lines with regular sailings to and from Boston, ten coastwise lines and three intercoastal. In 1915 a revision of the harbor lines was made and the project undertaken whereby 600 acres of flats between Governor's Island and Jeffries Pt. will be filled in and used for extensive commercial developments under State control. About 175 acres of flats have recently been filled in and added to the land area of East Boston and 160 acres to that of South Boston.

In April, 1918, the Government decided to establish its Army Supply Base on a portion of the Commonwealth lands in South Boston. About 57.6 acres were purchased of the State, the price being $1,317,510, soon followed by the construction of two pier sheds, each 920 feet long, a wharf shed and other buildings, including one of the largest storehouses in the world, built of reinforced concrete, eight stories high, 1,638 feet long, 126 feet wide and with floor space of over 1,650,000 square feet. The total outlay for the plant was $26,000,000.

Total expenditure by State for improvement of Boston Harbor $22,575,827 from 1859 to November 30, 1927, inclusive; in the same period, there was expended additionally $951,992 on small channels; total Federal expenditure from 1790 to June 30, 1927, $13,258,846.

FLAG DAYS.

By order of the City Council it is the duty of the City Messenger to have the national colors displayed upon the public flagstuffs on the following days:

Franklin's Birthday, January 17; Lincoln's Birthday, February 12; Washington's Birthday, February 22; Evacuation Day, March 17; Patriot's Day, April 19; Grant's Birthday, April 27; Memorial Day, May 30; Anniversary of Adoption of National Colors, June 14; Bunker Hill Day, June 17; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day, September (first Monday); Anniversary of Foudning of Boston, September 17; Columbus Day, October 12; Armistice Day, November 11.

THE COST OF DIPHTHERIA.

Diphtheria costs New York City over $5,000,000 annually, according to Dr. Shirley W. Wynne, Health Commissioner of New York, whose statement, given in a news release from the department, is based on the calculations of the value of the lives lost, the cost of hospital care, and the expense of caring for patients in their homes.

Last year the loss occasioned by diphtheria in New York City was as follows:

Value of 642 human lives lost.....	$4,575,000
Cost of hospital care for 2,976 cases in the Contagious Disease Hospitals.....	391,000
Cost of caring for 7,800 cases in private homes.....	273,000
	$5,139,000

As against an annual economic loss of over $5,000,000 a year it is stated that an expenditure of less than 10 per cent of this sum will suffice to wipe out diphtheria and thus save the community $4,500,000 annually.

Figures by the New York City Department of Health show that thus far this year over 25,000 children have been immunized against diphtheria, nearly 12,000 having been protected by private physicians. The growing interest on the part of parents is well shown in the steady increase in the number of children immunized, which increased from 555 in the first week of the present campaign to 4,702 during the first week in April, or almost ninefold.

MUNICIPALITY TAKES OVER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AIRPORT.

Oklahoma City has voted $425,000 in bonds for the enlargement and improvement of its municipal airport. The Aviation Committee of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce has operated the airport for the past four years and was largely instrumental in putting over the bond-issue campaign. The port will in the future be operated by the city as a strictly municipal project.

When completed, the new field will comprise 360 acres and will meet all of the qualifications for an A 1A airport as set forth by the United States Department of Commerce.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS REDUCE BALTIMORE TRAFFIC TOLL.

An analysis of traffic accidents at street intersections in Baltimore indicates that the automatic traffic signal is proving very effective in reducing the number of such accidents.

There were 419 traffic accidents at all intersections covered in the report issued by the Baltimore Safety Council for the first six months of 1927, before the signals were installed. In direct contrast, only 259 such accidents were recorded for the first six months of this year, with the signals in operation.

The casualties were: one person killed and 129 injured before the installation of the signals, as compared with two killed but only 92 injured after. A reduction in the number of accidents was reported at thirty-two intersections, following the installation of the signals, while seventeen other intersections have shown little or no change as yet, and ten actually have experienced an increase since the use of the signals.

THROUGH TRAFFIC STREETS.

Many a city government, confronted almost unawares by the ever-increasing traffic problem, has seized upon the "through street" idea as the least expensive sop to those who clamor for something to relieve the distress. This situation is reflected in many city traffic ordinances which give absolute right-of-way to vehicles on any of the "arterial highways" included in a long list, and which fail entirely to provide for stop requirements, signs, enforcement facilities, or public education. Unfortunately, traffic regulation is not so simple. It cannot be successfully accomplished by merely designating certain through streets.

Still, through streets are useful. Their successful application depends only on an understanding of what can and what cannot be expected of them, and on a realization of where they fit into the traffic control picture. Consider a street as it develops with the increasing traffic from a minor highway to a heavily traveled main thoroughfare. Traffic control will logically develop in successive steps something like these:

1. No control at all.
2. Slow or stop signs at isolated intersections.
3. Through streets with stop signs at every intersection.
4. Occasional automatic signals introduced where there is heavy cross traffic.
5. Complete flexible progressive signal control.
6. Grade separation at important intersecting streets.
7. Elevated or depressed roadway without intersecting streets.

SETTLEMENT OF BOSTON, 1630.

Effected by Puritan colonists under Governor John Winthrop in the latter part of August, 1630. The name of the original settlement was changed to Boston from Trimountaine by order of the Court of Assistants on September 7, (O. S.), 1630. This date was moved forward by the new style calendar in 1752 to September 17, the recognized date of the founding of Boston. The name, Trimountaine, had been given because of the three peaks of the most prominent hill, afterward called Beacon Hill, much higher then than now. By the Indians the place was called Shawmut. The name, Boston, was derived from the English town of Boston in Lincolnshire, the home of some of the leading colonists and promoters of the enterprise.

NEW ORLEANS BUILDING THREE NEW INCINERATORS.

Three new incinerators to cost a total of $700,000 are under construction at New Orleans and will add appreciably to that city's sanitation system. This will make a total of five plants where garbage can be readily disposed of. The plants, according to Commissioner of Public Property John Klorer, will be equipped in the most scientific manner with special provision for the prevention of any smoke nuisance.

The incinerators are conveniently distributed about the city, one of the new ones being almost ready for use. The one now nearing completion can handle 170 tons of garbage every 16 hours with no odor escaping, and its stacks are 125 feet high.

COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAXES BY MUNICIPALITIES.

The collection of delinquent taxes is often neglected by city officials, resulting in a considerable financial loss to the municipality.

The sale of property for taxes usually takes place from one to three years after the taxes have become due and after the publication of a tax sale notice for from three to six weeks. The property is sold at auction to the highest bidder provided that the bid covers the amount of taxes, all unpaid assessments, interest, fees, penalties, and other charges against the property. If the bid is not sufficient to cover these items, the city bids in the property. Property sold for taxes may be redeemed after a period varying from one to three years upon payment of sum sold for, together with interest computed at the rate of 12 per cent per annum. If the property is not redeemed within the prescribed time the purchaser is given either a deed, an estate in fee simple, or an absolute estate in fee, subject only to the lien of unpaid state and county taxes.

In two cities, White Plains and Yonkers, the tax lien is sold. This has worked out very satisfactorily. In Yonkers the problem of the collection of delinquent taxes has been cleared up:

1. By keeping the assessed valuation down to the real present market value, thereby preventing the accumulation of a large amount of uncollectible taxes.

2. By foreclosure, in one action, of large numbers of lots in one ownership.

3. By assignment of tax liens, at full value, to any one applying for same.

4. By resale, at reduced amounts, of tax liens held by the city.

5. By compromise with owners, reducing the amounts due to a sum that will make it worth while for such owners to pay up the city thereby saving foreclosure costs, and immediately placing such property on a taxpaying basis, and at the same time allowing the owners to get out with some equity. Foreclosure should never be resorted to where an owner shows any disposition to compromise.

BOSTON AREA TO WARD LINES.

Total, 30,598 acres (i. e., 47.81 square miles), 2,944 acres being filled land, 1,143 acres water area and 1,436 acres flats. Land area only, 28,019 acres (i. e., 43.78 square miles). Included in the latter are 160 acres of filled flats recently added to the land area of South Boston and 175 acres to that of East Boston.

Original Boston contained about 780 acres of land. Of the twelve leading American cities, eight are larger in land area than Boston, viz., Los Angeles (441 square miles), New York (318), Chicago (199.4), Philadelphia (129), Baltimore (91.9), Detroit (80), Cleveland (56.6) and St. Louis (61.25). The only city in Massachusetts with larger land area is Taunton (50 square miles).

If Boston should expand by annexations as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and others have expanded, its total area, in case of including the thirty-nine cities and towns within the 15-mile radius, would be second to the largest, viz., Los Angeles, the present land area of "Greater Boston" being 409.5 square miles.

CHICAGO POLICE ALLOW SPEED ON SAFETY BASIS.

Traffic police in Chicago have been ordered to make a "sane application" of the law on speeding, determining the relation of an automobile's speed to the hazards it may create, according to "Chicago Commerce," published by the Association of Commerce of that city.

Such an interpretation of the law is new to Chicago, but is based on the experience of Michigan police and of those in other states where speed limits have been legally removed in favor of the enforcement of cautious driving.

"The Illinois statute," states Police Commissioner William F. Russell, "makes it illegal to drive at a speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic and the use of the way, or so as to endanger the life or limb or injure the property of any person."

"The following types of fast driving are particularly dangerous and must be stopped:

"Cutting in and out of traffic at excessive speed.

"Excessive speed while approaching or passing pedestrians in the street.

"Excessive speed while approaching an intersection where the view of the other street is obstructed.

"Driving at high speed on a boulevard or through street in such a manner as to prevent other drivers from entering or crossing the same after they have made the legal stop.

"Driving at excessive speed while turning a corner where pedestrians are crossing."

"Driving at excessive speed at any time where an accident results, causing injury to any person or property."

BOYLSTON STREET SUBWAY EXTENSION WORK AT GOVERNOR SQUARE SOON TO BEGIN — ACHIEVEMENT OF YEARS OF EFFORT BY MAYOR CURLEY TO PROVIDE TRANSIT RELIEF FOR BRIGHTON AND ALLSTON CITIZENS — STARTED PLANS IN HIS SECOND ADMINISTRATION.

DRAWING PLAN OF BOYLSTON STREET SUBWAY EXTENSION, WORK ON WHICH IS ABOUT TO BEGIN FOR RELIEF OF TRAFFIC CONGESTION AND AID OF CITIZENS OF GROWING DISTRICT.

With the beginning of actual work on the extension of the subway at Governor square, Mayor Curley has secured results of an effort that was begun in his previous administration for better service for the residents of the Brighton and Allston districts. Long ago it was determined by him that the citizens needed relief from the congested traffic at this point and the delays and hamperings that they were forced to endure. With the work now begun it is expected that when completed much of the disorder and delay will be overcome and a more satisfied citizenry will result.

The signing of the bill by Governor Allen for the removal of the surface tracks from Governor square brings to a close the long drawn-out agitation for relief from congestion at this point. The demand for this relief was started by Mayor Curley over five years ago when, early in 1925, he petitioned the Legislature for authority to extend the Boylston Street Subway beyond Governor square. The General Court of that year passed the necessary legislation, chapter 341, but the Elevated trustees have consistently declined to accept the terms of the act which provided for a rental sufficient to cover interest charges and the establishment of a sinking fund to amortize the debt.

Since that time repeated attempts to secure an agreement between the parties in interest have failed. Shortly after assuming office this year Mayor Curley called into conference the public trustees and the directors of the Elevated, the Transit Commission and the Law Department of the city, and after several meetings with the committees of the Legislature, the bill which has now received the approval of the Governor was finally agreed upon.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

EXTENSION BOYLSTON STREET SUBWAY.

The bill specifically provides that the Elevated shall pay an annual rental of $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent, or \$140,000 a year on the cost of the extension, which is estimated at \$3,100,000. In the event of a deficit at the close of any year in the reserve fund provided by the Public Control Act of 1918, and the Elevated does not meet in whole or in part this rental obligation, the city will assume one half of such amount and the cities and towns making up the district created by the 1918 Act will be assessed for the remainder. Boston's share of this assessment will approximate 72 per cent.

Mayor Curley is convinced, however, that there will be no deficit on account of this extension because of the savings of the Elevated which must result from the elimination of the constant delays at this important junction point; delays which are reflected throughout the entire subway.

The act further provides that before the Transit Commission can proceed with the work of construction certain acceptances and contract requirements must be carried out. The act must be accepted both by vote of the City Council, approved by the Mayor, and by the directors of the Boston Elevated Railway Company. A contract between the City of Boston and the Elevated for the use of the extension must be executed and a plan showing the location of the extension must be approved by the Department of Public Utilities of the Commonwealth.

The approved plan provides for the removal of the existing incline and the erection of a large underground transfer station in Governor square, with entrances from the sidewalks on either side. Cars on the Beacon street line will enter and leave through an incline in Beacon street east of the Boston & Albany Railroad Bridge; and Commonwealth avenue cars will enter and leave through an incline in the Commonwealth Avenue Reservation near Blandford street.

It is estimated that the average time saved to trolley car riders using these lines will amount to about eight minutes on each round trip. Also, it will be the first step in helping to solve the automobile traffic problem at this junction.

Mayor Curley on June 2 forwarded the bill to the City Council recommending its early acceptance, and also requested the Elevated directors to call a special meeting as soon as possible to act thereon. It is sincerely to be hoped that these acceptances will be given without undue delay, thus clearing the way for prompt action in the construction of this long delayed and necessary rapid transit improvement.

CREDIT MEN'S CONVENTION ACCEPTS MAYOR'S INVITATION FOR 1931 SESSION IN BOSTON.

Mayor Curley, on May 23, received the following communication from J. M. Paul, Secretary of the Boston Credit Men's Association, which held convention at Dallas, Texas, May 12 to 16:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

HONORABLE DEAR SIR,—The National Association of Credit Men, of which the Boston Credit Men's Association is an affiliated unit, held its thirty-fifth annual convention at Dallas, Texas, May 12 to 16.

As you have been advised, the Boston delegates attended this convention with authority to extend an invitation to the National Association of Credit Men to hold its 1931 convention in Boston, which they did, and we are pleased to advise that the invitation was accepted by unanimous vote of the National Directors, and the 1931 convention of the National Association of Credit Men will be held in Boston.

This convention will bring between 2,000 and 3,000 delegate credit men to Boston from every state in the Union, and we think you will agree contains exceptional possibilities for favorably advertising the business interests of New England.

One interesting incident occurred which so favorably supported Boston's invitation as to appear almost as a collusion between the Dallas News and the Boston delegates. On the morning of May 12, the opening day of the convention, the Dallas News carried as its leading editorial "New England—Going or Coming."

Fearing that some of the delegates might miss these kind words for New England, we had the editorial reprinted for distribution at the closing session on Friday, and we enclose copy as we feel you will be interested in reading what they have to say in Texas about New England's progressiveness.

Your telegram supporting our invitation assisted greatly in strengthening our invitation, and we wish to express our appreciation and gratitude for your timely cooperation.

With kindest regards,

BOSTON CREDIT MEN'S ASSOCIATION,

J. M. PAUL, Secretary.

Riordan in said order and inserting in place thereof the amount of $350; that the amount of $350 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to John J. Riordan for the damages so sustained.

CONSOLIDATION OF COUNTIES TO REDUCE TAXES.

Just as consolidation of small business under holding or managing companies reduces overhead costs, it is fair to believe that consolidation of small counties into larger units would reduce taxes through eliminating duplicating offices, etc.

New York has a plan for recasting more than 60 counties into 37 units, and Tennessee, after already having merged 2 counties, now plans to merge the 95 counties in the state into 11 new units.

The results of Tennessee's experience in merging Hamilton and James counties in 1919, as portrayed by J. W. Manning of Vanderbilt University, are interesting. He points out that taxes in James County have been reduced one half, paved highways have been increased from two miles to fifty miles, and many manufacturing plants have entered the county because of the reduction in taxes. The results in New York and Tennessee will be watched with interest by the whole country.

The Board of Merit for 1929 has submitted the following report and recommendations to the Fire Commissioner. The Board comprised Chief of Department Daniel F. Sennott, Deputy Chief Albert J. Caulfield, Deputy Chief Frank A. Sweeney, Deputy Chief Henry J. Power, Deputy Chief John J. Kelley, Deputy Chief Thomas H. Downey, and Deputy Chief William F. Quigley.

Recommended that the John E. Fitzgerald Medal for 1929 be awarded to Capt. Joseph P. Hanton of Engine Company 33 for his determination and courage in effecting the rescue of Mrs. Rose Dumas who was found in an unconscious state from the inhalation of smoke and heat at a fire at 568 Columbus avenue, Box 221, November 30, 1929. Captain Hanton performed this rescue with great danger to himself.

Recommended that the Walter Scott Medal for 1929 be awarded to Hoseman John J. Boyle of Engine Company 27 for the meritorious rescue performed by him at fire at 166 and 168 Bunker Hill street, Box 4161, August 21, 1929. Previous to the arrival of the fire apparatus in response to the alarm Hoseman John J. Boyle, while off duty, became aware of a fire in the above-mentioned building and ran to the scene of the fire and saw a woman seventy-nine years of age in a window on the second floor entirely surrounded by fire. Hoseman Boyle climbed the water spout and swung into the window and attempted to extinguish the fire from her clothing, then dropped her to the arms of citizens below. Hoseman Boyle was scorched about the face and hands and performed this rescue with great danger to himself.

Recommended that the name of William O. Cheswell of Ladder Company 1 be placed on the Roll of Merit for the meritorious manner in which he rescued a citizen who was found asleep in a bedroom on the second floor of the building at 193 Endicott street. At the time of the rescue the building was heavily charged with smoke, had not been ventilated and a threatening fire was in progress. The rescue was made under the most trying conditions.

Recommended that the name of John J. Martin of Ladder Company 13 be placed on the Roll of Merit for the meritorious manner in which he effected the rescue of Arthur Strand at the fire at 568 Columbus avenue, Box 221, November 30, 1929. Ladderman Martin exposed himself to danger in making the rescue and was burned about the hands while performing the act.

Ladderman Michael F. Hurley of Ladder Company 13 is especially commended for the very efficient assistance he rendered in the rescue of Arthur Strand at the fire at 568 Columbus avenue, Box 221, November 30, 1929.

Apparatus Operator Joseph H. Collins of Engine Company 25 is especially commended for the initiative and judgment which he showed while attending a performance in the Imperial Theater, East Broadway, South Boston, on July 23, 1929, when a slight fire occurred in the motion picture booth. Apparatus Operator Collins promptly ran the house line, extinguished the fire and assisted in calming approximately three hundred children attending the theater, thus helping to prevent a panic.

REPORT TO SCHOOL COMMITTEE ON INTERNATIONAL CON- GRESS ON MENTAL HYGIENE.

The report of Katherine C. Coveney, assistant director, Department of Special Classes, of her attendance at the International Congress on Mental Hygiene held in Washington, May 5 to 10, has been presented to the School Committee at its meeting of June 2, 1930, and placed on file. The report follows:

BOSTON, May 22, 1930.

DR. JEREMIAH E. BURKE, Superintendent, Boston Public Schools.

MY DEAR DR. BURKE,—I am submitting my report of attendance at the International Congress on Mental Hygiene held in Washington, D. C., from May 5 to May 10, 1930, to which I was sent as a representative of the Boston Public Schools.

The American Association for the Feeble-minded and the American Psychiatric Association held their 1930 meetings in connection with the congress. My interest was primarily with the first group and the first three days of the week were spent listening to the lectures given by that group, of which there were eleven in all.

The opening session began with a discussion of Sexual Sterilization by Dr. Harvey Watkins, Superintendent of Polk State School, Polk, Pennsylvania. He spoke of the crowded conditions existing in institutions for the feeble-minded and the need of something being done to help a serious existing condition. He gave a brief history of sterilization in the United States, presenting an analysis of twenty-four states having laws dealing with the same and stated the defects in existing laws. The results of a questionnaire sent to the members of the American Association for the Study of the Feeble-minded to show approval or disapproval of the movement were also given. The speaker believed that selective sterilization was not a panacea nor cure-all for the lessening of feeble-mindedness, but part of a program to be used in individual and selected cases.

The next speaker was Mr. Charles Scott Berry, professor of Education at the University of Michigan. His was an eminently practical and common-sense discussion showing an intimate knowledge of the needs of children in special class. He stressed the importance of the right kind of education for the mentally defective children, claiming that it has more social significance than the education of an equal number of children of average intelligence. He went on to say that as mental defectives are being trained for unskilled labor which does not require a high mental age, programs must be planned accordingly. Success in unskilled occupations requires health, strength, endurance and motor coordination. In their training, then, emphasis should be placed on the development of those characteristics by health instruction, physical training, games, sports and a wide variety of manual activities.

Judgment and reasoning should be developed indirectly through the physical and motor education of the individual and substitutions for judgment and reasoning, namely, imitation and habit, should be stressed. The fact that the mental defective learns slowly and forgets easily means that he should be taught only that which he needs to know and only when he needs to know it so that there will be little loss through disuse.

In the last paper of the morning Dr. Edgar Doll, the well known Research Director of the Vineland, New Jersey, training school, discussed mental health in special education instead of psychology, in which he is such an authority. He said the special class has a mental health value for children of school age besides promoting more effective public school instruction for such children. A classification clinic combining the resources of medical, psychological, psychiatric and social work is an indispensable prerequisite of special education.

The afternoon session opened with an interesting paper by Dr. Ward Millias of the Rome State School, New York. He believes that emotions color the life of mental defectives as well as the life of normals. He continued, their influence upon behavior is so far reaching that no systematic study of human relations can be undertaken without consideration of their importance on the life scheme. Idiots, imbeciles and morons who show temper tantrums when frustrated reveal the devastating force of uncontrolled emotive force. People have not only intelligence quotients but ability quotients as well. It is this that predicts the probable effect of emotional life upon intelligence. If the emotional drive can be properly directed in accordance with the individual's physical constitution, the training of the mental defectives is much advanced.

Doctor Wells of the Boston Psychopathic Hospital was not present to read his own paper which dealt with attempts made by him to extend the scope of quantitative methods in development of psychometrics. He suggested, moreover, the need of developing the qualitative approach. Techniques dealing with ethical situations and emotional patterns are of particular concern to mental hygiene.

The last paper of the day, by Helen Montague, psychiatrist, Children's Court, New York, was particularly interesting because it was based on the report of an intensive study of 307 mentally defective boys who passed through the clinic during the last year. She found that delinquency was due to two outstanding factors: first, home conditions, and, second, to the restlessness and dissatisfaction of boys in the schools which they attend. She recommended strongly that much more opportunities be offered to these boys for shop activities and said that already plans are being made to carry this on more intensively in New York.

Tuesday morning session opened with a paper by Dr. Ransom A. Greene of the Walter E. Fernald State School on a comparison and relationship of psychoses and mental deficiencies—a rather technical paper for doctors rather than educators.

Dr. Neil Dayton, Director of Research of the Massachusetts State Department of Mental Diseases, attempted to prove that difficult labor is an etiological factor in mental deficiency and based his conclusions on a study of the 20,473 first examinations of retarded children in Massachusetts.

The paper of Doctor Myerson, Professor of Psychiatry at Tufts Medical School, provoked more discussion than any of the papers previously read. His paper was entitled, "Pathological and Biological Bases of Mental Deficiency," and an abstract follows. It is impossible to define feeble-mindedness because it is due to no unitary condition. One ought to speak of feeble-mindedness instead of various types of feeble-mindedness. There is one group in which something has happened to the individual of a pathological nature which accounts for his feeble-mindedness. These are cases in which we primarily deal with diseases rather than biological variants.

The second group is made up of cases in which there is no evidence of definite disease. Individuals in this group vary from the normal in the quality of intelligence. The conclusion reached as a result of his paper was that statistical studies, while perhaps necessary for the proper elucidation of the problem of feeble-minded, are secondary to the physiology of the feeble-minded. It was this statement that provoked much discussion.

Wednesday morning Mr. Robert York, Director of Vocations Colonies and Paroles of Rome State School, talked on Placement of the Feeble-minded in Industry. His paper considered only the lower grade morons in their development through manual education. Nevertheless the results shown were so splendid that educators dealing with higher grade children in public schools ought to feel most hopeful of their future adjustment in industry. He confirmed a belief that I have long held that when we do not attempt something in farm trainings for our special class boys we are letting slip a wonderful opportunity for their special adjustment and well-being.

The session closed with a simple, direct and clear-cut paper by Doctor Murdock, Superintendent of the Minnesota State School for the Feeble-minded, on principles involved in the construction and organization of an Institution for the Mental Defectives.

Tuesday afternoon I attended a conference for those interested in recreational work. The value of simple and inexpensive material for low-grade children was emphasized. Brightly painted boxes, barrels and broom sticks placed in a school yard cost little but were very useful in promoting activity and interest.

Wednesday a small group interested in public school work had lunch together and discussed a most important subject—the boys and girls between fourteen and sixteen years. The opinion of those who had experience in the education of this group seemed to be that they should be given an opportunity to attend junior high schools where training along advanced vocational lines should be offered. This was in line with Miss Montague's paper from which I have already quoted.

Thursday afternoon I visited a semi-private school for high-grade defective girls at Brooklands. The school is carried on by the Benedictine Sisters under the personal direction of Doctor Moore, the clinical psychologist of the Providence Hospital.

The only social event connected with the group of meetings was a dinner at which Doctor Wallace, the president, made the only speech. He stressed the importance of discovering these retarded children early in their school careers and placing them either in special classes or in institutions, and the need for adjustment from an emotional standpoint.

The International Congress opened formally Tuesday evening at the beautiful new hall of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Delegates representing forty-eight countries sat on the platform and were presented by countries to the officials of the congress. It was all very formal and very interesting.

Interest centered around Mr. Clifford W. Beers, the author of "A Mind That Found Itself," written twenty-two years ago, the one directly responsible for starting the mental hygiene movement. Other speakers were Rev. Anson Phelps Stokes, one of the original group of organizers, Dr. William Welch and Dr. William White, the president.

There were three daily meetings and one evening meeting of the congress beginning on Tuesday, and the method of carrying on these lectures was rather unusual. There were advance copies of all lectures given out the first day. During the meeting the principal speakers did not read their papers, merely a brief synopsis of what they had written. Then three or four representatives from different countries discussed the paper and later it was thrown open to all the assembly. The original lecturer at the close summed up the principal points of the other speakers. Many of those taking part in the discussion spoke in their native language which was afterwards translated by an interpreter.

It was not until Thursday morning that I was able to attend a congress meeting and heard Miss Evelyn Fox of England open the discussion of Community Schemes for the Social Control of Mental Defectives. In her opinion, defectives should be socially controlled in their own homes by a system of social service. Doctor Wallace of the Wrentham State School opened the discussion presenting the failure of low-grade mental defectives to adjust themselves to home conditions and the difficulties that arise in trying to adjust the normal children to home life where there is a defective brother or sister. He also said that such a child is alone in a normal family without mates and the companionship which even such a one craves. The discussion was continued by Doctor Querido of Netherlands, Doctor Brandeis of Czechoslovakia and Dr. L. van Shalkwyk. They presented conditions existing in their respective countries rather than a discussion of Miss Fox's paper.

The next discussion I attended was the other extreme of education,—Dr. Leta Stetter Hollingsworth on the Superior Child, or the child with an I. Q. of 130 or more. She said that children of superior intelligence are not as a group socially annoying. Their problems are the problems of children, not problems of society. This group of children is not only superior in intelligence but also in emotional stability and control. They have their school problems and among them are—that their special abilities are never genuinely challenged and they daily practice habits of idleness and day dreaming as a result. She advocated enrichment of program.

Owing to the fact that the President of the United States was receiving all members of the congress at noon the discussion of this paper was eliminated.

I appreciate the opportunity afforded me to attend this congress and meet the outstanding figures in this movement of mental hygiene, not only in the United States but all over the world. Wallin, Kuhlman, Moore, Doll, Davies, Goddard, are now more than names. Shaking hands with them, talking with them, has revealed the touch of nature, making us all kin in our efforts for the betterment of the special groups under discussion. I can report no fresh ideas, no assured helps for our problems, but it was worthwhile to feel that we in Boston are in sympathy with the best thoughts elsewhere. I was particularly interested in the reiterated expression of:

1. Earlier examination of children.
2. Farm training for older boys.

3. Follow up of special class children in employment.

The advanced printings of the speeches of the congress previously referred to I have placed in the Administration Library. They are forty-five in number and cover every phase of the subject.

In closing I wish to thank the Board of Superintendents and the School Committee for the pleasure and profit I gained from attendance at this first International Congress on Mental Hygiene.

Respectfully submitted,

KATHERINE C. COVENEY,
Assistant Director of Special Classes.

PRESIDENT OF NEW ENGLAND COUNCIL THANKS MAYOR FOR PROVISIONS MADE FOR NEW ENGLAND AIR TOUR.

Mayor Curley, on May 29, received the following letter from Redfield Proctor, President of the New England Council:

MY DEAR MR. CURLEY,—The New England Council and its Aeronautical Development Committee wish to express appreciation of the fact that Boston is among those progressive New England communities which have provided themselves with the necessary facilities for welcoming planes of the First New England air tour.

The Aeronautical Development Committee of the Council has sponsored this air tour because it sees in the development of commercial air transport in New England a distinct contribution to our future prosperity. With this new mode of transportation undergoing development, it is both New England's opportunity and responsibility to make the utmost use of it.

This First New England air tour has four specific purposes: First, it demonstrates to our own people and to our neighbors, the practicability of air transportation under New England conditions. It calls favorable attention to our present landing facilities. It points to the conditions which are retarding aviation development in New England in view of the present number, scope, size, and condition of landing fields and airports. Finally, it aims to make New England business men more familiar with flying, and with the various types of planes.

It is significant that your community is among those at which air tour planes are being welcomed. The Council shares your pride in these evidences of progress and initiative. The Council intends to lend all the assistance it can in furthering the development of the most desirable facilities for air transport in New England. To this end its Aeronautical Development Committee has asked the experts on this tour to contribute their observations and recommendations. In addition, it is hoped that Department of Commerce specialists will be available for consultation by New England communities wishing expert assistance in planning and developing their aviation facilities.

In the meantime, it is a pleasure to us all that the itinerary of this air tour includes your community.

Sincerely yours,

REDFIELD PROCTOR,
President.

MAYOR CURLEY GIVEN PEN BY WHICH GOVERNOR SIGNS GOVERNOR SQUARE BILL.

Mayor Curley, on May 29, received the following communication from Hon. Frank G. Allen, Governor of Massachusetts:

MY DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—It has occurred to me that you might like the quill with which I have today signed House Bill 1406, "An Act Providing for the Elimination of the Crossing at Grade at Governor Square in the City of Boston by Street Railway Cars using the Boylston Street Subway."

It is indeed most gratifying to know that after so many years this bill has finally been enacted into law. It has required vigilance, persistence and untiring endeavor to bring about a solution of the troublesome traffic situation at Governor square. Together with the Legislature we both should feel gratified that a very important and constructive step has been taken in meeting a difficult question.

Very truly yours,

FRANK G. ALLEN.

MAYOR CURLEY RECEIVES BLESSING OF POPE PIUS XI.

Mayor Curley received a cablegram from Cardinal Pacelli, Secretary of State, the Vatican City, Rome, on June 2, extending him the blessing of His Holiness, Pope Pius XI, and thanking him most kindly for the congratulatory cablegram which he forwarded His Holiness, Pope Pius XI upon the occasion of his seventy-third birthday on Saturday, May 31.

Very truly yours,

H. I. HARRIMAN.

The following is a copy of Mr. Harriman's letter to General Logan:

DEAR GENERAL,—I was out of town on Monday when the trustees of the White Fund, on the Mayor's motion, elected you director of the Fund. If I had been there, it would have been a most sincere pleasure to have voted for you. I am indeed glad the Mayor has made such a wise nomination. It will be a pleasure to cooperate with you during the remainder of my term as president of the Chamber of Commerce, by virtue of which office I am one of the trustees.

Very truly yours,

CATHOLIC ORDER OF FORESTERS INVITED TO BOSTON FOR CONVENTION.

On May 28 the Mayor addressed the following message to the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters at Springfield:

The City of Boston extends best wishes to the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters for a most successful convention and extends hearty invitation to convene in Boston in 1931. Under legislative enactment adopted this year the municipalities of the Commonwealth have been granted authority to extend financial assistance incident to the holding of conventions and I beg you will assure the organization that it will be an extreme pleasure for me as Mayor to avail myself in a generous manner of this privilege which the law now permits.

ART COMMISSION APPROVES FOUNDERS' MEMORIAL.

MAYOR ASKS ELEVATED TO SPEED WORK AT GOVERNOR SQUARE.

Mayor Curley, on May 31, forwarded the following communication to Bernard J. Rothwell, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Boston Elevated Railway:

MY DEAR MR. ROTHWELL,—His Excellency, Hon. Frank G. Allen, Governor of the Commonwealth, upon Thursday last signed the bill providing for the Governor square extension and I have drafted the necessary orders for submission to the Boston City Council.

The bill as passed by the Legislature and approved by his Excellency embodies the views presented by the Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston and of the Board of Directors of the Boston Elevated Railway, as represented by Mr. Frederic E. Snow.

The improvement of traffic conditions at Governor square has long been a recognized necessity and it is imperative that early action be taken with reference to the necessary acceptances required under the provisions of the act.

I beg to suggest that you call a special meeting of the Board of Directors for the consideration of the question of acceptance of the act and by so doing make possible immediate acceptance and early action upon the construction of this long needed public improvement.

Very truly yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Orders have been issued to install three more boxes in Ward 14 and one more box in Ward 17.

The fire-fighting equipment of the department has undergone considerable change and improvement during this period, as complete motorization of the apparatus in the wards mentioned was effected during the ten years just past.

All companies are now motorized, and in connection with this change in fire-fighting equipment it should be noted that the efficiency of engine companies was practically doubled, inasmuch as the gasoline pumper, which replaced the steam fire engine, carries hose, extinguishers and other fire-fighting equipment, enabling it to operate at fires without a hose wagon. Every engine company today carries practically twice as much hose and other equipment as engine companies did when the steam fire engine was in vogue.

Another feature which has increased the efficiency of motorized companies, namely, engine and city service ladder companies, is that each is equipped with chemical tanks and 250 feet of chemical hose. This equipment could not be carried on the horse-drawn apparatus.

DORCHESTER FIRE APPARATUS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 26, 1930.
To the City Council:
Gentlemen,—I herewith submit to you report from Hon. Edward F. McLaughlin, Fire Commissioner, concerning the increase in fire equipment, fire apparatus and fire stations. This is in reply to your order of May 5, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Fire Department, May 23, 1930.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I return herewith a copy of the following order passed by the City Council:

Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be, and hereby is, respectfully requested to advise the City Council forthwith in detail concerning any increase or increases in fire apparatus, fire equipment, fire stations or men during the past ten years in Wards 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17.

In City Council May 5, 1930. Passed.

Attest:

W. J. DOYLE, City Clerk.

Another feature which should be considered is that motor fire apparatus has a greater radius of operation than the horse-drawn equipment. The horse-drawn equipment was restricted to a limited territory and on busy days the horses would become exhausted, requiring that they be relieved at different times by other horses. Such a method naturally interferes with the efficient operation of the Fire Department, and the introduction of motor equipment was a distinct improvement which resulted in a great increase in efficiency.

This year it is planned to replace the present hose car at Engine 20, Walnut street, Neponset, with a new six-cylinder hose car equipped with a Booster pump. It is also planned to equip Engine 16, River street, Mattapan, with two pieces of apparatus instead of one. The six-cylinder hose car which will be installed at Engine 16 will also be equipped with a Booster pump.

I am inclosing herewith a detailed report of the various changes and improvements which have occurred in Wards 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 since 1920. An effort was made by me in connection with this study to ascertain the growth of the city in the particular wards mentioned during the past ten years, both with reference to increase in population and increase in the number of buildings. Because of the fact that the ward numbers have been changed as well as the ward lines the Building Department and the Statistics Department informed me that it would not be possible to furnish the figures that I desired. I am submitting a statement of the population and number of buildings in these wards at the present time.

TYPE OF BUILDING AS OF APRIL 1, 1929.	Ward 13.	Ward 14.	Ward 15.	Ward 16.	Ward 17.
Miscellaneous.....	212	331	668	367	232
Office.....	2	2	3	0	3
Factory.....	2	0	2	4	1
Theatre.....	0	6	3	1	1
One-family house.....	928	745	602	1,681	1,499
Two-family house....	611	1,457	773	1,242	1,267
Three-family house.....	1,325	1,661	1,329	923	903
Apartment.....	118	479	88	68	143
Private garage.....	530	839	545	1,123	938
Public garage.....	32	33	11	11	64
Total.....	3,760	5,553	4,024	5,420	5,051
Population, 1930, preliminary figures.....	29,475	56,685	27,877	31,040	30,077

There is no doubt that there has been considerable increase in the population and the number of buildings during the past ten years.

In connection with this study as to the fire protection in the wards mentioned consideration was given to the location of fire stations. It is very apparent that some of the stations are not properly located to give the greatest measure of protection. A fire station should be so located that it will have an operating radius in all directions. It should not be limited to movement in one direction. The quarters of Engine Company 20 and Ladder 27 are located at the edge of the city on the corner of Walnut street and Old Colony Boulevard.

When it is possible to provide funds to do so a new station should be erected somewhere in the vicinity of Neponset avenue and Victory road and the present station at Walnut street and Old Colony Boulevard abandoned. A station at the new location would give better protection and quicker response to the entire district.

The quarters of Engine 16 and Ladder 6 are located on River street at the edge of Boston near the Milton line. In order that this company could give the best possible protection for the entire district which it serves it should be moved to a location somewhere in the vicinity of Codman street and Gallivan Boulevard.

The approximate cost of these new stations, exclusive of land, would be approximately $125,000 each.

Yours very truly,
EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN,
Fire Commissioner.

SAVIN HILL BASIN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 26, 1930.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from William P. Long, chairman of the Park Commission, relative to filling in the deep holes in the Savin Hill Basin. This is in reply to your order of May 19, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, May 24, 1930.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I have your Council order that the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to eliminate the dangerous condition now existing at Coulter's Beach by filling in the deep holes made during the dredging of the channel in the Savin Hill Basin.

This condition was caused by the Public Works Department of the state doing certain dredging in Savin Hill bay. It has been called to their attention on three different occasions and they have assured me they would eliminate the dangerous condition that now exists on or before June 7.

Rest assured, the necessary precautions will be taken before our bathing season opens.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

FIRST AID AT BATHING BEACHES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 26, 1930.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit to you report from William P. Long, chairman of the Park Commission, relative to equipment for first-aid being supplied to each bathing beach. This is in reply to your order of May 12, 1930.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, May 10, 1930.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of an order from the City Council requesting the Park Commission to equip each bathing beach under its jurisdiction with a first-aid medical kit and pulmotor apparatus.

Our beaches are always equipped with first-aid medical kits. A pulmotor apparatus, unless handled by an expert, is a dangerous piece of apparatus. It would be inadvisable to equip each bath house with one of these machines.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

SALE OF POLICE BOAT "GUARDIAN."

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 21, 1930.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I beg to submit herewith communication received from the Police Commissioner, Eugene C. Hultman, recommending the sale of the police boat "Guardian" at an upset price of $1,000.

At a recent auction an upset price of $7,000 was sought by the city but no bids were received. I am still of the opinion that the boat in question is worth at least $3,500 to some individual and I accordingly recommend the sale at public auction at an upset price of $3,500.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Police Department, May 13, 1930.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston.

My dear Sir,—In accordance with a copy of inclosed recommendation, dated April 30, 1930, of Mr. Edward W. Foye, Municipal Auctioneer, 24 School street, Boston, I submit for the approval of yourself and the Honorable City Council a new upset price of $1,000 in the case of the police steamer "Guardian," whose boilers have been condemned by the local United States Government authorities, and is now tied up to a wharf under the care of a watchman.

For your Honor's information I inclose a copy of an order approved by you on March 11, 1930, establishing the first upset price at $7,000, which it is now proposed to reduce to $1,000.

A notice of the first auction sale is also inclosed.

Respectfully,
E. C. HULTMAN,
Police Commissioner.

City of Boston, April 30, 1930.

Herbert A. Wilson,

Police Commissioner.

My dear Commissioner,—Inclosed herewith find the vouchers for the expenses on the auction sale of the police boat "Guardian."

The sale was held March 25, 1930. There were no bids received.

In view of the fact that the wharfage of the boat is an increasing expense, and the keeping of a watchman on it continually, I recommend that the upset price be lowered materially and that another sale be held as soon as possible.

Due to the fact that the boilers on this boat have been condemned, I am of the opinion that there would be an enormous expense incurred in renewing them; therefore the boat is far less valuable.

I would suggest that an upset price of $1,000 be put on it for another sale.

Inclosed find correspondence which has been sent to me in reference to this boat.

Yours respectfully,
EDWARD W. FOYE,
Municipal Auctioneer.

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner be, and hereby is, authorized to sell at a duly advertised public auction, at an upset price of $3,500, the police boat "Guardian."

Referred to the Executive Committee.

VETO OF LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR VETERANS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, May 22, 1930.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen,—I beg to return herewith, without my approval, the order adopted by your honorable body on May 19 authorizing leave of absence, without loss of pay, to veterans serving on committees in connection with the American Legion Convention, to be held in Boston on October 6, 7, 8 and 9, 1930.

I beg to state further that there are some five hundred conventions scheduled to assemble in Boston during the current year and in the event that the precedent is established of permitting employees of the city to take time off to attend committee meetings, ad libitum, the probability is that, during the summer season at least, there will be few if any of the city employees doing any work for the city.

Under the circumstances I am quite certain that the Council will agree with me that the granting of leave of absence upon the day of the parade is all the city in decency should be required to do.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

AUTHORITY TO ISSUE DUPLICATE BONDS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Treasury Department, May 26, 1930.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—About November 30, 1929, this office received from the Atlantic National Bank of Boston, $16,000 City of Boston registered 4½ per cent bonds in the name of Sam Haigh to be transferred to Sarah E. Haigh. The bonds were transferred as requested and receipted for by the bank on December 5, 1929.

The said bonds were apparently lost after having been received by the Atlantic National Bank of Boston, and now a request is made that I issue to her duplicates of the lost bonds. I have received from Sarah E. Haigh a surety bond for $32,000 to cover the City of Boston on account of any loss occasioned by the issuance of duplicate bonds to her. This surety bond has been approved by the Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston.

I am therefore attaching herewith a letter from the Atlantic National Bank of Boston on behalf of Sarah E. Haigh requesting me to issue to her duplicate bonds, as well as an order giving me authority to issue to Sarah E. Haigh duplicates of the lost bonds.

Respectfully yours,
E. L. DOLAN, City Treasurer.

The Atlantic National Bank of Boston,
Boston, May 19, 1930.

Hon. Edmund L. Dolan,
Treasurer of City of Boston.

Dear Sir,—As requested, I have furnished you with a surety bond for $32,000 to indemnify and save harmless the City of Boston from any claims on account of City of Boston registered bonds alleged to have been lost or the issuance of duplicates to replace said bonds as follows:

$5,000 City of Boston 4½ per cent due May 1, 1953, No. 028230.

$7,000 City of Boston 4½ per cent due May 1, 1954, No. 028231.

$2,000 City of Boston 4½ per cent due May 1, 1962, No. 40035.

Will you therefore kindly reissue to me duplicates of the above-stated bonds reported lost, and oblige,

Yours very truly,
SARAH E. HAIGH,
by ATLANTIC NATIONAL BANK,
ARNOLD WHITTAKER,
Vice President.

PAY ROLL OF REGISTRY OF DEEDS.

The pay roll of the Registry of Deeds, amounting to $8,769.04, piece work from April 21 to May 17, regular employees May 16 to May 31, both inclusive, was received and approved.

CONDITION OF WALL AT MORTON STREET PLAYGROUND.

Coun. FITZGERALD offered the following:
Ordered, That the Building Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to make a thorough examination of the construction and materials of the wall and pillars at the Morton Street Playground, Ward 3, and to report to the City Council whether the specifications were fully followed in their erection.

Coun. FITZGERALD—I have offered the order for the following reasons: On Friday evening, May 23, 1930, the pillars and ornamental copings at the Morton Street Playground, situated in the North End of Boston, a part of the district I have the privilege to represent, collapsed. My order calls for an investigation into the causes which led to the loss of life of a boy named McGonagle, and the injuries to several others. Had this taken place during the day, hundreds of lives might have been sacrificed. The contractor who completed this work had absolutely no competition, and received some thirty-eight thousand dollars, which seems strange, that he had no competition in a city with so many contractors, and I am informed that we now have as many contractors doing city work as we have adults. I believe a complete investigation should be undertaken, and I condemn the quick action taken by the authorities to remove the debris which had fallen for a length of forty-two feet, causing the death of McGonagle. I believe that should have been left there until the proper investigating body had an opportunity to view it, and have the pillars and copings analyzed. Only yesterday I visited the Tyler Street Playground, and I found the pillars there, which were built identical with those at the Morton Street Playground, in my opinion in very bad condition, being chipped and cracked. This same thing could happen in any other part of Boston. If the inspectors who worked on that job are now employed by the city, or the engineers who approved the specifications of this contract are now employed by the city, they should be brought forward to explain their actions at that time. The people should know whether the proper amount of cement was put into the work. It could be easily verified by having the material analyzed. I sincerely hope the rule will be suspended and that we will at least hear something in the future as to the cause of the accident.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

PROPOSED ACCEPTANCE OF ARLINGTON TERRACE.

Coun. FITZGERALD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to lay out and accept Arlington terrace, Ward 3, as a public highway.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPAVING OF TYLER STREET.

Coun. FITZGERALD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave Tyler street, Ward 3, with smooth paving.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

APPROPRIATION FOR PAGEANT.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested, providing the sum of thirty thousand dollars is furnished by the funds of the Citizens' Tercentenary Committee, to send to the City Council an appropriation for a like amount, to be expended for a Boston pageant during the coming summer season.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

MARKING OF OLD DORCHESTER ALMSHOUSE, ETC.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested, in connection with the tercentenary observance, to direct that the old Dorchester Almshouse and jail on Hancock street, Dorchester, now owned and used by the Public Works Department, be sand-blasted and marked with a suitable tablet.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

OFFICIAL COUNT OF BOSTON CENSUS.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to communicate with the Supervisors of the Census for the Boston districts to ascertain why the complete official Boston count has not been promulgated, and to advise the City Council.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, for the last two weeks we have seen reports in the papers showing the number of inhabitants in various cities in this country of the size of Boston. The enumerators have been working on the tabulation here just as long as they have been working in any other city, and yet there is not even a semblance of a final report. Other cities of the country know what their standing is already; but the City of Boston does not know. If this sort of thing is allowed to continue, I am sure that when the report is finally given out a great many of our citizens will be skeptical. Why is it that the City of Boston is always the football for the rest of the country? Here is a federal tabulation of the inhabitants of the country, made once in ten years, at a tremendous cost to the taxpayers. Let us at least know what the returns are. We know what the returns show in Cleveland; we know where Detroit stands; the figures for Los Angeles have been given out. The figures in these other cities are known to the business concerns and Chambers of Commerce, who have been kept in constant touch with just what is going on. But in Boston we don't hear a single word. We have no way of knowing whether the returns will be given out in a month, or two or three months. As one individual member of this body, I introduced an order for a recheck of a count that was supposed to be final in my ward, and within forty-eight hours had figures produced that showed that the true count was 1,067 people more than the count originally given out. I feel a little bit skeptical about the entire city returns. I would like to know what is going on. I would like to have his Honor the Mayor get in touch with Mr. Frink and Mr. Sensale, so that we may find out what the standing of Boston is among the cities of the country. I have had a number of members of the Council tell me within a week that their homes had not been counted; I have had people in Dorchester within the last three days say to me, "When is the census man coming around to our place?" Of course, we all know that Boston is made a political football. We know that two of the Democratic Congressmen from Boston have had nothing at all to do with the whole matter. We know that people have been sent, for instance, out into Dorchester, from the West End and other sections, people who knew nothing about the section, and who have been sent out from the center of the city. We know that the whole thing has been muddled up. Therefore, as citizens of Boston, having the interest of the city at heart, I feel that we have a right to know the tabulation. Therefore, let us call on the Mayor of Boston to get in touch with Mr. Frink and Mr. Sensale, and whoever else may be in charge of this matter, and settle once and for all what the total enumeration of the inhabitants of the City of Boston is.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

President LYNCH called Coun. McGrath to the chair to preside.

HOLIDAY FOR EMPLOYEES IN DORCHESTER DAY PARADE.

Coun. RUBY offered the following:

Ordered, That the heads of departments be authorized to allow city employees taking part in the Dorchester Day parade and celebration on June 7, a holiday without loss of pay.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONDITION OF WALL AT TYLER STREET PLAYGROUND.

Coun. FITZGERALD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Building Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to examine the pillars supporting the wall at the Tyler Street Playground, Ward 3, and report to the City Council as to the safety of their construction.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

REGISTRY OF ROOMS.

Coun. ARNOLD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Director of Public Celebrations be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to appoint a subcommittee on housing of the general Tercentenary Committee, which will maintain a register of persons with rooms to rent, for the convenience of visitors during the tercentenary observance.

Coun. ARNOLD—Mr. President, just a word on that order. It has been suggested to me that there are many people in the City of Boston who will have rooms available during the tercentenary celebration, and which might be availed of by our visitors. Many people will come here who will not be able to pay the usual hotel rates during their visit, and it seems to me it would be a very convenient thing for them to have some place where there might be registered such rooms or space as is available to such visitors, with the price of the same. That would be a great convenience to visitors and would be a good thing for our own citizens.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

ROPING OFF MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE.

Coun. ARNOLD offered the following:

Ordered, That the City Messenger be, and he hereby is, authorized to rope off that section of Massachusetts avenue which will be the place of the dedication exercises of the Edward E. Ginsburg memorial bridge at noon, May 30, the expense to be charged to the appropriation for City Council, Flags, Ropes and Stakes.

Coun. ARNOLD—Mr. President, may I say in connection with that order that the bridge mentioned—the Edward E. Ginsburg Memorial Bridge—will be dedicated on Memorial Day, and I want at this time to invite such members of the Council as may wish to do so to attend the celebration. Their attendance will be most welcome at these exercises.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

STANDEES ON ELEVATED BUSES.

Coun. GREEN called up assignment, viz.:

6. An Ordinance Concerning Passengers on jitneys.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Chapter thirty-nine of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 is hereby amended by striking out section one hundred and one, and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 101. The license issued for each motor vehicle shall fix and specify its seating capacity, exclusive of the operator. Passengers in excess of twenty-five per cent above the seating capacity of such motor vehicle shall not be carried. Whenever the number of passengers applying for transportation exceeds the number hereinbefore provided for it shall be the duty of the licensee to furnish sufficient additional facilities to carry such passengers. No person operating or in charge of any such vehicle shall take on or suffer or permit more persons to ride or to be carried thereon at any one time than is authorized by this section, or permit any person to stand or sit upon any running board, steps, fender, dash or hood thereof, or permit any person to ride on such motor vehicle outside the body thereof; provided, however, that in addition to the number of passengers which said motor vehicle by the terms of this section is permitted to carry, children under seven years of age may be carried therein, in arms, or seated on the laps of adult persons accompanying them, but no passenger with a child in arms or seated on the lap shall be permitted on any front seat of the vehicle.

The question came on the passage of the ordinance.

The ordinance was declared rejected.

Coun. GREEN doubted the vote and asked for a rising vote.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President.

Chairman McGRATH—The gentleman is out of order at this time, while we are solving a doubt. The Chair has called for a rising vote.

The ordinance was declared passed by a rising vote, 10 to 8.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, with reference to this particular ordinance, on which I am now going to ask for a roll call, I would like an opportunity, with unanimous consent, to make a statement which will perhaps save you hammering the anvil.

Chairman McGRATH—The gentleman will proceed, if there is no objection.

Coun. WILSON—With reference to this particular ordinance, Mr. Chairman,—so that it shall be a matter of record and so that none of us a year from this November, for example, will conceivably go before the people of our district and say we misunderstood for one moment what the ordinance means, let it be a matter of record that, under the ordinance as it stands before us today, and which the members, representing the people of this city, have just voted to pass, means that standees shall be allowed in buses throughout the districts, including my own. Not wishing personally to be placed in the position of voting for such an ordinance, and not wishing to see it settled by either a voice vote or a stand-up vote, I would ask a roll call on the ordinance.

Chairman McGRATH—The clerk will call the roll.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection, the councilor may proceed.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, if I may ask a question of the Chair, I would ask unanimous consent on a point of information, and that is whether the vote should not first have been taken on the motion to take the ordinance from the table, before it was put on the question of passing the ordinance which appears on our calendar as assignment No. 6?

Chairman McGRATH—The matter could be called up by any member of the Council, and the question would then come on the passage of the ordinance.

Coun. NORTON—Well, should the question first come on taking from the table, or on taking up the assignment, before putting the question on passage of the ordinance? Under our parliamentary procedure, would it not be necessary first to vote on taking the matter up?

Chairman McGRATH—Does the gentleman wish to ask a question or to make a statement?

Coun. NORTON—I wish to ask a question first, Mr. Chairman.

Chairman McGRATH—Councilor Norton asks consent to ask a question.

Coun. NORTON—Do I understand that the first vote to be taken under such circumstances is on the question of whether we shall take the matter from the table, or whether the vote should first be put on the question of passing the ordinance?

Chairman McGRATH—The matter was not on the table. It was an assignment, and could be called up by any member of the Council.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. Chairman, in conformity with my request that a unanimous consent be granted to my making a statement, I would like merely to reiterate what I said some weeks ago. Allowing standees in buses means the employment of a few number of men, means less help, and it means that at a time when in our city we are facing the worst economic problem of unemployment that this country has seen. Standees mean fewer men and fewer buses; no standees means more men and more buses. I cited the situation that started in 1918, when the Boston Elevated first petitioned the Public Utilities Commission and this Council to operate the first one-man car in Boston. At that time the words were used, "This is an experiment." It has since developed, however, as the result of that experiment, that over 90 per cent of the Elevated buses and cars are now one-man operated. We are facing in this city at the present time, Mr. Chairman, the worst situation in the matter of unemployment that we have ever faced. It means that every line of industry must be asked to keep in its employment as many men as possible, that as many in public improvements as can be should be carried through. The call was sent forth by the President of the United States sometime ago to the great industries of the nation to carry on as much activity as they were able to, in the interest of our people. The question presents itself, Mr. Chairman, what are we going to do with forty-five million people who must earn a living in America, when the automatic machines, machines where the human element is immensely reduced, are disseminating the ranks of American labor, to an extent that was never before known in the world history; when machines in the theaters cut out the employment in this country of 40,000 musicians; when labor-saving devices employed by Kuppenheimer and Hart, Schaffner & Marx, and others in the clothing line, have immensely reduced the number of operatives in that industry—

Coun. GREEN—Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Coun. NORTON—No, not just now—when the present day telegraph and other instruments in newspaper offices have virtually done away with the old-time telegrapher; when a machine digs up a street, lays the pipes and puts back the surface dirt; when if you visit the Strandway, where a million-dollar job is in progress, you cannot count one hundred men working there. The great question is, Mr. Chairman, how are our forty-five million men and women to earn a living? There is a less number of people working for the Elevated now than there were a few years ago. A number of men received notice to quit last year. There is a less number of platform men, less repair men, less men in other lines than they ever had before in their history, and they, and many thousands of others in this city, are now suffering from unemployment at a time when they can't afford it. Therefore, as an economic matter, I say that this ordinance should not be passed. It means that more men will be discharged. It means probably that within one month there will be 200 or 300 fewer men working for the Elevated than are working today, and the number of men working for the road has already been seriously reduced. We will have to spend more money on our Poor Department than ever. It will cost us three million this year and next year it will be over three million. The question is, how are men going to find work? Are we going to let the Elevated lay off men while we are appealing to private industry generally to keep men employed, while the President and others are appealing to the different industries to hold fast to their present forces, to employ men of over forty, and to cut out the automatic machinery so far as possible? The automatic machinery has, of course, made luxuries of the past the necessities of today. We have seen great changes in our lives, but those changes also carry with them another significance, and we can already see to what the present unemployment situation is tending for this year and next year. I agree with the position taken by Mayor Gallagher of Woburn, in cutting out automatic machinery, so far as possible, where there are 500 families in his community out of work, and going back to the pick and shovel. While automatic machinery has been a great factor in progress, at the same time it has brought about a great deal of unemployment, and the best minds of the country will have to apply their most intensive effort to solve the problem. Mr. Chairman, standees in buses means less men to operate buses—less buses and less men. Therefore, I am against the ordinance.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection, the councilor may make his statement.

Coun. GREEN—Mr. President, after listening to the councilor from Hyde Park, I would like to ask the gentleman one question,—if he was in the executive committee when the representatives of the union, the Elevated Car Men's Union, waited on the members of the City Council and asked them to vote for this same proposition?

Chairman McGRATH—The Chair will state that no debate is in order.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, I would like to answer the question, and I will ask unanimous consent that I may answer it.

Chairman McGRATH—The councilor asks unanimous consent to answer the question. If there is no objection, he may proceed.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, I was in the room when the representatives of the union of the Boston Elevated Railroad requested the Council to pass that ordinance; but I was also in the chamber when a few weeks previously the representatives of that same union came and asked me personally to be against standees in the buses, and when they use virtually the same argument that I have used here this afternoon in support of that position. The representatives of the Elevated Union who appeared in the room in favor of standees were the same men who appeared later and changed their position after the gun had been put to their head and after they had been given their orders. And it was a very sheepish group of men who appeared before the Council here the second time in favor of the very ordinance which three weeks before they had opposed. Certainly if a committee of men ever turned completely around and changed their opinion, it was that group of men who came to our executive meeting later and said, "We want standees in the buses." Previous to that time they did not want them. Therefore, Mr. Colleague, I don't think cognizance should be taken of the opinions of that committee. When they came here and requested that the ordinance be passed, later, it was under duress. Mr. Chairman, at the very time when everybody, from the President of the United States down, is doing his utmost to have men kept in employment, certainly we should not pass this ordinance permitting standees in buses, when it will simply lead to the employment of a less number of men and a less number of buses. It was certainly a sheepish lot of men who appeared here, three weeks after they had made their first request that we defeat the ordinance, and asked us to favor it. We know why they later asked us to favor it. You heard their statement of what had transpired in the Union meeting, where action was taken by a small number of men, representing but a small proportion of the employees. As I say, they came here later and said they had changed their minds. And why? Because the gun was put to their heads.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection, the councilor may proceed.

Coun. FITZGERALD—I happened to be out of the chamber when the vote was taken on this matter, but if the remarks of the previous speaker are true I think action on this matter ought to be postponed and the thing investigated. If such charges as he makes are true, and these men were coerced, it means nothing less than a conspiracy on the part of this great corporation, and they should be investigated by the District Attorney. I want to say that it was the Elevated employees, who at meetings at Tremont Temple three years ago, brought about the 10-cent fare, and I think investigation will show that many of the wives of the men on the Elevated Railroad are occupying positions not only in the city, state and nation, but in private corporations as well. They talk about unemployment. I, for one, before my vote is passed, would like to have the councilor from Hyde Park (Coun. Norton) state where he gets the information that 200 or 300 men are to be laid off if we vote in favor of standees on the buses of the Elevated. I think we should have that information, if he has it.

Coun. KELLY—Mr. Chairman, before we take a vote on this important measure, I want to inform you what I have found out through talking with motormen and conductors in the Fields Corner section of my district. They are convinced that two leaders sold them out, sold them out cold, here, as Councilor Norton has said. Three weeks before they came here and favored the ordinance they came to me and implored me to vote against standees, on the theory that the ordinance would put men out of work, that from the two-man car in a little while we would go to the one-man bus. That is just what it is coming to today. If you gentlemen will recall, thinking this matter over before we come to the roll call, when I asked the supposed leaders of the Union why they had changed their minds in the matter, I was greeted with this answer:—"The Elevated has agreed not to lay off any men." I asked the man who was speaking at the time if he knew that such an agreement was illegal and could not be enforced. He said he thought it could be enforced. I then asked the representatives of the Elevated Trustees what they thought about it, and they said that the agreement was illegal and unenforceable. Mr. President, the people of my district, when they buy a ticket, want a seat, and I am here to see that they get a seat. I am against standees.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. President, I wish to ask unanimous consent to correct some of the remarks made by the councilor from Hyde Park (Coun. Norton).

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection, the gentleman may proceed.

Coun. BUSH—Mr. Chairman, he stated that these delegates of the Carmen's Union appeared before the Executive Committee of the City Council and gave as a reason for their opposition to the standees in buses that it would lay off men. I recall that I asked them that very question and that they denied that that was the reason why they were appearing before the Executive Committee in opposition to standees in the buses. Their entire argument in opposition was based on the question of public safety. I recall distinctly that the argument they presented was that standees in buses would prevent the operator of the bus from seeing what was happening at his rear. That was the main argument; and I remember asking them the question whether it would affect the matter of employment. They denied that it would affect the matter of employment, and, as a matter of fact, that was not a part of their argument at all.

Coun. GLEASON—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection, the councilor may proceed.

Coun. GLEASON—Mr. President, the reason why I am voting in favor of standees today is because the Elevated officials and the Union officials appear before our Executive Committee and have come to an agreement. But if the charges that the gentleman from Hyde Park (Coun. Norton) presents before this Council today are true, and he can prove them, I will change my vote.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection, the councilor may proceed.

Coun. DOWD—Mr. Chairman, I am somewhat surprised that some of the statements made to the effect that the Union officials have appeared before the Council and have asked the Council to allow standees on the Elevated buses. Every member of the Council remembers the fight that they made for perhaps three years. You all remember very well the fight that former Councilor Murphy made with regard to the Elevated, in this matter. I simply want to substantiate the charges that the councilor from Hyde Park (Coun. Norton) has made, and I will go a step farther. The day after the ordinance was first introduced, I had been the first to rise in objection to it, and the following week I was visited, not at the Council Chamber, but at my place of business, by the attorney of the Carmen's Union, and was asked to lead the fight against having standees in the Elevated buses. In view of the situation as it exists, I fail to see wherein the Council can pass this ordinance.

Coun. DONOVAN—Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection, the councilor may proceed.

Coun. DONOVAN—I am not interested in the Elevated trustees, or the Union, or any of the officials of the Union of the Elevated employees; but I am interested in the car-riding public. It is obvious that the word "service" is entirely foreign to the trustees of the Elevated Railroad. We have had an instance of that in East Boston. Not content with herding the people like cattle, they have installed one-man cars over there. I have not seen one single instance where the trustees of the Elevated Railroad have been giving consideration to the car-riding public. With them, it is a case of serving the Elevated directors, and their action is not from the standpoint of serving the car-riding public. We have no buses in East Boston yet, and we don't want them, but I can readily visualize that perhaps within a year we will be asked to allow them to be installed, and the people will be forced to walk up and down steps, and to suffer inconvenience generally, because this form of transportation is being introduced against the wishes and interests of the car-riding public. I am opposed to standees in buses, Mr. Chairman.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection, the gentleman may proceed.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, let me state, first of all, that a councilor is put in an unfortunate position when he must ask unanimous consent to make a statement on such an important matter prior to a roll call. It seems to me we should have a right to make such statements without asking unanimous consent. However that may be, I agree with the councilor from East Boston (Coun. Donovan), who is more fortunate in his district than the people of my district are. He says he has no buses in his district, while there are three or four bus lines in the district I represent. But I agree with him that we are to be governed by the wishes of the people of our district, the wishes of the car-riding public, and not by the wishes of the Carmen's Union, the Elevated Trustees, or anybody else. The persons in whom we are primarily interested are the car-riding public—who, in answer to a post-card poll sent out to 3,000 voters in my ward, voted two and one-half or three to one against standees in buses. So I don't care how many times the officials of the Carmen's Union change their minds—as they have done—or for their motives when they change their minds; but I am interested primarily in the people of my district and their wishes, in so far as they are made known to me. Those are the people in whose interest I am voting today, those are the people whom I am sent here to represent; and I am surprised that members of the body, simply because two or three Union officials come in here at one time and say one thing, and then come in at another time and say something else, should allow that to affect their minds and their votes. I shall be very much surprised if men here will change their minds because of any such reason. The people whom we represent are the car-riding public, and I will simply say, so far as the people of my ward in Dorchester are concerned, that they have spoken by a vote of two and one-half or three to one against the proposed change in the ordinance.

Several members addressed the Chair.

Chairman McGRATH—The Chair will say that there was sufficient opportunity to debate the order when the question first came up and was open for discussion. We are now attempting to solve the doubt, and no debate is in order.

Coun. LYNCH—Mr. Chairman, I would ask unanimous consent to address the body.

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection, the councilor may proceed.

Coun. LYNCH—The only argument advanced in favor of the passage of the order is that the officials of the Union wish it passed. I think every member of the body knows that the two officials who appeared here first came to me and asked for the privilege to be heard before our Executive Committee when the ordinance was first offered. Permission for them to appear before the Executive Committee and make a statement was granted. They then asked that the ordinance be defeated. About two weeks later, or a short time later, they came in with the officials of the Elevated road and asked that the ordinance be passed. They could give no reason whatsoever for their about-face, and I think every member who was present at that executive hearing positively believes that both men were lying. I am against standees in buses, Mr. President. In South Boston at present the streets are in poor condition, and that would mean that standees in buses would be badly thrown about. But, whether or not the streets are in good condition, it is almost impossible to stand in a bus going along at twenty or thirty miles an hour without being thrown about or shaken up. Mr. President, I hope that this ordinance will not pass.

Coun. COX—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection, the gentleman may proceed.

Coun. COX—Mr. President, I am not interested in the stand of the Union or the stand of the Elevated on this matter. I am interested in the car-riders. In addition to that, let me say that this ordinance as framed at the present time is most vague. It says:

"Passengers in excess of twenty-five per cent above the seating capacity of such motor vehicle shall not be carried. Whenever the number of passengers applying for transportation exceeds the number hereinbefore provided for it shall be the duty of the licensee to furnish sufficient additional facilities to carry such passengers."

Neither does it say who shall be the judge as to whether the percentage is 25 or more. So I say that the ordinance as framed is vague. It simply gives to the Elevated the right to carry legally as standees 25 per cent of the number sitting, and as many more as they can crowd in. Mr. President, I wish to record my vote against this ordinance, purely from the standpoint of the public and of public safety, for the protection of the people who are to be driven in these buses and who will be crowded into them if the opportunity to do so is given to the Elevated.

Coun. ARNOLD—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman McGRATH—If there is no objection the gentleman may proceed.

Coun. ARNOLD—Mr. President, I would not have risen at this time if I did not believe it was better for me to do so than to sit here quietly while a number of the members of the Council speak three or four times upon the question, members who are obviously upon the same side that they were when they spoke previously. I have been through this matter before. I voted in favor of standees before, and I received on account of my vote a protest from just one person in my district, who took issue with me because of that vote. I explained to him as best I could my reasons, and he accepted them, and was very enthusiastic in his support of me for re-election, although a member of the opposite political party. I have many men in my ward who are employed by the Boston Elevated still—many motormen, many conductors, but I have yet to receive from them a word of any kind to the effect that they are against this proposition. I should think, in order to be consistent, that they would be emphatically in favor of it, because obviously, if this ordinance prevails, there will be a less number of standees in the buses on the Elevated system than there are at the present time. I am interested, as all the members of the Council are interested, Mr. President, in extending the service of the Boston Elevated to all the inhabitants of the Metropolitan District. I am interested in extending the efficiency of the service, and I believe if this ordinance becomes a part of the recognized ordinances of the City of Boston, we will have an improvement in conditions. We will not see the monstrous spectacle of buses coming into Boston asking passengers to unload before they come into this city. Let us be consistent throughout the system. I recall very well in 1918, as a member of the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs, who reported the bill which gave over this great system to the people, the circumstances existing at that time. Some of the members of the Council, Mr. President, do not seem to recognize the fact that the people are really running this corporation at the present time and have been since 1918, and that the policies adopted by the Elevated system are the policies advocated by representatives of the people throughout the district. I believe we have a unique situation, where the management of the Elevated, the trustees, the general manager and the employees, are in full accord. I believe we should pass this ordinance.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

Chairman McGRATH—The gentleman may proceed, if there is no objection.

Coun. RUBY—Mr. President, I did not intend to inject myself into this prolonged debate. As a member of the Committee on Ordinances, one who voted to bring this ordinance up on the floor of the Council, in view of some of the remarks that have been made I think the members of the Council ought to be familiarized with the ordinance as it came to the committee, as well as the ordinance that is now before the Council. I think we are getting a little bit disturbed about the situation, unnecessarily. The councilor from Ward 18 (Coun. Norton) in an eloquent speech started in today to debate the question of unemployment, which has concerned this body for almost a year and a half. For a considerable period we have been faced with the unemployment situation. But I also say, Mr. Chairman and members of the Council, that, regardless of what we did a year and a half ago, and what we have done since, we have not, in my opinion, relieved the unemployment situation one bit. Surely the councilor from Ward 18 is not going to hold the members of this Council responsible for the machinery and the new devices that have gone into effect, with which we had absolutely nothing to do. I might remind the councilor from Ward 18, as well as the other members of the Council who have spoken, that today the Boston Elevated Trustees are allowing their operators of every single bus in every part of Boston to overload the bus with standing passengers to the capacity of the bus. When we received this contemplated ordinance from the Elevated Trustees, there were in it the words "Shall not habitually carry over 25 per cent." The members of the committee felt that if the ordinance were passed, with that clause in it, the Elevated would be permitted to carry ten, fifteen or twenty standee passengers, if the size of the bus warranted it. So we reported the ordinance back and said to the Elevated Trustees that the number of standees must be limited to 25 per cent of the seating capacity of the bus. Mr. President, it is my firm conviction that if we permit this ordinance to pass as it has been reported, the car-riders of Boston will be getting a better deal, because then and only then will we have control over the bus situation, and then and only then will councilors from Ward 18, Ward 17 and Ward 20 be able to see that buses in their district, the capacity of which is twenty-eight, will not have more than seven standees to the bus. If that sort of thing happens, and it is observed by a councilor or anybody else, we can simply ask that the permit for carrying such passengers be revoked. I think under the rules we would have that right. And we all know, without the passage of such a restrictive ordinance, the buses have been and will be overloaded with standees.

Coun. DONOVAN—Mr. President, will the gentleman yield for a question? The gentleman refers to the people owning and operating the road under the Public Control Act. I wonder if he is aware of the fact that when it comes to the expenditure of money, whether for the building of tunnels or subways, the Board of Trustees are not the final authority, but are subject to the directors of the Boston Elevated? Does that make the Elevated road a publicly controlled, owned and operated railroad?

Coun. RUBY—Under my permission to discuss this matter, Mr. President, I will take this opportunity to say that, so far as we are concerned as public officials, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts today owns and operates the Boston Elevated Railroad. The Governor of this Commonwealth—and I want to say now that I favor home rule for Boston at all times on all questions, even to the extent of appointment of trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway,—appoints every man on the Board of Trustees, and they are answerable to the Governor of this Commonwealth. I think that they should be answerable, as I think the Police Commissioner of Boston should be answerable, to the Mayor of Boston. Nevertheless, we are now controlling and operating the Boston Elevated system in this Commonwealth, and we now have before us for action an ordinance that, in my opinion, will benefit the general public. How many of us are taking into consideration the fact that it is not so very long ago when open cars were operating. It was at least in my time. I can remember—and I am a little older than some members of the Council—the days when I, as a boy, was allowed to stand on the running-board of the Elevated cars, being allowed upon the payment of five cents to ride in that manner—although I might have assumed some responsibility that I didn't know about at the time. And let me remind you that the trustees of the Elevated, under the present statute, are able to do anything they want. If they want to take off three or four cars from your district or my district, nobody under the sun can stop them. When they want to take off cars from the Eggleston Square-Mattapan line, they do it—rush hours, Saturdays or Sundays, makes no difference. But in voting on this question I am not influenced in any way by the fact that delegates of the Union came in here and took one position at one time and another position at another time. At no time, however, did they say that if we granted the permission to the Elevated it would mean the curtailing of men. I don't think a member of this body would vote for the ordinance if it meant the discharge of one human being on the Boston Elevated. I believe, however, that if the Boston Elevated has determined to curtail expenses and to cut out men, it will not do it under the power of this ordinance, because they are now permitting, as I say, nine, ten or eleven standees in a bus, a larger number than would be permitted under this ordinance. You are saying to the Boston Elevated under this ordinance, "This permits you to carry no more than 25 per cent of your capacity in a bus as standees. If the average bus seats twenty-eight people, you are allowed to carry seven standees, and not ten, eleven or twelve"—the number that I have seen many times in the Elevated buses, on the Rowe's Wharf short trip to Franklin street and on lines on other important thoroughfares. I think, however, we ought not to be disturbed by the varying positions taken by representatives of the Carmen's Union, or by the desire of the Elevated, for which we hold no brief. I desire to repeat, however, that, although men representing the Carmen's Union came in here and took one position one week, and another position at another time, at no time, if my memory serves me right,—and I was present on both occasions when they spoke,—did they say anything indicating that the Boston Elevated intended to fire one man if we either defeated or passed the ordinance. I do feel that we will be doing the car-rider a greater benefit by permitting a specified percentage, a specified number of standees, and I think the ordinance ought to pass.

Coun. HEIN—Mr. President, I move the previous question.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to speak.

Chairman McGRATH—Councillor Hein has called for the previous question, and that serves as an objection to the request for unanimous consent.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President, I appeal from the decision of the Chair. This is an important matter, and I think the members ought to be allowed to express themselves fully.

Chairman McGRATH—Is the appeal seconded? Coun. MURRAY—I second the appeal, Mr. President.

Chairman McGRATH—Those in favor of sustaining the Chair will please rise. [A majority of the members arose.] The Chair is sustained, and the clerk will call the roll on the question of passing the ordinance.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, if in order, I would ask for a roll call on the question of sustaining the Chair and shutting off debate on such an important question as this.

Chairman McGRATH—Councillor Wilson asks for a roll call on the question of sustaining the Chair. The clerk will call the roll.

The Council refused upon the roll call to sustain the Chair, yeas 10, nays 11:

Yeas—Coun. Arnold, Bush, Curtiss, Englert, Gleason, Green, Hein, Lynch, Power, Ruby—10.

Nays—Coun. Cox, Donovan, Dowd, Fish, Fitzgerald, Gallagher, Kelly, Mahoney, Murray, Norton, Wilson—11.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. President?

Chairman McGRATH—Councillor Norton asks unanimous consent to make another statement. Does any member object?

Coun. ARNOLD—Yes, Mr. President.

Chairman McGRATH—Objection being made, the question now comes on the passage of the ordinance, and the clerk will call the roll.

The ordinance failed of passage, yeas 10, nays 12:

Yeas—Coun. Arnold, Curtiss, Englert, Fitzgerald, Gallagher, Gleason, Green, Hein, Power, Ruby—10.

Nays—Coun. Bush, Cox, Donovan, Dowd, Fish, Kelly, Lynch, Mahoney, McGrath, Murray, Norton, Wilson—12.

Chairman McGRATH—And the ordinance is rejected. [Applause from the galleries.]

CONDITION OF NEW BRIGHTON HIGH SCHOOL.

Coun. HEIN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Superintendent of School Buildings be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to report to the City Council the amount of money which is to be further expended on the new Brighton High School, and what defects, if any, exist in the present structure.

Coun. HEIN—Mr. President, my reason for putting the order in is this. Last week I decided to look over the new Brighton High School. I knew that the city was spending considerably more than a million and a quarter dollars, and I wanted to see where this money was being spent and for what. To my mind, this building from the exterior would be an asset to any college in the country if it had been built as a memorial, or from money left by some wealthy alumnus. There is quite a bit more work to be done on the outside to complete the project. I refer to the exterior grading, drives and approaches. Where is the loam coming from to complete the grading? Where is the loam that was on the site when the work was started? Who did the excavating for the contractor? Who was the inspector for the old Schoolhouse Commission that should have known what was being done with the loam? What does the architect of the building know about the loam? Who is going to pay for the loam required for this grading? The building is faced with an expensive Gothic limestone which may be pleasing to the artistic taste of some. When I say the building is faced, I mean the whole exterior front, sides and back—even the automotive shop in the rear, out of sight from all, this is faced with limestone. Now, let us go into the building. Have you ever visited the whispering gallery in the dome of the Capitol in Washington? Well, the Brighton High School is one big whispering gallery. If you talk louder than a whisper, you feel as though the roof was coming down on you. How long will the teaching staff in this school last with their voices reverberating throughout the classroom? The slightest noise is carried back and forth throughout each classroom. What has been done to tone this down? Why should it exist at all? If you do not believe me, I ask that you visit this school and get the facts first hand. I asked the superintendent for the contractor if they had heat on the building, and he said they let their engineer go four weeks ago. Imagine a new building costing what this building has without heat to keep out moisture. In some rooms the paint is already beginning to peel off the ceiling. Perhaps it might be well to look into this matter further if such conditions exist. What has happened before? What is likely to happen in the future? As the roof is leaking in several places, we can see right now what is happening. The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS.

Coun. WILSON, for the Committee on Appropriations, submitted the following:

1. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred May 19) appropriating $75,000 for granolithic sidewalks—that same ought to pass. Report accepted, said order passed, yeas 21, nays 0.

COST OF COMPLETION OF MORTON STREET.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners, through his Honor the Mayor, be, and said Board hereby is, respectfully requested to advise the City Council forthwith as to the estimated cost necessary for the completion of Morton street, Dorchester, covering that section of the proposed Morton street between Codman street and Druid street.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, that order is introduced at this time in an endeavor to settle a dispute apparently existing between the City Auditor and the Board of Street Commissioners for the last year, at least, which has been holding up the completion of the Morton street development which was authorized by the Massachusetts Legislature as long ago as 1924. In this body last year, the members may remember, loan orders offered by the councilor from Ward 17 requesting sufficient money to complete this Morton street job were successively vetoed by the late Mayor for the not particularly logical reason that he had no particular admiration direct or indirect for the representatives of the people of Ward 17. The fact remains, however, that the Morton street job was authorized by the Legislature six years ago. And still I have been called upon last year and this year to vote a million and a quarter dollars for streets like Centre street and St. Ann street, while a street in my own section remains in an uncompleted condition, despite the fact that it was authorized six years ago. I feel that the Board of Street Commissioners should either take the money out of their street money, or that some order should be passed, or a horn of the dilemma should be grasped in some way or other, so that the people of the district I represent may not suffer longer delay, because of this improvement not being carried through, for the reason that one department differs with another on questions of public policy.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

WARD 17 IMPROVEMENTS.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be, and said commissioner hereby is, respectfully requested to resurface Lindsey street in Ward 17.

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be, and said commissioner hereby is, respectfully requested to resurface Selden street in Ward 17, between Milton avenue and Capen street.

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be, and said commissioner hereby is, respectfully requested to resurface Atherstone street in Ward 17.

Severally passed under suspension of the rule.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Massachusetts avenue, from Southampton street, to New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Bridge, Ward 8, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of artificial stone, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

LAST TRIBUTE TO WIFE OF MAYOR JAMES M. CURLEY.

From the time the news was sent abroad that the wife of Boston's best loved and most honored Mayor had passed from this life messages of sympathy and condolence began to pour into the Jamaica Plain home. Friends, by thousands, wended their way to the home, to aid the family that bear up under the strain by manifesting their sympathy and offering their love at this time of greatest need, when the heart was bowed down.

By wire, from the far reaches of the telegraph; across oceans, by cable and wireless, messages of condolence came and prayers were offered, in touching tribute to a noble soul that had departed and the loving family that remained to mourn and remember. On the day before the funeral more than 10,000 citizens of Boston, from all walks of life and all stations and professions, visited the home, bowed, prayed and condoled.

Others, unable to visit, sent such floral tributes that by evening every room in the mansion was filled to overflowing with evidences of the high esteem in which the Mayor's wife and his family are held.

At the funeral services Friday morning there gathered dignitaries from Washington, high officials of the state, including the Governor and the former governor, and leaders in the life of the City of Boston, social, religious, industrial and professional, all eager to show by their presence that they would miss from their midst one who, with her husband and their family, had been inspiration to thousands who love and revere the good home.

During the services, also, City Hall was closed, the flags on all public buildings remaining, as they had been since the death, at half staff. All heads of departments, and as many others as could be crowded into the church, gathered to aid the Mayor in bearing up under his grief and to pay their last tribute to the memory of a woman revered by all who knew her. "None knew her but to love her. None knew her but to praise."

From the home the cortege proceeded via Moraine street, Centre street, Tremont street through Roxbury Crossing to West Newton street and Washington street to the Cathedral.

Cardinal O'Connell pontificated at the Solemn High Mass of Requiem. Terry's mass was sung by the following double quartet: Mrs. Julia Herrick and Miss Gertrude Anderson, sopranos; Miss Emma Ecker and Miss Nora Burns, altos; John J. Shaughnessy and James Ecker, tenors; Joseph Ecker and Joseph Mikolajewski, basses.

The organists were Lawrence B. O'Connor and Philip Ferraro. The music was under the direction of John J. Shaughnessy.

At the offertory Joseph Ecker sang "Marzo's De Profundis" and after the mass John J. Shaughnessy sang "Jesus Savior of My Soul," the favorite hymn of the deceased.

James Flynn intoned the Benedictus at the grave in Old Calvary Cemetery, supported by a quartet.

J. Philip O'Connell was chief usher at the church services assisted by the following:

Joseph A. Rourke, Arthur B. Corbett, Philip A. Chapman, Cornelius A. Reardon, Henry F. Brennan, John F. Fitzgerald, Edward P. Barry, Joseph P. Lomasney, John W. McCormack.

William G. O'Hare, Frank J. Long, George J. Regan, Edward C. Donnelly, Edward J. McGreenery, J. Walter Quinn, Stanton L. White.

Thomas P. Glynn, Daniel J. Holland, Dr. David D. Scannell, Edward F. McLaughlin, John B. Hynes, Frank B. Howland, William P. Long, Joseph F. O'Connell, Edward W. Quinn, John A. Keliher, John J. Douglass, George H. Tinkham, Thomas C. O'Brien, Dr. Frederick L. Bogan, Joseph A. Tomasello, Theodore M. Logan, Daniel J. Gillen, Edward M. Shay, William Arthur Reilly, Daniel O'Connor, Thomas F. Goode, Henry J. Smith, William M. McMorow, John A. Gerrity.

The pallbearers were Dr. Martin J. English, Dr. A. McK. Frazer, Dr. Charles Whelan, Francis J. Brennan, Edmund L. Dolan, Thomas J. Johnson, Gen. Edward L. Logan, Col. Thomas F. Sullivan.

Burial took place in Old Calvary Cemetery, in the family lot.

In a grave banked over with flowers she rests beside her children who had preceded her to this final mortal manse.

MRS. CURLEY WAS NOTABLE WOMAN, REMARKABLE BY HER QUALITIES OF MIND AND HEART—WAS HER HUSBAND'S GUIDE AND COUNSELOR.

Mrs. James M. Curley was a remarkable woman. She was notable for her many worthy traits of mind and character.

Mrs. Curley was born in Boston on November 29, 1884, one of eight children. Before her marriage she was Miss Mary E. Herlihey, daughter of Dennis Herlihey, a native of Dublin, Ireland, where he was a school teacher. Her mother's name was McCarthy, and she came from Kerry, Ireland, where the members of her family were in the forefront of public affairs of their day.

Mrs. Curley was trained in the public schools of Roxbury. Her parents gave her a good fundamental schooling. In 1902 her mother died and soon afterward an elder sister, too, died, imposing the care of the father and the home on Mrs. Curley.

Even as a young girl her personality shone and marked her as one of distinction. She was noted for style and taste in dress and for the dignity of her bearing. Her mother had been skilled in the art of lace-making, and the daughter developed a similar talent.

MEETING WITH FUTURE HUSBAND.

She was but a young girl when James M. Curley, then serving his first term as Alderman of Boston, sought her favor and won her preference. They met at a church picnic held at Caledonian Grove by St. Philip's Church. Mr. Curley saw a young woman engaged romping about, making merry with a group of children. He sought an introduction and there began their romance.

"She was a working girl," said Mr. Curley, some years ago, in commenting upon their engagement, "and in choosing a working girl I showed my best judgment—a judgment that has brought me success."

They were married in Boston on June 27, 1906, not many months after their first meeting. Soon after, Mrs. Curley became zealous in aiding in the work that the Tammany Club of Roxbury was doing to relieve the distress and poverty of the people of that community. As the wife of the guiding genius of the club she went into the homes of the poor and needy and gave them comfort and material aid. Thus she early became an active partner with her husband in building up his political power and prestige.

And yet she never lost close contact with her home. She was very proud of her diploma from the Hyde Institute, where she took a course in domestic science. She was proficient in cooking, sewing and general housekeeping. She found time, however, to be an active worker in the St. Vincent de Paul Society and in the Roxbury Improvement Society.

ACCOMPANIED HUSBAND TO CONGRESS.

When her husband was elected to Congress, Mrs. Curley accompanied him to the capital city. She was considered a woman of cordial disposition and exceptional charm and beauty. She was among the most popular of the young congressional hostesses.

Mrs. Curley was well versed in the topics of politics. She believed that every woman should vote and should give their influence to protect the rights of women and children engaged in labor; that women should work for the abolition of the fads in education and that they should strive to promote better conditions in the schools and in the public institutions where the unfortunate are housed.

When Mr. Curley was first elected Mayor of Boston, Mrs. Curley said in an interview: "I am determined that his home life shall not be changed because of his high honors. Though I shall take a more profound interest in public affairs than ever before, my purpose in life of devoting myself to him and our children will remain firm."

DEVOTED TO HOME LIFE.

"There is a woeful lack of home life," Mrs. Curley said upon another occasion. "The son should be the chum of the father, the daughter a confidante of her mother, and the family fireside should be a place where both son and daughter, with the parents, meet their friends for social recreation."

She believed parents should study their children's personality and have a standard of conduct for the children to follow. A parent should be intimate with his children and cause them to feel the parent is their unchanging friend. She did not believe in the rule of the strap. Her parental influence reposed in the kind counsel, the gentle word and maternal spirit of fellowship.

The spirit of kindness ruled in her home. She believed in discipline but it was not of the harsh, unsympathetic kind. It was a discipline prompted by a kindly nature and aimed to promote a well-rounded character in her children.

HELPFUL AS WIFE.

She was a sympathetic, discreet, helpful wife. She contributed sympathy and understanding and inspiration to her husband's efforts in rising from his humble estate to his present position of prominence as Mayor of the seventh largest city in America.

She had such knowledge of public affairs and interests that she could enter into a consideration and discussion of much of the business that engaged the thought and study of her husband. She was a worthy counselor, a helpful companion.

The Mayor and Mrs. Curley were chums throughout their married life. They went everywhere together, and all the time Mr. Curley did not give to his public duties he devoted to Mrs. Curley and their children. She trained her children for the paths of honor and duty and she devotedly bore her full share of the trials of office that beset her husband.

ABIDING FAITH IN HUSBAND.

Mrs. Curley repeatedly expressed an unquestioning belief in her husband. So deep was her faith in his honor and integrity that she often said she could not understand why persons in and out of the arena of politics should assail his motives.

When told of adverse criticism of her husband, she would say, "I know him as a man, a husband and a father and I believe in him so completely that I am not disturbed at others' opinions of him."

She was a vital part in all the phases of the political life of her husband—in victory and in defeat. She was with him as an Alderman, a City Councilor, a Congressman and Mayor. With him she rejoiced in victory, and when reverses came she was a comfort and an inspiration. Her strong character abounded in the virtues that adorn her sex.

In the years her health was broken she displayed a courage and fortitude that won the admiration of all. She looked bravely to the coming days and never gave way to gloom or ill-bodings. Her disposition was cheerful and hopeful. She was remarkable in health; she was remarkable in illness.

TRIBUTES TO MRS. CURLEY.

SORROW OVER HER DEATH AND SYMPATHY FOR MAYOR EXPRESSED ON EVERY SIDE.

Expressions of sorrow over the death of Mrs. Curley and of sympathy with Mayor Curley were received at the family residence from all over the United States and from European friends, on every side, after news of her death became known. Sincere tributes to Mrs. Curley's worth came from all classes.

The Governor and Council, through William L. Reed, executive secretary of the Council, sent the following letter of condolence to Mayor Curley:

"At a meeting of the Governor and Council held this day, the secretary was directed to convey to you an expression of their deepest sympathy in the sad affliction which has come to you through the passing of your faithful and devoted wife."

From Washington, Senator David I. Walsh expressed his sorrow at the death of Mrs. Curley as follows:

"I regret exceedingly to learn of the death of Mrs. Curley and I sympathize very much with the Mayor in the passing away of such a devoted helpmate. I extend to him and his family my most sincere regrets. Mrs. Curley was a woman whose devotion to her husband and her children has commanded the respect of all who were privileged to know of her motherly qualities."

Former Mayor John F. Fitzgerald said:

"Mrs. James M. Curley was a remarkable woman. Her constant and stimulating inspiration to her husband stands out as a shining example of what an American girl can do. To few men in public life has it been given to enjoy the association and companionship Mrs. Curley gave to the Mayor. As wife, mother and American citizen, she occupied a high niche in present-day American life, and all through her own endeavor."

Former Mayor Malcolm E. Nichols said:

"Mrs. Nichols and I are deeply grieved at the sad news. We have been through some trying experiences and we know how to sympathize with Mayor Curley and his children in their great loss. We both express the hope that the Mayor will be given the strength and courage to carry on despite his tremendous loss."

Former Mayor Andrew J. Peters said:

"I regret deeply to hear the sad news of the death of Mrs. Curley. All citizens will extend their deepest sympathy to the Mayor in this great bereavement."

Frank A. Goodwin, chairman of the Boston Finance Commission, said:

"I sympathize deeply with the Mayor and his children. Mrs. Curley was a wonderful wife and mother."

E. Mark Sullivan, former corporation counsel, said:

"For my part I knew Mrs. Curley well. She was a great adviser of the Mayor. She sustained him always when he needed a friend."

Samuel Silverman, corporation counsel, said: "A faithful and devoted mother and wife; a loyal helpmate and comforting companion—she was an inspiration to all who knew her. Another life of love and devotion is now a blessed memory. All Boston grieves with the Mayor in his hour of sorrow."

Mrs. Colin W. MacDonald, Boston election commissioner, said: "Mrs. Curley's death will be a severe loss to the Mayor. She always manifested a wonderful interest in his work. Her constant inspiration and cooperation with him in his problems was remarkable."

FIRST CORPS OF CADETS POSTPONE REVIEW.

The following letter was received on June 11 by his Honor Mayor James M. Curley relative thereto:

HEADQUARTERS, 211TH COAST ARTILLERY
(ANTI-AIRCRAFT)
(FIRST CORPS OF CADETS),
MASS. NATIONAL GUARD,
105 ARLINGTON STREET, BOSTON,
June 11, 1930.

HIS HONOR THE MAYOR, JAMES M. CURLEY, Boston, Mass.

DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—The 211th C. A. (A. A.), First Corps of Cadets, deeply sympathizes with you in your bereavement and appreciates the great loss you have suffered in the death of Mrs. Curley.

Under the conditions Col. Horace Z. Landon, Commanding Officer, has felt it would be better to postpone the review to his Honor until a later date and will arrange same to meet your convenience. Your office has been so notified and agrees that a postponement is advisable.

With deepest sympathy from the entire command, I remain,

OSCAR C. BOHLIN,
Captain Adjutant.

PREVIOUS ACCIDENT EXPERIENCE OF OPERATORS INVOLVED IN FATAL ACCIDENTS.

Only 147, or little more than one-third of the 393 motor-vehicle operators involved in fatal accidents in Connecticut in 1928 had previously been in accidents, according to the study of automobile mishaps in that state for that year, made by Richard S. Kirby, Associate Professor of the Department of Civil Engineering of Yale University.

The survey shows that 4 drivers involved in fatal accidents in 1928 had each been in 7 accidents previously; 2 others had previously been involved in 6 accidents; 4 in 5 accidents; 8 in 4; 13 in 3; 43 in 2; and 73 in 1.

There were 256, or close to two-thirds, however, who had clear accident records. Only 2 drivers out of the entire number had figured in previous fatal accidents.

Actually, 90 more drivers were in fatal collisions, but 20 of these were "hit and run" drivers, and 70 others were killed.

MAYOR CURLEY SECURES GOVERNOR'S ISLAND FROM NAVY DEPARTMENT FOR ENLARGEMENT OF AIRPORT FACILITIES.

Mayor Curley, on June 6, sent the following telegram to Hon. Charles Francis Adams, Secretary of the Navy, Washington, D. C.:

I have just received information that the custody of Governor's Island, Boston Harbor, was transferred from the War Department to the Navy Department in 1923. I discussed the question of transfer with President Hoover upon Thursday, together with the Secretary of War, both of whom were agreeable to a lease of the property to the City of Boston for airport purposes for a period of ten years at $1 per year rental subject to renewal and with the proviso that it revert to the Federal Government any time that it might be required for purposes of national defense. The island has not been utilized by the Federal Government for defense purposes for a period of more than a quarter of a century and, so far as I am aware, there is at present no movement on foot or plans for its utilization for national defense purposes.

The City of Boston has authorized an expenditure of $16,000,000 for a tunnel from Boston to East Boston, and is prepared to spend an additional $1,000,000 immediately for street improvements at East Boston which will result in a direct communication via the tunnel, when constructed, between the airport and the city proper. The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the City of Boston and private interests have already expended in excess of $5,000,000 upon the East Boston Airport and it is absolutely essential to the proper development of the airport that Governor's Island be leased to the city. Trusting that you will expedite the matter not only as a means of providing Massachusetts with an A-1 airport but in addition through the expenditure by the municipality aid in the solution of the problem which at present is so distressing to the President of the nation and to the American people, namely, unemployment. I am,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 21.

About 6 o'clock p. m., June 3, 1930, Patrolman John J. Sullivan of Division 6, just after he had been relieved from duty on a hard traffic post, received information that a truck was parked under Broadway Bridge, in a position which caused traffic congestion.

Patrolman Sullivan, although very tired and off duty, immediately responded and upon investigation discovered that the truck had been reported as stolen on Division 4 the same afternoon.

The truck was loaded with valuable merchandise and as it was parked in an out-of-the-way place, the property might have been transferred to another truck a little later and a safe getaway made by the thieves.

In view of the fact that Patrolman John J. Sullivan showed initiative and promptness in investigating this case while off duty, the Police Commissioner is pleased to reward him with an additional vacation of two days, which he may take now or with his regular vacation.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

MAYOR CURLEY THANKED FOR APPOINTING FIRE CHIEF FOX.

Mayor Curley, on June 4, received the following letter from Walter Scott, New York:

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—The Boston Herald informs me that once more one of your brave firemen has been the recipient of the Walter Scott Valor Medal, and that many names have been placed on the Roll of Merit. I like to think that every one of your firemen would perform these brave acts (which are just outside of duty) if given the opportunity. I know just how proud you must feel as "father" of the city of your two big children who answer to the names of "policeman" and "fireman."

And may I take advantage of this opportunity to thank you sincerely (as I know your citizens are doing) for appointing Henry Fox Chief of the Boston Fire Department? I have known Henry since he was a little boy, and even then he was a good fireman. I am sure he will continue to be until he is called to the Great Beyond, and I know he never will do anything that will cause you to regret that you honored him in this manner.

With continued good wishes to you, believe me,

Faithfully yours,

WALTER SCOTT.

MAYOR OF DORCHESTER, ENGLAND, THANKS MAYOR AND CITIZENS FOR ENTERTAINMENT.

The following letter from the Mayor of Dorchester, England, was received on June 9 by his Honor the Mayor:

HOTEL SOMERSET, June 7, 1930.

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Before leaving your beautiful city, I trust you will permit me, on behalf of myself and the other members of the delegation from Dorchester, England, to express to you our sincere and grateful thanks for the many acts of kindly courtesy extended to us during our all too brief stay.

With the numerous demands upon your time, we appreciate most highly the fact that you have received us so graciously, permitted us to join you in the wonderful pageant on Monday last, to provide police escort, and in so many ways added to the enjoyment of our visit, and, we trust, to the promotion of good fellowship.

With renewed thanks, believe me, dear Mr. Mayor,

Yours very sincerely,

T. H. H. WHEELER,
Mayor of Dorchester, England.

MAYOR THANKED FOR INTEREST IN NEW SHIP LINE.

Mayor Curley, on June 3, received the following communication from Leonard Castelli, General Eastern Agent of the Cosulich Line:

MY DEAR MAYOR,—I wish to thank you on behalf of the company and myself for all you have done in connection with the sailing of the "Saturnia" May 30, inaugurating the Boston regular service of the Cosulich Line.

It was indeed very kind on your part to find time from the multitudinous duties of your office on Memorial Day to come personally to the pier.

You will no doubt be glad to know that the Cosulich Line has been particularly impressed with the cordial and most efficient cooperation of yourself and the municipality, which cooperation, I am sure, will lead to the expansion of the company's Boston service in the immediate future.

I desire also to express my personal appreciation for the honor you bestowed upon me in presenting me with the Tercentenary Medal.

If at any time I can be of any assistance to your Honor, either personally or through my organization of 500 agents through Massachusetts and the other New England States, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

Yours respectfully,

L. CASTELLI.

SAFE DRIVING.

Most cities and towns have a long list of "dons" but do little to educate the drivers of cars. If one half the time that is used trying to make people do something or not to do something was spent in educating the drivers much better results would be obtained. We need drivers' schools and the city or town that first starts such a school will be doing a real service.

ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT OF "ALICE IN WONDERLAND" TO BE EXHIBITED IN BOSTON.

Mayor Curley, on June 3, received the following communication from Gordon Abbott, President of the Boston Public Library Trustees:

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Much to the satisfaction of the trustees, Mr. Belden has been able to secure through Mr. Rosenbach in Philadelphia the promise of the loan of the original manuscript of "Alice in Wonderland," by Lewis Carroll, for exhibit during the summer months in the Boston Public Library. You will recall that this is the little volume that brought such an astounding price not many months ago. With the exception of a short exhibition in New York and Washington it has not been displayed in the United States. It will undoubtedly attract many people this centenary year in connection with our own exhibit of Boston and Massachusetts Bay colonial material.

Mr. Rosenbach will only permit the book to go to Boston by personal messenger, and on behalf of the Board I would ask your permission for us to send Mr. Belden at his convenience to Philadelphia for this rare item.

With appreciation of your interest, believe me,

Sincerely yours,

GORDON ABBOTT.
